

Campus Activities Highlight The 1957 Christmas Season

Student Talent Featured In "Winter Wonderland"

The production "Winter Wonderland," staged by the Men's Student Government, was presented to the student body of the college at 8:00 p.m., December 6th.

The theme of the show was carried out by the four elves, Droopy, Gawky, Grumpy, and Happy, played by Carol McBane, Lee Andrews, Lester Parker, and Sue Drake, while they waited for Santa Claus, who appeared just at the end of the production. Musical acts such as "Silver Bells" sung by Betty Ann Pringle, Paul McDonald, Mary Ellen White, and Tom O'Briant balanced comedy acts such as Craven Mackie, Ray Albright, and Chester Haworth.

The hour and a half long show took place in the auditorium in Memorial Hall.

W.S.G. And S.C.A. Play Santa Claus

The Student Christian Association and the Women's Student Government joined hands this year on the 15th of December at 2:00 in the Student Union, and played Santa Claus to twenty-five grade school children. The youngsters were treated to supper and were each given Christmas stockings, along with other gifts. Each of the three girls' dormitories were separately responsible for a portion of the children's afternoon.

I. R. C. Is Host At Student Dinner

A dinner was given in Founders dining hall by the International Relations Club on Friday night, December 13th. The entire student body was invited, and dinner music accompanied the meal.

Student Union Scene Of S.A.M. Party

The Society for Advancement of Management celebrated its Christmas with a party in the Student Union at 7:30 p.m. on December 18th.

A Waiter's Party was held in the Student Union at 8:30 p.m. on December 15th.

"The Messiah" Presented By Choir And Community

Student Christmas spirit reached its peak last Sunday afternoon when the choir presented the "Messiah," the annual program of Christmas music. With Post Barbour as pianist, the group sang several arrangements, such as "And the Glory of the Lord" from Isaiah, and the "Hallajulah Chorus."

The program was held in the New Garden Meeting House at 4:00 p.m., and several soloists from Greensboro and the surrounding areas highlighted the program.

"Rhythm Vets" Furnished Music For Christmas Dance

The annual semiformal Christmas Dance was held in the gymnasium on December 14th at 8:30 p.m. It is sponsored every year by the Monogram Club, and this year the "Rhythm Vets" from A and T College in Greensboro furnished the music for the evening. The highlight of the dance was the intermission at which time the Christmas Queen was presented.

F.T.A. Dine With Professor Bailey

The Future Teachers of America celebrated their Christmas by enjoying a dinner at Mr. Bailey's house last Saturday night, the 14th of December, at 6:00 p.m. The Baileys entertained the group.

Faculty Exchange Gifts

A Christmas party for the Guilford College faculty members was held in Founders Hall dining room on Monday night, December 9th. A large Christmas tree decorated one end of the room, and presents were exchanged after the meal.

Christmas Dinner Held At Mary Hobbs

On Thursday night, December 12th, at 6:00 p.m., Mary Hobbs Hall held a Christmas dinner in the dining room of the dorm. Boys were invited, and entertainment was presented in the form of vocalists. Holiday decorations blossomed out with a warm Christmas glow, complete with a Christmas tree.

Nativity Presented In Spanish

"Gloria a Dios en las alturas" was the theme of the Christmas party given by the Spanish club, Thursday night, December 5th, at 7:30. The Student Union lounge was decorated Spanish style, and there were a number of guests from local colleges.

A religious play was presented entirely in Spanish, starring Pat Garner and Tom O'Briant, after which everyone joined in the singing of Spanish Christmas Carols.

Shore Entertains Male Students

Printed invitations were sent to approximately seventy boys at Shore Hall, where the dorm held their annual Christmas party in the basement last Friday night, December 13th, at 8:00 p.m. Refreshments were served, and the basement was decorated completely in Christmas style.
