RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK TO BE OBSERVED FEB. 5-11

With Religious Emphasis Week coming up the following Guilford College ministerial students hope that the students will participate to the fullest extent. Front row bottom to top are Earl Redding, Howard Hinshaw, Kenneth Wood, Bob Casstevens, Albert Bryant. Back row, from top to bottom are Larry Emmerson, Billy Britt, Viola Britt, Marie Marion and James Marion.

Guilford Student Breaks Sound Barrier

Joe Walker is stationed with the naval reserve fighter squadron VF-861 at the Naval Air Station, Norfolk, Virginia. This means that he devotes one week-end each month and two or three weeks to a summer cruise.

When enlisting in October, 1949, he applied for flight training and went to Pensacola, Florida, where he received his basic flight training. Joe then took advanced flight training at Corpus Christi, Texas, leading to his commission. After two years of flying multi-engine patrol planes he totaled 36 combat missions in Korea as part of patrol squadron VP-9. Under United Nations command his unit was stationed outside of Seoul. Joe left for duty on the East coast of the United States in June of 1953. He was released from active duty and entered Guilford in September, 1954.

Joe has flown the P-2V Neptune, P4Y-2 Privateer, TBM Avenger, F6F Hellcat, F8F Bearcat, F4V-4 Corsair, and is now flying the F9F-6 Cougar. These high performance, trans-sonic aircraft were received last year and it is in one of these that Joe broke the sound barrier.

Reading Day Should Be Used Effectively

Reading Day at Guilford is the day between the last class of each semester and the first day of examinations. Today has been set aside to give each student a chance to study for the exams which are coming up tomorrow and all next week.

Reading Day was started several years ago but due to the lack of interest in it and the lack of proper use of this day it was done away with. Last year before final examinations were given the faculty had a discussion on this matter and voted Reading Day back in.

All students should take advantage of this day and use it well. If this day is not used properly it will be taken away from the student body again.

OPEN HOUSE

There will be an open house on Monday, January 28th from 3 - 5 P. M., sponsored by the Sophomore Class. The open house will be held in Shore Lounge and everybody is invited. There will be homemade cakes, cokes, dancing, TV, and ping pong for everyone.

Registration For Second Semester

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will be registered in the library on Monday, January 30, beginning at 9:00 a. m.

Appointment cards for registration are being issued by the registrar's office and each student below the Senior Class should come by the office for his card during examination week.

On registration day, as soon as the conference with the faculty adviser has been completed, the student will go to the magazine room of the library for sectioning in the following courses:

Natural Science 12 lab.
Physical Ed. — Men
Physical Ed. — Women
Sociology 20
Sociology 20
Spanish 12

When sectioning has been completed, Dr. Burrows will check the students' registration and keep the cards. Under no circumstance should the student take his card from the library. The student will go immediately to the treasurer's office for the payment of fees. It is very necessary that veterans as well as others complete their registration in the treasurer's office promptly.

Each year a week is set aside at Guilford College for Religious Emphasis Week. This year Religious Emphasis Week is February 5-11.

Every morning from Monday through Friday, morning worship will be held at 8:10 in the Fine Arts Room in the library. There will be vespers every night at 6:45 in different dorms. These two services will be presented by the various religious groups on campus.

The main speaker for the week is Dr. Waldo Beach, professor of Christian ethics at the Duke Divinity School and the Duke Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. He is a graduate of Wesleyan University and received his B. D. and Ph. D. degrees from Yale University.

The other speaker for the week is Dr. Harold Walker, a teacher at Friends University in Kansas. He is a graduate of Harvard Seminary and received his doctorate at Edenbury.

Religious Emphasis Week will open Monday, Feb. 5, with morning worship by the S. C. A. At 10:15 Dr. Beach will speak for freshman chapel. That afternoon at four o'clock there will be a tea for the discussion leaders at Dr. and Mrs. Crownfield's. Vespers by the S. C. A. will be held in Mary Hobbs Hall, and afterwards at eight o'clock Dr. Beach will speak in the Fine Arts Room.

Tuesday morning the Methodists will have morning worship. Dr. Beach will be the speaker at Upperclassman chapel. At four in the afternoon in Shore basement there will be a faculty panel with student participation on how religion relates to various fields. Ves-
