

Road-E-O, And Beauty
Contest Scheduled

Jaycees Sponsor

The Guilford College Jaycees have begun two projects, both involving the college.

The Teen-Aged Safe Driving Road-E-O will be held on campus May 18. Students with drivers licenses who will not be 20 years of age by August 10, 1958, will be eligible to compete for prizes, and a chance to go to the state contest in New Bern May 31, and the National contest in Washington, D. C. August 10. A written examination will be arranged prior to May 18 for those interested. Further information may be easily secured from Dr. Norman Fox.

The annual "Miss Guilford" Beauty contest will be held in Guilford College May 23. Girls are qualified merely by being 18 years old and single by September 1, 1958. They may have permanent residence anywhere. Some of the Guilford College girls have already been called on about this. Anyone who wants to get more information about this should contact Bob Thompson, Chairman of the Beauty Pageant. Bob is a Guilford student living in the Frazier Apartments.

President's Reception
To Be Held June 1
For Graduating Class

On Sunday, June 1, at 7:30 p.m. the annual president's reception for seniors will be held on the Milners' terrace. If the Commencement and Baccalaureate speakers are available at the time, they and their wives will receive with the Milners the seniors, their parents, and other Commencement guests in front of the doorway. After this the college marshals will help with the seating.

The choir will sing on the terrace. Among the numbers to be sung by the mixed chorus are: "All Things Are Thine," "The Silent Sea," "Little Black Train Is A-comin'," and "There Is a Balm in Gilead." The male chorus will sing "Awakening," "The Singers' Creed," and "This Is the Day of the Lord."

In the yard lit with colored lights, Mrs. Milner—assisted by Miss Davis, Dr. Williams, and non-senior women choir members—will serve refreshments.

N. C. Young Friends
To Attend Retreat

This week-end North Carolina Young Friends will hold a retreat at Quaker Lake. The theme for the conference will be "What Will Tomorrow's Quakers Believe and Do?"

Beginning at 2:00 p.m. Saturday it will last until 4:00 p.m. Sunday. The retreat is open to all young Friends between the ages of 18 and 30. There will be a cost of $2.50 per person to cover the expense of the week-end. Attenders should take camping clothes, sheets, and blankets.

Among the leaders will be Ralph A. Rose, Virginia printer, formerly with the American Friends Service Committee and Friends world Committee; Ed Burrows, history professor here at Guilford; Sarah Cecil, housewife, nurse, and Friends leader in High Point; Max Heirich, AFSC College Program director; Charlie Hendricks, Guilford's Director of Admissions; David Stanfield, minister of Springfield Friends Meeting in High Point; and Pete Moore, religion professor here.

Commencement Exercises Set June 1-2;
Brown, Graham Will Deliver Addresses

Sunday and Monday, June 1 and 2, have been set aside for the commencement program. Two outstanding men have been asked to speak. Kenneth Irvin Brown, a clergyman of national and international renown, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 11:00 a.m. Sunday. On Monday at 10:30 a.m. Frank Porter Graham, an outstanding figure in American education and in international relations, will give the commencement address.

Dr. Brown

Dr. Brown was born in Brooklyn, N. Y. He attended the University of Rochester and received his Ph.D. from Harvard University in 1924. He has received honorary degrees from the University of Rochester, Wittenberg College, Denison University, and the College of Idaho.

Dr. Brown's career in teaching has been a long and distinguished one. He served as an assistant in the English Department at Harvard from 1921-24 and was Professor of Biblical Literature at Stephens College from 1925-30, when he became President of Hiram College. He held this position for ten years and in 1940 was made President of Denison University. At present Dr. Brown is the executive director of the Danforth Foundation.

In 1948-49 Dr. Brown served as President of the Association of American Colleges. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and an author of note, having written A Campus Decade in 1940, and Not Minds Alone in 1954. He was the editor of Character: Bad, the war letters of a conscientious objector, published by Harpers in 1934.

Dr. Graham

Dr. Graham, the commencement speaker, was born in Fayetteville, N. C. He attended the University of North Carolina, graduating in 1909. He received the A.M. degree from Columbia University in 1915 and the degree of Litt.D. in 1931. Honorary degrees have been conferred upon him by numerous colleges and universities.

Dr. Graham served as President of the University of North Carolina for many years, and in 1949 he was appointed United States Senator from North Carolina. He was an organizer and the first president, in 1946, of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies and held this position until 1949. At present Dr. Graham is a mediator for the United Nations. He has served on various UN committees and has been the UN representative for India and Pakistan since 1951. He has been a member of numerous national advisory boards and committees, including the National Consumers' Advisory Board and the National Emergency Council. He also served as Chairman of the National Advisory Council on Social Security.

DR. BROWN

DR. GRAHAM

Summer School Set
For June 5-Aug. 5

Guilford's forty-first summer school session will begin on June fifth. The nine-week session will last until August fifth, and is designed primarily for students who wish to continue their studies during the summer, and for teachers doing further work in their special fields.

Credits in this summer session up to ten hours may be earned. Tuition charges are $12.00 per credit hour plus the $5.00 registration fee. Both board and room are provided for $13.50 per week. Women will live in Founders Hall, and men in English Hall.

Required freshman courses are offered for those freshman who wish to benefit from the smaller classes, which permit greater individual attention.

