

Guilfordian

December 2, 1975

Choir To Perform

Guilford College's annual "Christmas Offering," a celebration in song of the spirit and meaning of Christmas, will be presented at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, in candlelit Dana Auditorium. The public is invited free of charge.

The Christmas gift of music will be opened by the Honors Brass Quintet from UNC-Greensboro, coached by Jack Maserie. After a candlelight processional, the Guilford College Choir conducted by Ed Lowe will sing several well-known Yule songs.

Following a short intermission, the choir and the Community Chorus will combine their 125 voices to perform excerpts from Handel's "Messiah," including portions from the Easter section.

Joining the combined choir and chorus will be guest soloists--soprano Marilyn Burris, bass Charles Lynam, mezzo-soprano Anne Woodward and organist David Pinnix, all of Greensboro, and tenor Jim Croom of Chapel Hill.

"We want this to be a festive evening," Lowe said. "In these troubled times when people feel so burdened, we want to offer them a joyous occasion, one in which they can feel a jubilation, a spiritual uplift."

Ed Lowe, Director of the choir

This issue is the second in the history of Guilford College and the Guilfordian that exceeds the normal eight pages! This has partially been made possible by your contributions--thank you students, faculty and other members of the Guilford College Community! The first such twelve page paper was printed on March 25th, 1975.

Lowe resists terming the Guilford College Choir portion of the 90-minute program "old-fashioned," but he believes the audience will be pleased by his selections.

"I felt the need for a program of Yuletide music consisting of some of the favorite melodies which have been absent from the repertoire of Christmas concerts for some time," he explained.

"Many songs included on programs of recent years seem to be more rhythmically oriented than melodically oriented, and we are going back to what might be described as 'old favorites,'" he said.

Lowe gave us examples: "Lo, How A Rose," "I Wonder As I Wander," "Cantique de Noel" and "The Kings." He also announced that the choir will sing "A Christmas Lullaby," written by a Guilford College Community couple, Lucille and Henry Cobb.

Student soloists will be Jeanne Towe of Round Hill, Va., Lark Welborn of Yadkinville and David Hawthorth of High Point.

Organist David Pinnix has been twice honored recently, having been selected to be guest soloist with the Greensboro Symphony in its March 8 concert and elected chairman of the Piano Teachers Section of the North Carolina Music Teachers Association.

Now teaching at Greensboro and Bennett Colleges as well as privately, Pinnix received his master's and doctorate degrees from the Eastman School of Music and studied in Salzburg, Austria, and in Rome as a Fulbright Scholar.

Marilyn Burris, who has been presented in recitals and concerts throughout the nation, most recently was seen on the Dana stage in "Praise!" She created the leading role of Rebecca in the Bicentennial musical written and directed by Dean Regenos.

Continued on Page 9

Marilyn Burris - one of the soloists in Sunday's Choir Concert

40 Selected to Who's Who at Guilford

Forty Guilford College students have been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, according to President Grimsley Hobbs.

Twenty-five are Main Campus students while 15 are students at the Urban Center of Guilford College.

Main Campus students selected are David Bailey Freeman, Annette Zitver Green, Suk Han Kim (formerly of South Korea), Jeffrey Dennis Martin, Lucinda Buxton Martin, Jane Todd Reagan and Vikki Spiers, all of Greensboro.

Also, David You-Heng Au, Malaysia; Charles Skipworth Bendall, Reidsville; Robyn Ware Brunkhardt, South Glastonbury, Conn.; Barbara Ann DiBoise, Hightstown, N.J., and Crystal Rae Duval, Bethesda, Md.

Also, Daniel Holsenbeck III, Kingsport, Tenn.; Kathryn Elaine Hood, Miami Springs, Fla.; Sao Kiin Leong Leonffu, Lima, Peru; Anita Gail Jones, Albany, Ga.; John Duncan Ladd, Raleigh, and Jeanette Alicia Maharajh, Trinidad, West Indies.

Also, Doug Neill, Chappaqua, N.Y.; Elizabeth Parker, George; Stafford Allen Patterson, Mt. Airy; Peter E. Reiss, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Richard Mumia Shimaka, Kenya, East Africa; Michael J. Simpson, Roanoke, Va.; and Patricia Thompson, Meridian, Miss.

Urban Center students are Joseph Auten, Chapel Hill; Herbert Gray Colley, Rt. 3, Thomasville; Robert Gail Cruikshank, Winston-Salem; Robert Jerome Fair and Robert Bernard Hughes, both of High Point, and Andrew Cannady, Vincent E. Coll Jr., Anne Garcia, Jerry Melvin

Attention Seniors: Make Contact Now

If you haven't made arrangements to have your senior candid made for this year's yearbook, please do so now! Three options for having your picture made are possible this year:

(1) November 24 and 25, Monday and Tuesday, a professional photographer will be taking pictures. A minimum $3.00 sitting fee is required. Additional photos (for graduate schools, etc.) can be obtained.

(2) A member of the Quaker staff can take your picture free of charge.

(3) You may submit a picture of your own.

You may contact the following persons to indicate your choice:

Contacts must be made no later than February 1.

Tom Lo, Bryan C224, Box 17311, 855-9129; Cathie Faint, Bryan B312, 294-3183; Sherri Wall, Bryan B312, 294-3183, Box 17541.

Or you may mail information directly to the Quaker Office via Box 17713.

Club Meeting

The December Sierra Club meeting is going to feature a used outings-equipment sale. This sale should provide a good opportunity for many students to get rid of equipment which they no longer have any use for... whether it's because they're trading-up or raising money for Christmas...or whatever! It should also allow many students to obtain some of the items they need to fill out their own equipment list...and at considerable savings over new equipment. The Sierra Club meetings are all held in the Moon Room of the Dana Auditorium Building, at 7:30 p.m., on the second Monday of each month. That means December 8th in this case.

Continued on Page 5

Handy, Rachel Phillips Hartsell, Eric Richard Indermaur, Margaret S. Lang, James T. Luman, Billy Ray Sigmon and George R. Uzzell Jr., all of Greensboro.