A Cappella Choir Enjoys Successful Spring Tour

During the spring holidays the Guilford College A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Carl C. Baumbach, took its annual tour. The 48 students, their director and his wife traveled through South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and a small portion of Alabama, as well as North Carolina. They gave nine concerts during the nine days of their tour.

The choir left Guilford College Saturday morning, March 19, bound for Murfreesboro, N. C., where they sang at Chowan College. The following morning they made an early departure for Goldsboro and performed at the Friends meeting there. Then the choir proceeded to Manning, S. C., where they were sponsored by the combined churches of that town.

Monday morning found the group moving further south to "sunny" Florida. After a long 400-mile ride, they reached Daytona Beach. The next morning found most of the choir members sunning themselves on the famous beach. That afternoon they departed for Frostproof and a concert at the Methodist Church.

Wednesday was spent sightseeing. After a short stop at an orange grove, they visited Spook Hill, Bok Singing Tower, and attended a water-skiing show at Cypress Gardens. Then on they went to Clearwater where a day on the beach was anticipated. The plans were changed by rainy weather, however, so Thursday most of the company attended a lecture at the Sea-Orama and shopped for souvenirs. That night the choir sang at the Congregational Church in St. Petersburg.

Another long ride on Friday brought the group to Panama City, where their concert was sponsored by the Lions Club. On Saturday the choir headed north again and journeyed to Warm Springs, Ga., to sing that afternoon for a wheelchair audience at the polio foundation established by Franklin D. Roosevelt. Saturday night they sang at the Methodist Church in Barnsville, Ga.

Sunday the choir returned to North Carolina to sing that evening in the First Presbyterian Church of Monroe. They reached Guilford late that night.

The home concert was presented at the New Garden Friends Meeting on Friday evening, April 1.

Dr. Crownfield Attends Meetings

Dr. Crownfield is just back from attending two very important meetings. The first meeting he attended was in connection with the Southeastern Section of the Society for Biblical Literature and Exegesis. Being held jointly with this meeting was that of the Society of Biblical Instructors. Both of these meetings were held on the campus of Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Dr. Crownfield's purpose in attending was to present a paper on the study of the New Testament. It is also very appropriate that we should mention that he is the past president of the Southeastern Section of the Society for Biblical Literature and Exegesis. Both of the groups mentioned above are top scholarly organizations.

On leaving Atlanta, Dr. Crownfield continued on to San Antonio, Texas. Here he was a consultant at the Teacher Training Institute which was held April 1-2. This meeting was held jointly by the San Antonio public schools and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

We should realize that trips of this calibre made at various times by members of our faculty go far in the furtherance of our school.

WAA Awards Banquet Tonight

The Women's Athletic Association, better known to Guilford students as the W. A. A., has elected its new officers to preside over the next year. As president, Lucy Herrin, a transfer from Warren Wilson, and serving as "veep," Emily Warrick, a senior from Goldsboro takes the spotlight. Margaret Wooten will serve as secretary with Mary Cashwell as treasurer. These, along with numerous committee members, have been chosen to govern the W. A. A.

The annual W. A. A. banquet with all its awards is to be held Friday, April 8. Here, all those girls who have earned recognition will receive their honors. All girls are invited to attend.

Coming up soon is May Day which is one of the biggest events on campus. The theme "International Day" has been chosen. The W. A. A. is doing its share to make this a long remembered May Day.

Honor Roll Party Planned

The students on the Honor Roll for the past semester are being honored at a party given for them by the Scholarship Society. The party will be held in the Fine Arts Room of the library at 8 p. m., Thursday, April 14.

The GUILFORDIAN would like to extend congratulations to each person making the Honor Roll. Here's hoping you can keep up the good work this semester.

Correction

According to the Calendar of Events in the March 18 issue of The Guilfordian the Junior-Senior Banquet is scheduled for April 8. This date is incorrect. The banquet will be held on April 23.
