QUAKES

We didn't miss our guess far, readers, about our boys making the Gold Medal All-Tournament basketball team. Snag Hartley was voted to one of the guard positions, and Larry Menghetti received honorable mention.

Our boy, Charlie Tilson, was down to see us during his Easter holidays. We are always glad for Wee Charlie to come back. He is doing well as a high school coach, and methinks he makes a good base coach.

Deaven Shell set a new record for the North State Conference in baseball when he pitched a total of 21 strike-outs against A. C. C. recently. Nice going, freshman.

Last year at Annapolis, a local newspaper in referring to the Guilford-St. Johns football game, made the statement that St. Johns was able to win in spite of Guilford's great Lentz. That was all very fine, but no one seems to be able to take first in the dashes around here in spite of Guilford's great Lentz. Another thing, don't ye forget it either, these pitchers find it very hard to pitch strike-outs at a bat that Mr. Lentz is hanging on to.

Those of you who like baseball and dislike travel should like this. We have seven straight home games starting with the one played April 13 with Lenoir-Rhyne.

Hats off to the tennis team. At the time of this writing they have won two matches, and lost one. If comparative scores mean anything, they should finish the season with a higher percentage than that.

If anyone wants any flies caught—see Harry Nace—cause he can certainly catch them. Ask Elon.

Down at Catawba, one day, April 6 it was. Our baseball boys had difficulties. Catawba's team nearly wore out their own bases. They licked us 19 to 2. Methinks weather conditions hindered our boys. It was cold, rainy, and the field was slippery.

Those of us who saw the track meet with Wake Forest were greatly impressed with the skill of Rupert Pate of Wake Forest in throwing the shot and the discus. He threw the shot 41 feet 4 inches, and the discus 132 feet 4 1/2 inches.

The coach thought he was in New Jersey the other day for a few minutes, but he wasn't. He just happened to walk pretty close to the Elon bench and heard a part of the players' conversation—they are just imported. Coach.

GUILFORD NETTERS WIN TWO MATCHES; LOSE ONE

Defeat Wake Forest and Loyola University Teams, But Lose to Davidson.

TEAM APPEARS WELL BALANCED

The Guilford college net team has started the season successfully with two wins against one loss.

In their only match before the spring holidays, they took an impressive 5-2 victory over the Wake Forest Demcons.

After a three week lay-off from competition the Quaker netmen were downed by Davidson 8-1. The matches were closer than the score would indicate with five of them going to three sets.

Last Tuesday the netmen made their first local showing with a 6-1 victory over Loyola university of Baltimore. Despite the fact that the matches were played in an annoying wind, the Quakers exhibited some excellent tennis.

Don McAuslan led the way against Loyola with a decisive 6-3, 6-1 trouncing over Thaler. Other matches and scores were: Singles—Cummings (Loyola) defeated Petrea 6-3, 6-2; Rawlins (Guilford) defeated Knee, 7-5, 6-2; Davis (Guilford) defeated Quinn, 6-1, 6-2; Gehrke (Guilford) defeated Schaffner, 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles—Bowman and Rawlins (Guilford) defeated Thaler and Quinn, 6-3, 6-3. McAuslan and Petrea (Guilford) defeated Knee and Cummings, 6-4, 0-6, 6-3.

"THE TAVERN" GOES TO CHARITY BENEFIT

(Continued from Page One) and its production exceeded our greatest expectations. It was well done for amateurs, and in some spots brilliantly done for anybody.

"The Guilford college dramatic council made the most of the dramatic possibilities in the play. The stage set was far from an amateur production. Three of the characterizations were stand-outs. Tom Taylor was superb; George Wilson, Jr. was very good, the effect of old age was achieved by voice control and movement. Both he and Tom Ashcraft showed remarkable feeling for their parts. As the audience realized that the joke was on it, response was hearty and congratulatory."

The play was also discussed at the meeting of the Woman's Club.

The A. B. club is very enthusiastic about the ticket sale and are expecting an audience of between four hundred and a thousand people.

ELON NINE COPS TWO WINS FROM QUAKERS

Acree Outpitches Fuller But Loses 6-4 In First Game.

LOSE SECOND GAME, 25-6

The Elon Christians eked out a 6-4 victory over the Guilford Quakers in an exciting game at Elon April 7. This was the first of three games to be played between the two teams this season.

Ollie Acree did a commendable job of hurling for the Guilford team, allowing one less hit than the winning pitcher, Fuller of Elon.

Elon Game at Memorial Stadium

Elon became suddenly powerful in the seventh and eighth innings of an Easter Monday baseball feud, in Memorial Stadium, to overtake Guilford's 6 to 4 lead and top it by a final score of 25 to 6.

Shell of Guilford and Hamilton of Elon pitched a nip and tuck battle for the first six innings. Elon scratched first with a lone run in the first inning, and then scored twice in the second. Guilford crossed the plate three times in the second. The victors came back with one run in the fourth. Guilford made three more in the sixth.

During the seventh inning, things started happening. The Christians chalked up eight runs, and held the Quakers scoreless. In the eighth, Elon did not cease fire, but continued to pile up the score with 10 more runs to Guilford's 0. Lewis Leach took over the hurling post during the seventh inning, but to no avail. The runs came in faster. Rom Graves pitched the last third of the eighth inning, allowing one hit.

Gardner led the Christians in batting with two doubles and a single.

Acree was Guilford's star with four singles out of five trips to the plate.

GUILFORD COLLEGE BECOMES TOWN BY ACT OF LEGISLATURE

The first Council meeting was held Monday night. Proceedings were started for the organization of the town. Preparations were also made for a town election in May. All residents in the city limits of age will be voters in the election of town officers.

It is rumored that the first action of the new organization will be to pass on a dog tax on the campus. A speed limit will also be set on the campus. These will be the duties of Chief of Police Bradshaw to act as dog-catcher and to enforce the speed limit. The culprits in both cases are to be put into the combination hose-cow and dog-pound to be constructed shortly.

GUILFORD LOSES CONFERENCE GAME TO LENOIR-RHYNE

Rom Graves Receives Injury In Collision At Third Base In First Inning of Game.

SCORE IS TEN TO SEVEN

Bears Aided by Quaker Errors Keep Lead in Close Fought Game; Acree Pitches Well.

Scoring six runs in the first inning off three hits, the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears' baseball nine took a 10 to 7 victory over the Guilford College Quakers here Thursday afternoon.

The Quakers came back after the Bears' hitting spree, and picked up four runs in the first inning out of six hits. They added two more tallies in the second inning and drew Barger off the mound.

The Bears added two more runs in the third inning, one in the fourth, and one more in the sixth, while the Quakers were able to get only one more run in the fifth inning off the slants of Cline.

Ollie Acree was again the victim of bad support. His mates' errors played a large part in the Bears' scoring. He retired in the seventh in favor of Shell, who held his opponents scoreless for the rest of the game.

Childers, Herdzik, and Sampsel led the Lenoir-Rhyne club, while Nace garnered three hits for the locals.

Graves, who was injured in a collision at third base, was replaced on the third sack by Summey, a reserve infielder, who played an excellent fielding game and secured two hits for three official trips to the plate.

Guilford 4 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 0
