4 Students Make All A's; Spring Play Will Be April 18

Thirty-Two Students Make All A's and B's; Lower Ranks Larger

According to tabulations made by Miss Era Lasley, registrar, four students made all A's last semester, a decrease of four from the first semester of 1940-1941. They are Margaret Jones, Roy Leake, Antonie Ungar, and Claus Victorius.

Twelve students made all A's but one—Senta Amon, Ben Brown, William Douthit, Maria Jeffre, Mary Ellen Jordan, James Lehr, Jane Marshall, Sam Price, Charlotte Speare, David Stanfield, Gerda Ungar, and Charles Lewis. This is an increase of seven over the first semester of 1940-1941, and an increase of four over the quarter.

Thirty-two students made all A's and B's, an increase of 15 over the quarter, and nine over the corresponding semester last year. Hurford Crossman, John Jernigan, Mildred Pegram, and Charles Walters made all B's, an increase of one over the quarter and three over the first semester of 1940-1941.

While the top ranks have increased, the lower ranks have also increased in proportion to the enrollment of 379 students for the first semester 1940-1941 as against 336 for the first semester 1941-1942. Twenty-five students passed less than nine hours with a "C" average, six passed only one subject, and three passed no work at all.

Judge Hoge Ricks Will Be On Campus February 20

Judge Hoge Ricks, judge in the Court of Juvenile and Domestic Relations in Richmond, Virginia, and brother of Miss Katherine Ricks, Guilford librarian, will be on campus Friday, February 20.

Judge Ricks will speak in chapel Friday morning, and he will attend a meeting of the Board in the afternoon. He will lecture Friday evening at 8 o'clock, his speech being the first in a series of Cultural Resource lectures.

Judge Ricks received his B. A. degree at Guilford college in 1905, and a B. L. from the University of Richmond in 1908, where he is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is chairman of the American Branch of the Friends World Committee, and a member of the Yearly Meeting in Baltimore.

Inside Story of Guilfordian Wake Revealed by Victim

It is three minutes to 4 on Thursday morning. Bebe is hunting the grades story which we suspect is in the bottom of the wastebasket. The wind begins outside the shuttered window and we stop and look at each other and pretend not to be frightened. We have decided that the weird scraping noise outside the window of the Guilfordian office is only the rattling of the metal cellar door and not any of the closer relations to Dracula, Frankenstein, or vampires.

As a last resort, we are clearing the tops of our desks and encounter the rare sight of smooth dark wood, scarred at the edges by the famous feet of former editors.

Winnie is struggling with a No. 4 head in the corner by the window. It is a bad spot to sit, for there always

MR. DAVID PARSONS

Victorius To Lecture With String Group

Dr. Curt Victorius, director of the Collegium Musicum and Assistant professor of Economics at Guilford, will speak on "String Music and its Story," Friday, February 27, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, and will illustrate his talk with four musical selections.

Dr. Victorius will trace string music from its position in the Renaissance as vocal accompaniment in the early a cappella choirs, through its adolescence and emancipation in the modern age.

Assumpta Est Maria, a motet by Palestrina for three voices and three strings, will illustrate the first period, that of captivity to the voice. Barbara Anderson and Joan Ripperger, sopranos, and Wilma Knight, alto, will be accompanied in this by Bernice Merritt and Margaret Jones, violins, and Margery Huber, cello.

A four part Ricercare, by Gabrieli, will illustrate the second period when the strings were played alone, but in choir form.

Concerto Grosso, by Handel, will show the alternation of solo strings with groups of strings, an arrangement which characterized the third period. Mrs. Jess Alderman and Miss Victoria Pennenkamp, violins; and Dr. Victorius,

Parsons Named Head Air Raid Warden Of This District

Milner, Hole, Beittel, Tannenbaum, Smith Are Appointed Assistants

Mr. David Parsons, business manager of Guilford college, was appointed air raid warden of Guilford College in January, 1942, by George L. Stansbury, chairman of Guilford County Board of Commissioners, and Beverly C. Moore, coordinator for the whole county of Guilford. Serving as his assistants are Clyde A. Milner, E. T. Hole, and Ray Tannenbaum.

Dean A. D. Beittel and Coach Charles D. Smith have been assigned to duty at the warden's post, which is the message center of this section.

Coach Smith has appointed Paul Lentz as his first assistant; Bob Nolan, assistant to Coach Lentz; Fred Taylor to serve in New North; Dick Nelson, Old North; Henry Ausband, Center; Vander Chamberlain, Old South; Herbert Pearson, New South; "Dink" Dail, Archdale; Miss Christine Foster, girls' dormitories; Mr. William Edgerton, faculty homes.

These people are responsible for seeing that everything possible is done to protect and safeguard homes and citizens in the Guilford College district. Each warden of a certain section must be trained in first aid, methods of com-

Spring Vacation Extended

The faculty voted to lengthen spring vacation by one day this year at a meeting of January 19, 1942. The vacation will last from Saturday, March 28, to Tuesday, April 7.

The change is being made because Easter Sunday falls on April 5, and many students would have to travel that day in order to arrive back at school by Monday, April 6. Because of this change students will be able to spend Easter at home.

