Nine Students Selected (Continued from page one) college marshal. Dramatics interested David during his first two

David Kwok To Present Demonstration—Lecture

David Kwok, the famous master of Chinese art and planning will be a visitor on the Guilford cam-ta Iowa State University, and later be a visit of the bole of the he will present a demonstrationlecture, during which he will actually complete about three water color paintings, discussing his work and answering questions about it. Several of his original paintings will also be on exhibit at the Union.

Mr. Kwok was born in Peiping in 1919, a member of an artist famfrom Shantung. He became interested in painting at an early age and studied under Ch'i Pai-Shih, the great master in the school of traditional Chinese painting, who said of him: "Not only is Kwo Da-Wei prolific of ideas but his techniques also surpass the others.

After graduating from the Na-tional Institute of Fine Arts in Nanking, Mr. Kwok taught for three years, and then for five years he was professor of Chinese painting at the Kiangsi Provincial Institute of Fine Arts. In the spring of 1954 the United States Government

Vacancies Open For

Marine Commission

as a second lieutenant in either ground or aviation for freshmen and sophomores. This program, known as the Platoon Leaders Class, requires no drills, meetings, at Quantico, Virginia, and receive their second lieutenant bars upon graduation from college. Full draft deferment is given to these students

For college seniors, the Officer

Candidate Course Program and the

Aviation Officer Candidate Course

Program provide an opportunity for a commission as a pilot or

Major Redman urges all interested students to apply as soon as possible due to the fact that only a limited number of vacancies exist

College Seniors

Enroll in the Marine

Be a Marine Officer

Choose air or ground

No on-campus training

Contact: U. S. Marine Corps Officer Procurement Officer

THE MARINE CORPS

BUILDS PRIDE!

On Campus

Enroll now for more pay

Complete college

ficer didate Can Course ground officer.

for this years class.

for the entire four years of college.

Vacancies exist for a commission

est possible range of tone from palest gray to deepest black, is the finest medium for this type of painting, and the sensitive Chinese brush is the finest instrument. All of the artist's pictures are painted at lightning speed and without any outline beforehand or any corrections afterward. Each picture is completed in a few minutes of intense thought followed by rapid brushwork, the picture being com-posed in the artist's mind as he works.

The appearance of Mr. Kwok on the Guilford campus is the next event of this year's "Special Cul-tural Events Series" at Guilford College.

years. He was active on the track team last year and is now in the Monogram Club. He is serving as president of the Senior Class and a member of the SAB. He is also on the President's Student Advisory Council. Dave is the recipient of the William Overman Scholarship. CHESTER HAWORTH is a versatile Biology major. During his freshman and junior years he was president of his class and a mem-ber of the SAB; he was vice-president of the Sophomore Class. He was also interested in dramatics during his freshman year. Last year Chester served as chief marshal for the college. During his sophomore, junior and senior years he has been a member of the football squad. Last year he was the Guilfordian photographer. He has been in the Biology Club all four years and is now president. This year he is a member of the Social Committee. Chester has recently been accept-ed to Duke Medical School for the fall of '59.

JO ANN HUNDLEY, a Sociology major, is another versatile senior. This is her fourth year as a choir member. She was on the WSG council her sophomore year and secretary of it her junior year; she was also on the WAA cabinet these same years. Last year she was a college marshal. Interested in sports, Jo Ann is now serving her third year as cheerleader. This is her second year as a member of the Honor Board. She is now pres-ident of the SCA, a member of the SAB and the President's Advisory Council. Last year she was on the cabinet her freshman, junior and senior years. Last year Carol maintained honor roll grades. She is now serving as president of the WSG and a member of the SAB. Carol is also on the President's Student Advisory Council.

cate, CAROL McBANE is majoring in English. She was on the WAA

QUAKER STAFF BEGINS WORK

Already hard at work on the Quaker are the five girls above. They are (1 to r) Carolyn Robertson, Gerry Waldrop, Virginia Cox, editor, Janet Smith and Nancy Ackley.

GERTIE MURROW, an Elementary Education major, is looking toward a summer marriage to David Sillman and a teaching position this fall. She is now president of the WAA and a member of the SAB. She is also in the FTA. Gertie has been on the cheerleading squad for four years, acting as head cheerleader this year. She has also been in the choir, on the Quaker staff and the Social Committee. This year she will be on the May Court.

