

Reveler's Production Begins At 8:15 p.m. In Mem Auditorium

Curtains will rise at 8:15 P. M. on the Revelers' Club production of The Mousetrap tonight and tomorrow night. This Agatha Christie mystery will be given in the auditorium.

Leading the cast will be Mary Wheeler and Bill Bloom with Jonathan Potter, Evelyn Westphal, John Hewlett, Cathy Coble, Larry Holland and Earl McNeil.

Speaking about the play, Mr. Donald Deagon, director, says "It is a tight little drama full of suspense."

Admission will be free to students, but there will be a slight charge to outsiders. The Revelers' Club has paid fairly high royalties for this play and the support of student attendance may insure more plays of the same quality.

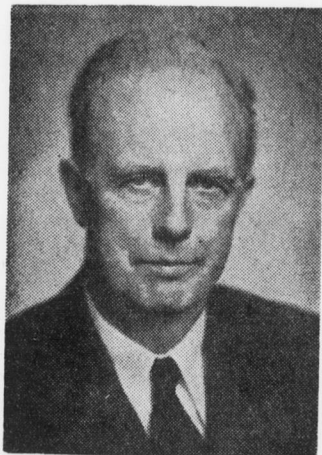

See our ad section for your free pass to the Piedmont Drive-In Theatre tonight to see NO TIME FOR SERGEANTS starring Andy Griffith.

Clarence Pickett Will Visit Campus

Clarence E. Pickett, Executive Secretary Emeritus of the American Friends Service Committee, will be on the Guilford College campus December 2-4. He will be speaking in chapel December 3 and December 4. He will also be visiting classes for discussion with the faculty and the students. Personal conferences for any student who wishes to talk with him may be arranged by contacting Floyd Moore.

Mr. Pickett is one of the most outstanding members of the Society of Friends. He was Executive Secretary of the American Friends Service Committee from 1920 to 1948, serving in this capacity when the organization won the Nobel Peace Prize. In addition to this work, he has been secretary of the Young Friends, served with the Quaker delegation to the United Nations, and has become acquainted with several Presidents of the United States. Despite his many activities, he has found time to make extensive trips into Russia.

One of the outstanding exponents of social Christianity, Mr. Pickett is vitally concerned about the application of Christian doctrine to people and environment. He has contributed much ability and interest to the Society of Friends.

MR. PICKETT

9 Students Selected For Who's Who

This year nine Guilford students have been chosen by a student-faculty vote to become members of Who's Who. Students voted last spring and faculty members voted this fall.

Majoring in History, GRAHAM ALLEN has been working for a teacher's certificate to enable him to teach social studies upon graduation. This year he has served as president of the MSG and of the Revelers' Club. Therefore he has been serving on the Student Affairs Board. He is also a member of the President's Student Advisory Council. He has worked on the Guilfordian and Quaker staffs serving as business manager last year for the Quaker. BILL CROFTON will graduate from Guilford with an Economics major. Currently serving as president of the SAB, he was also on the board last year and on the MSG council his sophomore year. Bill is now vice-president of the MSG and vice-president of the senior class.

The only foreign student to be chosen for Who's Who this year, HEEA HALDER has been very active in the IRC, serving as president this year and as secretary her sophomore year. She is vice-president of the SAB. She has been in the choir three years and is serving her second year as a member of the Choir Convocations Committee. Majoring in Psychology, Heea is undecided whether to do graduate work after her graduation or to act as assistant at a school for the blind. She is presently planning to return to India in 1960.

A Physics major, DAVID HARDIN has a long list of extra-curricular activities behind him. He has been a member of the choir for three years, acting as business manager this year. He has served on the Honor Board since his junior year and is presently chairman. Also during his junior year he was a

(Continued on page three)

Mr. Hilty To Speak About Don Quixote

Professor Hiram Hilty, Associate Professor of Spanish will speak on Don Quixote next Friday night at 8:00 in the College Union.

This will be another part of the Cultural Events Series which is planned to acquaint students and members of the community with the great artists and thinkers, both past and present.

Cervantes, who is considered to be the first great modern novelist, wrote the satirical Don Quixote early in the 1600's. Through the Don, he expressed many opinions, which Mr. Hilty plans to take advantage of by asking Quixote about modern day problems and then quoting various opinionated passages.

There will also be a display of art work done by the students at Senior High who are studying this novel.

Claudette Belton Chosen May Queen; Janet Andrews Will Be Maid Of Honor

Chosen in chapel elections from a field of ten contestants, Claudette Belton has been chosen to reign as May Queen for 1959, and Janet Andrews has been selected as Maid of Honor.

Claudette is the daughter of Mrs. Reba Belton of Winston-Salem, N. C. She has been active in extra-curricular activities throughout her college years. Majoring in Elementary Education, Claudette plans to teach in Australia after a June marriage to Mr. Joe Weston.

During her freshman and sophomore years, Claudette worked on both the GUILFORDIAN and Quaker staffs and served on the WAA cabinet. Also during her sophomore year she was on the Homecoming Court. This is her fourth year as a cheerleader and as a choir member. Last year Claudette was chief cheerleader. She

(Continued on page five)

Claudette Belton, May Queen; Janet Andrews, Maid of Honor

Bloodmobile To Be Here December 3 At College Union

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is conducting its annual visit to the Guilford College campus and community December 3 in the College Union. The hours for donation will begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue through 3:30 p.m., thus allowing ample time for all students to pledge their contribution. This is the seventh visit of the Bloodmobile to the campus. It is sponsored jointly by the Men's Student Government and the Guilford College Jaycees as a community project.

All students between 18 and 21 who are not married and wish to donate blood must secure a written permission from a parent or a legal guardian. Forms have been distributed to all students for this purpose. These permission slips should be brought to the Bloodmobile when the donation is made. There will be a physician and a registered nurse present in order to check all donors. No one will be allowed to donate unless he is physically fit to do so.

Through this program of voluntary donation, it is possible to supply quantities of blood and blood derivatives without charge to the people who need immediate aid. The Bloodmobile program is also made available to all members of the Armed Forces as well as to veterans and to civilians in time of a national emergency as a service of the Red Cross.

Club Meetings Set

The Baptist Student Union will meet Monday night at 6:30 in the hut. Dr. Claud Bowen, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Greensboro, will be the speaker.

The regular Young Friends meeting will be held Monday night, December 1, at 7:00 in the New Garden Meeting House.

On the same night, December 1, the International Relations Club will meet in the College Union at 7:30 P. M.

At 8:00 P. M. on December 4, the Spanish Club will meet in the College Union.

The Guilfordian wishes everyone an enjoyable Thanksgiving.