W. S. G. Variety Show Planned For Next Friday Night

"It's a Woman's World" will be quite evident on the evening of March 16th when the women students of Guilford College combine their arts and talents to produce a variety show.

This is sponsored by the Women's Student Government Council for the participation of all women students and the enjoyment of the entire student body.

Leona Schmid and Betty Jane Beamon have worked as co-chairmen on this project while Virginia Cox, Clara Montgomery, and Janet Andrews are properties chairmen.

Each dorm has talent scouts to round up acts. Rachel Richardson, Hobbs; Gertie Wright, Founders; and Emily Howell, Shore; are the ingenious scouts.

The show will consist of dance routines, pantomimes, solos -- vocal and instrumental, and possibly skits.

This entire program was planned with the purpose in mind of furthering the spirit of cooperation among all women students. With the increased enrollment and the variety of interests evident in our student body, the Women's Student Government wishes to present a touch of this interest and talent to you. This will be a final fling before vacation. That's 8:00 p.m., Friday, March 16. A small admission will be charged.
