Merry Christmas And A Happy New Year THE GUILFORDIAN

VOLUME XXV

DR. HORNELL HART COMING TO CAMPUS FOR WEEK'S STAY

Eminent Sociologist To Give Series of Lectures During Special Emphasis Week.

TO BE SPONSORED BY Y'S

Many Lectures, Informal Discussions And Classroom Studies Will Be Held.

Dr. Hornell Hart, eminent lecturer and sociologist, from Duke University is coming to the Guilford campus the week of January 21-28 to give a series of lectures and discussions for the Guilford students. Dr. Hart is professor of sociology and is well known for his activities in the sociologist and religious fields.

Before coming to Duke University he was professor of Sociology at Hart he was professor of sociology at hart-ford Theological Seminary from 1933 to 1938. Prior to that he was professor at Bryn Mawr college for a period of nine years. In 1930-31 he was investi-gator in charge of measuring of changes social attitudes in President Hoover's Committee on Social Trends. addition to his activities as lecturer and professor he finds time to write and magazine articles. A num books ber of his eight books are in the Guil ford College library. He also writes articles for Forum and other periodi-

He will be remembered on the Guil ford campus for his commencement address of last year.

Dr. Hart is coming to the Guilford campus for a week of intense work with the Guilford College students. The tentative program includes speaking in the meeting-house on both Sunday mornings of the week he will be here and on Wednesday evening. The chapel periods for the week will also be devoted to him. Numerous informal and formal discussions will be held on the

(Continued on Page Four)

DEAN BEITTEL ATTENDS PHILOSOPHICAL MEETING

Dr. Beittel Leaves This Afternoon For Fall Meeting of North Carolina Philosophical Society.

Dean A. D. Beittel will leave for Wake Forest college this afternoon to attend the fall meeting of the North Carolina Philosophical Society, A. C. Reid of Wake Forest is president of the Society which was founded 2 years ago by Dr. Widgery of Duke University. Milner was president of the organization last year and Dr. Beittel is its ent secretary. pre

At the meeting this afternoon a pawill be read by Professor Dubs per will be read by Professor Duos of Duke University. The annual meet-ing of the Society will be held some time in the spring of 1939, and the ac-tivities of this afternoon's conference will be on a smaller scale than those planned for the spring.

Mrs. Beittel Recuperating

Mrs. A. D. Beittel, who underwent an appendectomy in the Wesley Long hospital November 23rd, is recovering satisfactorily and is able to be up most of the time.

Dr. Horneli Harr, eminent sociologist rom Duke, will be on campus January 21-28 lecturing and leading discussions. - (Courtesy of Greensboro Daily ussions. Daily

MRS. RAYMOND BINFORD ELECTED STATE LEADER

Becomes President of Newly Formed State-wide Peace Organization.

STATE MEETING IN JUNE

Mrs. Raymond Binford was elected president this week of a state-wide organization of the Women's League for Peace and Freedom. The Guil-ford County League for Peace has with this League, and Mrs. Binford has been very active in this work. Similar groups have been functioning in Chapel Hill, Charlotte, and Raleigh These four groups have come together to form a state-wide league, of which Mrs. Binford was elected president.

Rev. J. Elwood Carroll is first vice

A state-wide meeting is to be held at Chapel Hill at the time of the In-stitute of Public Relations, which will be the week of June 21st to June 28.

DUKE PROFESSOR READS PAPER RADIO SPEECHES ARE SPONSORED BY CLUB

Dr. Milner To Speak Over WBT, Charlotte, On January 13, Charter Day.

Climaxing the drive of the Second Century Builder's Club, five speeches over as many North Carolina radio stations will be delivered by Guilford College speakers on Charter Day, January 13, 1939.

As yet but one speaker has been defi-itely chosen. Dr. Clyde A. Milner will nitely chosen. Dr. Clyde A. Milner will speak over WBT, Charlotte from 7:00 p. m. to 7:15 p. m. The other four will be selected soon and will talk over WAIR, Winston-Salem ; WBIG, Greens-WPTF, Raleigh; and WMFR, oro; High Point.

The program to be presented on the campus Charter Day has not yet been made out Mrs. Clyde A. Milner, program chairman announced.

MRS. ADDIE FIELD LEAVES GIFT TO GUILFORD COLLEGE

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., DECEMBER 10, 1938

Bequest Left As Token of Kindness Extended by Mary Mendenhall Hobbs.

$5,000 GIVEN TRUSTEES

Ambition of Mrs. Field Was to Continue The Services Which Were Extended to Her.

A bequest of $5,000 to the board of trustees of Guilford College is con-tained in the will of the late Mrs Addie Wilson Field, '96, it was re cently announced by Dr. Clyde A. Mil-ner, president of the college.

Mrs. Field died October 13. She was the wife of R. Allen Field, of Newnan, Georgia. Seven years after the State of North Carolina had granted New Garden Boarding School its charter as Guilford College, Mrs. Field, nee Addie Belle Wilson, was gradunee Addre Belle Wilson, was gradu-ated from this institution. Her hus-band likewise attended here. He was enrolled in New Garden Boarding School in 1884-85, five years preceding the granting of the college charter. The bequest by Mrs. Field was an automation of the mirillow neoroted appreciation of the privilege accorded her by Mary Mendenhall Hobbs. It was through the efforts of Mrs. Hobbs, an outstanding woman educator in North Carolina, that Mrs. Field was enabled to attend Guilford. In a letter to Dr. Dudley D. Carroll of Chapel Hill, chairman of the board of trus-tees, Mr. Field explained the life ambition of his wife—to continue the service which had been rendered to her

FLORA HUFFMAN LEAVES

Replaced by George Wilson and Pete Moore.

