ELEVEN SENIORS NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

Gov't. Merger Proposed

New Constitution Awaits Approval

After holding a series of open meetings and giving much time and thought to their work, the student committee on revision of the present student government at Guilford College has presented its final proposal for a new and more effective student government. This plan, stressing unity and co-ordination, is built largely on the present student government and involves no radical change. The main idea of the new plan is to form a Student Legislature which will serve as a link between and as a basis of co-ordination for each of the now separate student government organizations.

Organization—

According to the new plan, the organization of the Men's Student Government, the Women's Student Government, the Student Affairs Board, and the Honor Board would remain largely as it is now. To be organized at this level is a Day Student Committee. The Student Legislature would be composed of twenty-one members: the chairman of each of the five preceding governmental groups, the president of each class, and twelve delegates from the student body—2 senior men, 2 senior women, 2 junior men, 2 junior women, 1 sophomore man, 1 sophomore woman, 1 freshman man, and 1 freshman woman. Members of the Student Legislature would be elected by class and internal elections. From its delegates the Student Legislature would choose three standing legislative committees — Secretariate, Elections, Traffic.

7 Girls and 4 Boys Receive Recognition

Eleven outstanding seniors, seven girls and four boys, have been named to WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. These students were selected by a student-faculty vote last spring on the basis of character, service to the school, leadership and practical qualities, contribution to extra-curricular activities, potential usefulness to business and society, and scholarship.

Brenda Alexander, an English major, is a columnist for THE GUILFORDIAN. She has been a Dana Scholar for two years and has been on the honor roll every semester since she entered Guilford.

Judy Allen held the Emily S. Howard Scholarship for her first three years and is now a Dana Scholar. She was a junior marshal and has made the honor roll for two semesters. She belonged to the Biology Club for three years (program chairman, 3). Judy has been a member of Westminster Fellowship for four years, W.S.G. Council one year, S.A.B. two years (secretary, 4), the school elections committee two years (chairman, 4), and a cheerleader for four years (chief, 3, 4). She was secretary of her freshman class and is now House President of Mary Hobbs. Judy is a biology major.

Frank Bailey is an economics major with almost as many hours in his related field, psychology and philosophy. He has been on the track team, serving as co-captain one year and as captain another year. He has also been a member of the social committee and the monogram club.

A psychology major, Jimmy Boles was a member of the social committee and the Wesley Foundation for his first three years, serving as co-chairman of the former and as vice-president of the latter during his junior year. He has been president of his class three times (1, 2, 4), a member of the S.A.B. for four years (vice-pres. 3, pres. 4), the faculty-student social committee for one year, and the President's Student Advisory Board for three years. Jimmy has been active in intramurals all four years, having been selected for all-campus softball in his junior year.

Georgia Childress, an elementary education major, has been active in the Future Teachers Association for the past two years. She was a member of Young Friends during her freshman and sophomore years and has been on the student library committee for the past two years. She is a member of the 1961 Homecoming Court and the 1962 May Court.

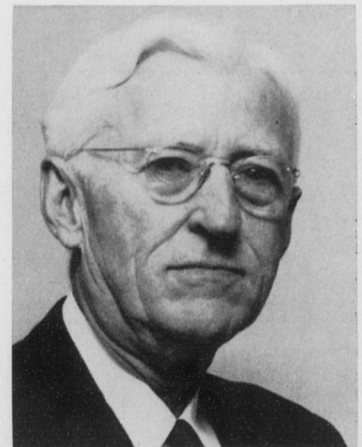

Jimmy Childress was chief junior marshal and is the president of the Scholarship Society. He has been on the honor roll every semester and has been a Dana Scholar for two years. Jimmy was treasurer of his sophomore class and vice-president of his junior class. He was clerk of Young Friends during his sophomore year, president of the S.C.A. and a member of the President's Student Advisory Council and the convocations committee during his junior year. Jimmy was on the baseball team his fresh-

Folger — New Coordinator

Dr. O. Hershel Folger has recently been appointed Co-ordinator of Special and Fine Arts Programs at Guilford. Educated at Earlham College, Boston University, Hartford Theological Seminary, and Whittier College, Dr. Folger has been a life long member of the Religious Society of Friends. For nine years the pastor of the First Friends Meeting in Greensboro, he has also served several pastorates in New England, the mid West, California, and New Jersey. In addition Dr. Folger has found interest in a Methodist Church in Connecticut, Presbyterian churches in Quebec and Saskatchewan, and Congregational churches in Connecticut and Maine.

Dr. and Mrs. Folger's only child, a daughter, graduated from Guilford in 1949—her husband graduated from here in 1950.

Dr. Folger, who finds much satisfaction and happiness in his work, has taught at Wilmington College, Ohio, and Whittier College, California, where he was Chairman of the Convocations Committee.

Speaking to us in chapel last week, Dr. Folger tried to present the type of world we live in and to show how we can direct our lives during the conflict of the present world situation. He also pointed out how a college education and an occupation can be associated and be meaningful to the individual in the shaping of his own personal desires and hopes. He pointed out that through thinking together we can lift the hope to live the kind of life we desire.

Dr. Folger welcomes student suggestions for the chapel programs. He may be contacted in his office in the Dana Auditorium on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 a.m. and on Tuesday and Thursday from 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.

Five Guilfordians Attend Model U.N. Assembly In Raleigh

Five Guilford students attended the Model U. N. Assembly, held at North Carolina State College in Raleigh on February 15-17. Guilford's delegates—Elizabeth Allcott, Judy Day, Mary Greenwood, Patty Gibbs, and Georgette Shihadi—were accompanied by Mrs. Paul Zoph, one of the I. R. C. advisors.

The International Relations Club annually sends five delegates to this assembly which is sponsored by the Collegiate Council for the United Nations. This year's Guilford delegation represented the West African nation Ghana. The assembly was carried out as a model of the United Nations, with an opening plenary session, separate committee meetings, a closing plenary session, and a business meeting.

Five committees, each comprised of one student representative from each of the collegiate delegations present, were formed. They included the following: (1) Legal Committee, which discussed the control of outer space and the use of the air and national sovereignty; (2) Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee, which discussed race relations in the Union of South Africa and self-determination, and non-self-governing territories; (3) Political and

Choir To Give Three Concerts Before Tour

The Guilford College A Cappella Choir will perform three more concerts before leaving on its northern tour during spring vacation, March 24-April 1, 1962. These concerts are scheduled for February 21 at 10:30 a.m. at the Walkertown High School, March 4, at 4:00 p.m. at the Mt. Airy Friends Meeting, and March 11 at 4:30 p.m. at the Flat Rock Baptist Church.

The Choir has confirmed its tentative plans to make a third 12" long-playing, hi-fidelity record. Choir members will spend an entire Saturday this spring in making the recording. The first two A Cappella Choir recordings are still available from any choir member.

Security Committee, which discussed the status of Berlin and the Algerian crisis; (4) Economics and Financial Committee, which discussed the development of the Congo and world refugees; (5) Ad Hoc Committee, which discussed World Courts Jurisdiction and charter revisions.

Dr. Frank Graham, U. S. Representative to the U. N. and a past president of the University of North Carolina, gave the principal address on Thursday evening.