Outdoor Recreation Area
Planned For Next Year

A proposed outdoor recreation area for Guilford College has been approved. It will be a lighted area with a surface sufficiently smooth for contests such as basketball, volleyball, and badminton and will be constructed in a suitable area near the gymnasium to provide activities for students.

In order to fulfill the anticipated needs of first year students, this recreation area will be 90 feet in length and 60 feet in width. Its surface will be of asphalt or smooth finished concrete. Lighting fixtures will be mounted on metal poles at sufficient height to bathe the entire area in light after dark. Six such fixtures, one at each corner and one at the center on each side, should be sufficient.

In this area it will be possible to lay out two 40 by 60 feet basketball courts and two shuffleboard courts. Also, within the area covered by the basketball courts, it will be possible to lay out three regulation size badminton courts and two volleyball courts. In addition to these courts, there will be a handball backboard 16 feet high and 20 feet wide, and a putting green for practice golf will be laid out behind the gymnasium.

Spanish Club To Sponsor Barbecue

On Thursday, May 15, the Spanish Club will hold its annual and traditional Spanish "Bar-b-q Pig." This is the second of the two main events of the Spanish Club during the year. The first one was the Christmas Party, and the club members are working hard to prepare the second big affair.

The lake has been chosen as the site for this barbecue, and the time will be 6:00 p.m.

Entertainment will be provided by records of Spanish music and singing of popular Spanish songs under the direction of Ernestine Williams, program chairman.

Chaperones for this event will be Dr. and Mrs. Milner and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt. The sponsor of the club is Mr. Hilty.

Besides barbecue pig, the meal will consist of potato salad, slaw, rolls, ice tea, cookies and different types of Spanish food.

Organizing this affair are Miriam Almaguer, Spanish Club president; Pat Garner, vice-president; and Ginette Bourdreaux, secretary-treasurer.

Admission price is 50¢ and tickets can be bought from Mr. Hilty, Mrs. Hunt, and Spanish Club members.

This affair is not limited to students of Spanish, but all the faculty and student body are invited.

"The New Republic"
Is Offering Contest
For Young Writers

The magazine, The New Republic, is extending an invitation for young writers, members of both the student body and the faculty, to submit essays in its present "Competition for Young Writers."

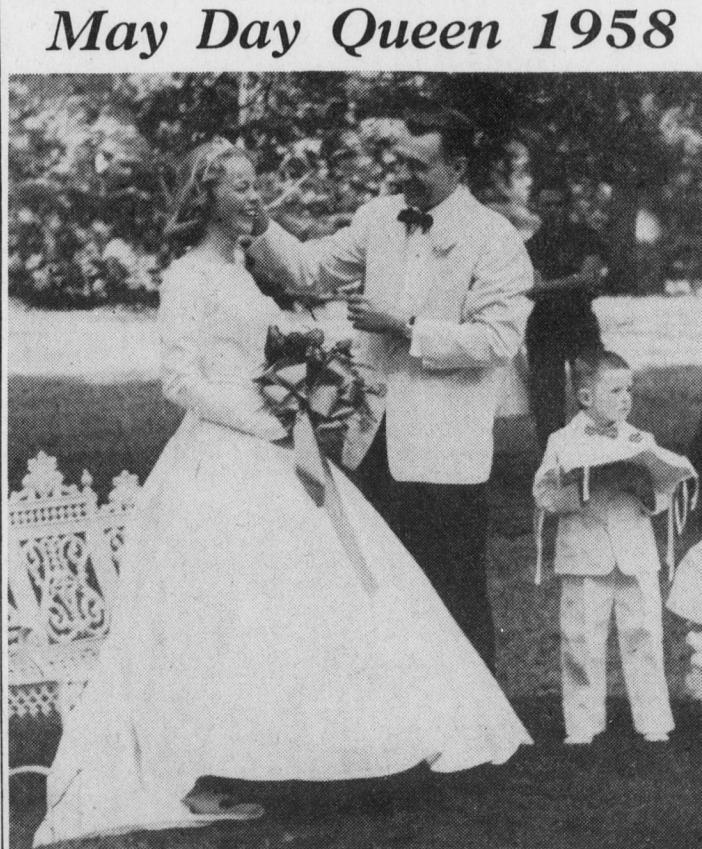

One thousand dollars in awards for the best essays on the state of American fiction—considered in general terms or in terms of a single younger novelist, and for the best essays on any aspect of present-day television—viewed as a medium for enlightenment or entertainment will be given.

The awards will be distributed as ten awards of one hundred dollars each—five in each category. Any writer under twenty-seven years of age is eligible for competition. Essays should be fifteen hundred to three thousand words in length. The manuscripts will be judged by the editors of The New Republic, and should be submitted by October 1, 1958 to: Awards Dept., The New Republic, 1244 Nineteenth Street, NW., Washington, D. C.

WAA Banquet To Be
At 5 P.M. Monday

The Mayfair Cafeteria, in downtown Greensboro, will be the scene of the annual WAA Spring Banquet to be held Monday evening, May 12th. The banquet is sponsored by the cabinet of the Women's Athletic Association and is for all the women students of Guilford College. The banquet is scheduled from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., and the transportation will be provided by the WAA.

Carol McBane and Pat Estes are in charge of the program for the banquet.

MISS RACHEL RICHARDSON