

Talking With Gloria

by Gloria Bunk

--Gloria has noticed a slow-down in the number of cards and letters coming in during the last week or so. It's very difficult writing a column without letters, so keep those cards and letters coming in.

Dear Gloria,

I heard that some students boycotted homecoming--why?

Kent

Dear Kent,

Why not? (Gloria dares you to come up with one good reason.)

Dear Gloria,

I was on the top floor of the administration building the other day and noticed they had constructed a long wall in the waiting room. What is it for?

Joshua

Dear Josh,

The new addition gives the student personnel staff one more wall to put students up against.

Dear Gloria,

Why is the student newspaper so poor?

Typo

Dear Hypo,

Because student legislature wouldn't vote the funds, of course.

Dear Gloria,

I'm just a freshman, and I come from the north. When I was packing my clothes, I thought it would be warm here at Guilford. Why is it so cold?

Frigid

Dear Fresh,

Haven't they turned up the heat enough in your dorm either?

Dear Gloria,

I heard that the only reason that we get mid-term grades is to let the registrar know who is taking what courses. Is this true?

Floyd

Dear F,

Do you think all those slashes, hyphens, circles, lines, P's, and incompletes could mean anything else?

Dear Gloria,

Exactly what is the Challenge of the '70's?

Jay

Dear Jay,

To have a winning football season.

Dear Gloria,

Why are you so anonymous?

"X"

Dear "X,"

Gloria is afraid of loosing her job with the student personnel staff.

That's about all for this week. Be sure to catch the horror flick playing in the cafeteria this week--"The Return of the Fly."

Devereux Summer

in part, by a grant from the U. S. Rehabilitation Services Administration and are designed to provide an orientation to career opportunities for work with the mentally retarded and the emotionally disturbed in special education and vocational rehabilitation, in psychological services, in related areas of mental health and in service-oriented research in these fields.

The Traineeships cover a full-time period of training combined with applied service-oriented work experience and observation of on-the-spot "milieu therapy." Depending upon their functional roles, some trainees will have an opportunity for work experience with mentally retarded and/or emotionally disturbed children, adolescents and young adults presenting problems of learning and/or of personal adjustment. Trainees who do not have direct contact with the children will assist the staff as Professional Aides and as Research Aides

Further information on the Summer Pre-Professional Traineeships and application blanks are available from Dr. Henry Platt, Director, The Devereux Foundation Institute for Research and Training, Devon, Pa.

FRIDAY

NET PLAYHOUSE - 9:00, Ch. 4. "The Ceremony of Innocence" features Richard Kiley in one of his finest performances as King Ethelred the Unready. Idealistically seeking a better life for his subjects, he tries to avoid war with the Danes.

MOVIE - "Marked Woman" - 11:00, Ch. 28. Bette Davis and Humphrey Bogart give strong performances in this drama about a gang czar and his underlings.

SATURDAY

DOUBLE FEATURE - 8:30, Ch. 12. "The Wolf Man" with Lon Chaney Jr. and "Dracula's Daughter."

DOUBLE FEATURE - 11:15, Ch. 12. "Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man" starring Lon Chaney Jr. and Bela Lagosi; and "The Invisible Man Returns" with Vincent Price.

DOUBLE FEATURE - 11:25, Ch. 8. "Calling Dr. Death" with Lon Chaney Jr. and "House of Horrors."

MOVIE - "King Kong" - 11:35, Ch. 5. If you can get Channel 5, this is a must! The special effects highlight this classic movie that gave the old "beauty and the beast" story a new twist.

SUNDAY

ISSUES AND ANSWERS - 1:00, Ch. 8. Democratic and Republican party chairmen

On The Tube

by KELLY DEMPSTER

Lawrence O'Brien and Rogers C. B. Morton debate the issues of the '70 campaigns.

NET PLAYHOUSE - 3:00, Ch. 4. Repeated from Friday.

VANISHING WILDERNESS - 8:30, Ch. 4. "Slow Death of the Desert Water" looks at the damming of the Truckee River that has changed the ecological balance of the area, facing several species of rare fish with extinction.

CIVILISATION - 9:00, Ch. 4, 15. "Man-The Measure of All Things" is set in 15th century Florence at the beginning of the Renaissance. A MUST.

FANFARE - 10:00, Ch. 4. "Georgia Brown sings Kurt Weill."

TODAY - 7 a.m., Ch. 12. Aline Saarinen interviews Lady Bird Johnson about her book "The White House Diary."

REALITIES - 9:00, Ch. 4. Discussion focuses on tomorrow's elections.

TUESDAY

ELECTION COVERAGE - most of the evening. Different approaches by the networks give this election coverage a different tone. ABC is offering an informal tone; CBS will preoccupy itself with trying to analyze the situation resulting from the election of certain candidates; NBC will try to tell who wins.

ADVOCATES - 9:00, Ch. 4. Should the Federal Government register all eligible voters for Presidential elections?

WEDNESDAY

MOVIE - "When Worlds Collide" - 4:00, Ch. 8. Not a great movie but the special effects won an Oscar.

CIVILISATION - 8:30, Ch. 4, 15. Kenneth Clark examines the creative genius of Michelangelo, Raphael and Da Vinci. A MUST.

ELECTION REPORT - 9:30, Ch. 4. Pollster George Gallup teams up with political analysts to look at the results of the elections.

HOMEWOOD - 10:00, Ch. 4. "Profiles in Cool Jazz."

THURSDAY

MOVIE - "Detective Story" - 4:00, Ch. 8. This excellent adaptation of Sidney Kinglsey's play concerns a tough New York cop who is accused of brutality.
