

Plans Complete for Homecoming

When the kickoff whistle blows for our game on October 27, it will begin the Homecoming game of 1956. Our opponent for the afternoon will be Newberry, traveling up from South Carolina for the event. Along with the game come many other activities for the day.

Dorm decorations will highlight the living quarters. A parade of floats will begin before the game and again be displayed at half-time at the game. Both floats and dorms will be in competition in their decorations, and a trophy will be offered for the best in each division.

A visiting marching band is expected for the game. They, too, will perform at half-time.

Candidates for the Homecoming Queen have been nominated by the various campus organizations. They are: Nancy Miller, S.C.A.; Barbara Jinnette, THE GUILFORDIAN; Barbara Monnett, Quaker; Betty Jane Beamon, W.S.G.; Gertrude Murrow, W.A.A.; Claudette Belton, Revelers; Betty Adams, Monogram; Rachel Richardson, M.S.G.; Heea Halder, I.R.C.; Ann Rollins, Social Committee; Carolyn Newlin, Cheerleaders; and Becky Blackwell, Choir. From this group, the Queen and her court will be elected by the student body in chapel.

A cafeteria-style supper will be served in Founders Dining Hall at 5:30. Tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased at the registration desk.

From 8:00-11:00 in the evening the annual Homecoming Dance will be held in the gym. The admission is free and dress is informal. This dance is sponsored by the W.A.A. and they cordially invite all students and returning alumni to enjoy the evening.

Once for All

This is the month of giving. This is the time of the year when people throughout the land join hands and hearts to support the community services that are vital for the welfare of their fellowmen. On many college campuses the annual appeal to give for humanitarian causes finds ready response and whole-hearted participation. Our Guilford campus with its old Quaker tradition is no exception.

This year students and faculty alike are again given the opportunity to have their fair share in this great and unique common venture. There cannot be any doubt that they will respond as willingly and generously as last year when student body and staff together exceeded by $125 the total goal of $925. Our aim this year is to make our Campus Chest drive really all-inclusive, to give once for all! To provide for all vital causes in one campaign instead of giving to each of them separately is a tremendous saving in time and money. Hence, our goal has been set at $1,200, or $150 more than we collected last year. Students and faculty share equally in this goal, each group contributing $600. For the students that means a raise of only ten per cent over last year's collection. Four basic causes are our concern. They are local welfare, foreign relief, combat of diseases, and help to higher education abroad, where such help is urgently needed. A detailed allocation of our chest to each of these causes is found on the front page of this issue.

We sincerely hope that each Guilford student will see his and her way clear to contribute. How much? Let each of you give the amount that his means allows him, his compassion invites him, his conscience counsels him. Generous giving to better the lot of human beings here and abroad who are less fortunate than we are is in the best American tradition.

State Student Legislature Planned

The Interim Council of the North Carolina State Student Legislature met last Sunday, October 7, at Raleigh to discuss the policy for the forthcoming meeting. Representing Guilford College at this meeting were Warren Mitofsky and Alvin Jaffee.

The representatives for the convention that will be held from November 15-17 will be chosen in a future chapel meeting. Those who are interested in bidding for one of the seven seats that are open are asked to attend the meetings that will be advertised in Chapel and on the various bulletin boards around the campus. Of the seven members elected two will be delegated to the Senate, three to the House of Representatives in the bicameral government at Raleigh. The remaining two delegates will function as alternates.

Some new additions have been

Edward Post Opens Law Office

Edward N. Post, former student at Guilford College, has recently opened law offices in the Security Bank Building in High Point, N. C.

Mr. Post graduated from the North Carolina University School of Law in 1954, but was delayed in setting up actual practice by a two-year tour of duty with the United States Army.

As a graduate of Guilford College, Mr. Post stated, "Guilford offers one of the best educational programs available for a prospective law student—especially," he added, "in that the curriculum affords a wide variety of courses for the development of a well-rounded personality."

After graduating from R. J. Reynolds High School in Winston-Salem, Mr. Post entered Guilford College in the fall of 1948 to begin his upward climb. He was placed in Archdale, and like his contemporaries, he participated in the sport in season—water fighting—using the water-filled dorm basements as the battlefield.

Inspired by Dorothy Loyd Gilbert, then a professor at Guilford, he began to express himself by becoming a reporter for THE GUILFORDIAN, eventually obtaining the position of Editor-in-chief in 1949-1950. He was also a member of a While at the University Law School at Chapel Hill, Mr. Post founded and edited the Tar Hill Barrister, a student-alumni news journal which has a national circulation of around 4,000. He was also the recipient of the American Trust Company Will and Trust Drafting Award.

Mr. Post will be associated with Mr. J. V. Morgan, prominent High Point attorney.

Dr. Williams on Student Union

"I hope that the student body will feel that this is their building," said Dr. Williams, director of the new Student Union.

Dr. Williams graduated from Guilford College in the class of 1921. Her father was pastor of the New Garden Friends Meeting. Prior to coming to Guilford, Dr. Williams was director of the Lynn Home for Aged Woman in Lynn, Mass; before this she taught astronomy at Smith College.

Dr. Williams plans to have the Student Union open from nine in the morning to nine-fifty in the evening. To do this either she or a student helper will have to be in the building all the time. She also mentioned that one of the purposes of the Student Union is to have a place for day students to go between classes. The soda fountain, operated by Gordon Haight and Eugene White, will be open from 11:30-1:30, 5:30-7:30 and 9:00-9:50. Sandwiches, coffee, ice-cream, and sodas will be served.

Dr. Williams hopes that it can be arranged so that the book store will be open all the time. As well as text books, books on consignment from a store in Greensboro will be available.

Many of the clubs and organizations on campus will make use

I.R.C. Picnic Held

Despite the cold rain and fog, the International Relations Club picnic held on Friday, October 5th from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. was a success. Due in part to the facilities at Quaker Lake and partly due to the wonderful spirit of the "die-hards" who came in spite of the weather.

After some games, the group gathered for business. Miss Heea Halder was selected to be the I.R.C.'s candidate for the Homecoming queen, a choice supported by the entire group.

HOMECOMING QUEEN '56?

The Guilfordian wishes to submit Barbara Jinnette for your consideration as Homecoming Queen '56.