Flora Huffman, one of Guilford's best known students is leaving at the end of this semester to attend one of he Rev. J. Elwood Carroll is nrst vice, president, Mrs. Taul White of Chapel Hill is second vice-president, and Mrs. E. J. Wanamaker of Charlotte is sec-nalism. Her plans to matriculate there nalism. Her plans to matriculate there of the van wore in-Strict E there is the plans to matriculate there second vice president in the plans to matriculate there in there in the plans to m at the beginning of the year were in-terrupted by the sudden death of her father.

Flora is especially well known to those members of the third estate locally known as the GUILFORDIAN staff. During seven semesters at Guilford she has given exactly seven semesters of loyal service to our paper. During her Freshman year she was an active reporter. As a sophomore she as a reporter doubling as a feature writer. Her electives as managing editor during her Junior year was almost a matter of course, but the press of other interests forced her to turn her huties over to another and serve as assistant. This years she has been the well-known associate editor.

Editor Ashcraft has announced that two well known men will be in-augurated into the associate editorship to take Flora's place. George Wilson and Pete Moore, both of whom have been on the GUILFORDIAN staff during all their three year stay at the college are to get the position. Pete is the Guilford correspondent of the Greensbord Daily News, and George has contributed much to the Greensboro Daily Record. Because of their many other activities neither is able to assume the respon sibilities of a full time job.

Gwendolyn Farrel, well-known so-prano from Greensboro, will appear in Handel's Messiah, which is to be pre-sented in Memorial Hail, Sunday after-noon. December 11.—(Courtesy of Greensboro Daily News.)

COVER COLLEGE LIFE

"College Town," Unique Paper, To Be Organ of State Collegians.

R. REGISTER WILL WRITE

College Town, a unique innovation in the field of North Carolina periodicals, will make its appearance next March. The news magazine will deal solely with college and university life within the state. It will serve as a within the state. nedium for the expression of the collegiate mind. Because it is to be of, by, and for the students of the Tar Heel state, it is hoped that the distinc tone of college life will be relected.

The idea originated among a group of students attending summer schools in various parts of the state. Feeling Sherman Smith, bu sympathetically treat a subject here-tofore neglected, the group organized Spies is Editor; Ernest King and Rob-ert Doty are Business Managers.

A pictorial section will be devoted to a particular school each edition, and an outstanding personage will be presented every month. Leaders in politics, art, and education will be solicited for con-

(Continued on Page Three)

To Xmas Holiday

In a special meeting of the fac. In a special meeting of the fac-ulty Thursday morning a decision was reached to extend Christmas vacation through Monday, January 2. Due to this action, classes will begin Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock rather than on Monday, as was pre-viously announced in the school calendar. While this extension of the holidays is sure to be favorably received by the student body as a whole, it is expected to be partic-vary welcame to these who are u'arly welcome to those who are graduates of the Greensbero High School, since it will enable them to attend the annual reunion of Greensboro High alumni which is held every New Year's Day.

MESSIAH WILL BE GIVEN AT GUILFORD COLLEGE SUNDAY

NUMBER 6

13 Choruses To Be Sung By The Guilford College Choral Society.

SHERMAN SMITH TO SING

Many Favorite Soloists Return To Sing Into the Hearts of All Guilfordians Again This Year.

About 200 years ago when George Frederick Handel was starting publicity for his new oratorio, "The Messiah," little did he know the fame it would attract. Were he to be informed of the esteemed place which it now holds in the annual Christmas calen-dar of memorable productions, he would be as gracious as his compositions are great.

Furthermore, Mr. Handel would be pleased to know of the excellent preparation which the Guilford College Community Choral Society has made for the annual presentation here in Memorial Hall Sunday afternoon, for time and again he has been honored by attendance too large to be accommo lated in the Guilford auditorium.

Little more can be done in the way of individual performers or a chorus. Greensboro will provide good soloists in the soprano section, with Mrs. Gwendolyn Farrell, whom many will remember for her previous appearances here, and in the tenor company. ances here, and in the tenor company, with Mr. Harper Stephens, of Wom-an's College. In addition to these, the Gate City will send out a group of musicians led by Mrs. Jesse Alderman, concertmeister, who ranks among the best violinists in the state; Mrs. W. S. Holms, organist, who visited the campus last year for a program of her own; and several other members of the orchestra which will ac-

Smith, basso, from Chapel the need for a journal that would Hill, will be a material addition to sympathetically treat a subject here-the program. Dr. Smith's experience

(Continued on Page Three)

DR. AND MRS. MILNER TAKE KENTUCKY TRIP

Delivers Sermon at Berea College; Entertainment By Faculty Of College Follows.

Dr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Milner rently returned from a week-end trip to Berea, Kentucky, where Dr. Milner was the principal speaker on a pro-gram that is one of a series being sponsored by the college of that town. This group of sermons is to bring many noted characters to the Berea College campus during the period des-ignated for such gatherings.

A large audience comprising several thousand students and community folk attended this meeting of last Saturday to hear President Milner. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, of Riverside church in New York city, is soon to appear on the program. Following the sermon Dr. and Mrs.

Milner were entertained by the fac-ulty of Berea College at President Hutchins' home; and a great deal of Kentuckian hospitality was shown. Dr and Mrs. Milner returned to the Guil-ford campus at the beginning of this week.

Extra Day Added

NEW MAGAZINE WILL