

A NEW GUILFORDIAN

By R. S.

It is the desire of the new Guilfordian Staff to present their school with a worthwhile newspaper. We hope that this ambition will foster a trend leading toward a new period in Guilford Journalism.

The consensus of opinion would seem to indicate that the Guilfordian has meant little more than an announcement sheet to both students and faculty members. To us, the conquest of such beliefs represents a goal. We believe that through unceasing and untiring labor we will eventually produce the sort of newspaper that you can be proud of. At the start of our year we would like to make clear to all, that there will be no magical transformation, it will take many issues to reach our end. This semester we are still somewhat hampered in various ways and can hope to do little to justify acceptance of The Guilfordian as a different type of paper. Yet it will be a period of experimentation and an unnoticeable type of internal growth.

The Guilfordian will follow a policy leading to its acceptance as an integral part of student life, as it is a student newspaper. We should like to perform a valuable function by keeping the student well informed. With the aid of various campus organizations The Guilfordian will be able to display a complete picture of campus life. We will try not to keep our wishes and aims covered, but to bring them to the attention of all who might be working parallel to us, so that we may work together in attaining our goal.

We are sure that the entire student body joins us in welcoming the new sports editorial column into The Guilfordian. This signifies the first rung in our climb toward a thoroughly good Guilfordian, and with your aid and cooperation we will find it a fast climb to the top.

We Need You Seniors!

By R. S.

One of the important steps we will take in the improvement of The Guilfordian will be to raise our circulation. It is thought that an increased circulation will help make the newspaper a going concern.

One way for us to do so in a manner beneficial to both you and ourselves, would be by asking the Senior Class to pay a nominal fee for a year's subscription. In this way you will not lose contact with Guilford College and we will be able to gain by giving you a service. The price of a subscription will not be high enough to warrant any objection. As a class which should realize the need for our proposed change we anticipate meeting none from you. If you feel, however, that there is anything objectionable in this proposal, we stand in this, as in all of our policies, open to comment.

Help Us Grow

By R. S.

The Guilfordian cannot grow into a successful student newspaper without the support of the students. With a little effort on the part of each of three-hundred students (or a little less than one-half of the student body), we can really get something accomplished.

We are offering by-lines for Guest Editorials and Feature Columns. There is always room on our staff for any Guilfordian who is not afraid of some hard work. A Letter to the Editor column will be inserted as soon as feasible. These may all be things requiring a small amount of natural talent. Of those of you who can not or will supply such talent we have a request to make. Help our Advertising Department by patronizing our customers. When you make a purchase in any of our advertisers stores, tell them, "I saw your ads in The Guilfordian." You can also aid us by offering constructive criticism. Just write down what you think and send it to:

This is the way that you can help us give you a better Guilfordian.