With music as her major sub-ject, MARY ELLEN WHITE is planning to teach music after graduation. She has been in the choir for four years. During her junior year she worked on the Quaker. This year she is House President of Shore Hall, a member of the Spanish Club and on the WAA cabinet and WSG council. She has been in the Fine Arts Club four years, serving as vice-president her soph-omore year and secretary-treasurer this year. She has been an FTA member 3 years.

Thanksgiving holiday will be observed Thursday, November 27. The SCA is planning special services for those unable to go home. The hut will be open all that day for recreation, discussions, and meditation. An informal program is being planned for that night.

The Greensboro Post Office is accepting applications during November from Veterans for Christ-mas work. Contact Mr. Tracy Moore, the Postmaster.

Next Friday's chapel program is being sponsored by the SCA. A male chorus from the choir will be one of the features. Guilford's first home basketball game of the season will be Saturday night, November 29, against the East Carolina Pirates. There will be an informal dance in the gym afterwards.

In connection with the Bloodmobile service, Mrs. Edward Terrell, one of the faculty wives, spoke briefly in Freshman and Upper-class Chapels on how the blood program had aided her young son, Steven, who is a victim of hemophilia. Many of the faculty and student body have made donations especially for Steven Terrell. Be-cause of these circumstances, Guilford College has a personal reason for giving its whole-hearted sup-port to the Red Cross program.

or special subjects to take during the college year. Students qualify for a commission by attending two six week summer training sessions born. It was back in '58 when Guilford didn't have a fight song. I know it's hard to believe, but the Quakers didn't have any spirit until (fill in your name), who was a student at the time and has since gained quite a name in Tin Pan Alley, just sat down and wrote that stirring spirit song they now sing at all of the athletic contests. Why, you won't believe this, but the Quakers weren't even in the ACC and busy, including a new son, Robert Jerome Parker, Jr., who was born on September 1, 1958.

Robert S. Redman, a sociology major and member of the 1958 Who's Who, is working in the personnel department of a hosiery mill in Mount Airy, N. C.

The 1958 May Queen and WSG president, Rachel Richardson, is employed as a mathematician in the Flight Research Division of National Aeronautics and Space Agency. This is the position in which she worked during the sum-mers while studying at Guilford.

And that's how a song was | couldn't imagine their winning 53 games in succession. This year their basketball average has really slipped; it's only 148 per game.

Yes, son, all this was brought about by the fight song. If I remember correctly, the deadline was the last day of November and the author won five dollars. What? Well son, we were in the midst of a small recession and things were a

Dr. Fink To Give Lecture, Nov. 25

All interested students are invited to attend a seminar lecture at the College Union next Tuesday, November 25, from 2-4 p.m. This will be followed by an afternoon tea. The lecture will be given by Dr. Arthur E. Fink, Dean of the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina, and the tea will be in his honor. Noted for his outstanding work and study in the field of careers and social work, Dr. Fink will speak on this subject. He has written several text books and is well known as a scholar having been granted a Fulbright Scholarship to study in England. Sign along a wooded highway "A Match Has a Head_But Can

Not Think. Never Let One Go Out Alone'

Faculty, Day Hops, Shore Top Campus Chest Goal

The goal for the 1958-59 Campus Chest was set at $1,400. This amount was divided between faculty and students as follows: faculty, $750; students, $650. To date the campaign has yielded these results:

10 .
Pledged by faculty Collected from students	Amount $869.50 506.80	Per Cent of Quota 116 78
	$1,376	98
Students' contributions are broken d	own as follows:
Quota	Collected	Per Cent of Quota
Campus Men $285	$150.25	53
Campus Women 205	173.30	84
Day Students 160	183.25	115

These figures demand honorable mention for the day students. They not only met their quota; they topped it. Shore also went over its goal. According to Dr. Curt Victorius, Chairman of the Campus Chest, Hobbs, Old North and Upper English should be recognized for reaching a high per cent of quota. Center and Upper Archdale also came close to their goal.

Anyone who has not yet paid their pledge may still give the money to their representative. Just $23.70 more will meet the goal.

PAGE THREE

Homecoming Court and this year she is on the May Court. Working for a teacher's certifi-20 YEARS OF SPIRIT – GUILFORD 1978