Smith, Pope, Snipes Are New Class Presidents

The newly elected class officers for the second semester were voted into office by the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen at their respective meetings on Thursday, February 5, and by the seniors in their class meeting of Wednesday, February 11.

Seniors elected DeArmas Smith, president; Mary Lou Stafford, vice-president; and Frances Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

A turnover in junior class officers resulted in the election of Virginia Pope, president; John Downing, vice-president; and Ben Brown, secretary-treasurer.

Dan Young was re-elected president of the sophomores, while Joan Ripperger serves as vice-president; Edith Swisher, secretary; and Kingston Johns, treasurer.

Brad Snipes was voted to lead the freshman class, aided by Clark Wilson, first vice-president and chairman of the program committee; Dorothy Peele, second vice-president and chairman of the social committee; Julia Nelson, secretary; and Jean Hall Thomas, treasurer.

HELEN VAN ACHTERBERG

A Cappella Choir To Sing Twice, Feb. 22

Singers Will Appear At Springfield and Thomasville Churches

The Guilford College A Cappella choir will give two concerts on Sunday, February 22. The choir will sing at Springfield Friends Church at 4 o'clock. It will appear at the Methodist Church in Thomasville at 7:30 o'clock. The concert will be given at a union service of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches as one of a series of special Sunday evening services being given by the Presbyterian church.

The program for both concerts, subject to change by request, is as follows: I—Glorify the Lord, Sweelinck; Ave Maria, Arcadelt; O King of Glory, Palestrina; To Him Who Left His Throne On High, Stainer. II—As the Waves of the Sea, Gretchaninoff; Russian Christmas Hymn, Ippolitov-Ivanov; Sleep, Holy Babe!, Ganschow; God of Might, Bornschein.

III—O Gladsome Light, Heckenlively; A Lamb Is Innocent and Mild, Eichhorn; Turn Thee Unto Me, Shallit-Howorth; Christ To Thee Be Glory, Sagittarius. IV—A Pastoral Choralogue, Olds; Let the Words of My Mouth, Hyde; O Lord God of Hosts, Gaul; Wake, Awake, For Night Is Flying, Christiansen.

Tentative Cast of 13 Chosen at Tryouts For April Production

Dramatic Council and Play Production Class Will Collaborate

The Dramatic council, under the direction of the president, Helen van Achterberg, and faculty adviser, Dr. Philip W. Furnas, will present its spring production, "The Winter's Tale," by William Shakespeare, on Saturday evening, April 18.

At tryouts Monday night, February 9, a tentative cast composed of the following students was chosen: Tom Purdy, Ophelia Davis, Darrell Durham, David Stanfield, Ben Brown, Hudson Bowne, Herb Pearson, Claire Potter, Elois Mitchell, Sarah Gray, Hazel Key, Nancy Graves, and Virginia Chapin.

Several of these performers are already veterans of the Guilford stage. Virginia Chapin, Sarah Gray, and Hudson Bowne played leading roles in the fall production, "Spring Dance." Nancy Graves held a lead in the fall production of last year, "High Tor," while Sally Gray was cast in a minor role.

Austin Scott To Present Flute Recital, February 16

Austin Scott, flautist, will present two of his original compositions, "Bagatelle" and "Scherzino" in a recital Monday, February 16, at 8 p.m. in Memorial hall.

A flute ensemble composed of Austin Scott, Hugh Altwater, and Sarah Scruggs, will play the two compositions. The ensemble will also present "Rondo" by Kummer, and "Italian Serenade" by Albini.

Dr. Curt Victorius, cellist, will accompany Austin in the Bach Sonata in B flat. The remainder of the program includes: "Dance of the Reed Flutes," from the Nutcracker Suite, by Tschai-kowsky; "Idyll," by Goddard; "The Wind Amongst the Trees," by Briccialdi; "Concerto," by Ferdinand Langer.

Miss Edith Hollowell, pianist from Guilford College community, will accompany Austin Scott in these selections.

Newlin Turns to Gardening, Carpentry in Spare Time

If you've got a stray committee you don't want, turn it over to Dr. Algine Newlin—he'll be delighted, because they are his hobby. We don't quite see what committees have to do with history—or carpentry or gardening, either, for that matter, but you're just as like as not to find Dr. Newlin building a new wing to the children's playhouse, or pulling up things in the garden.

Of course, gardening is probably just the farmer coming out in him, for he was born on a farm in the southern part of Alamance county, about 50 miles from Guilford. His hobby in grammar and high school was collecting Indian arrowheads, not—we hope—to use on his four brothers and six sisters.

Dr. Newlin majored in history at Guilford. He has one of those frightening lists of activities—class debating team, member of the Henry Clay literary society, editor-in-chief of the Guilfordian (Hail, brother!), and member of the baseball, football, and basketball teams. He was captain of the baseball and football teams, and missed only one baseball game in the four years he was here as an undergraduate. As if that weren't enough, he was also interested in Y. M. C. A. and Christian Endeavor work, and was appointed one of three Guilford representatives to a Student Volunteer assembly at Des Moines, Iowa.

But all that didn't faze Dr. Newlin a bit—he went on to get his master's degree in history at Haverford, and studied at Johns Hopkins, the University of Geneva, Columbia university, the University of California, the University of Wisconsin, and the University of Michigan.
