

Scholarship Society Banquet

BY RUDY GORDH

The Annual spring Banquet of the Guilford Scholarship Society was held on March 25 in the West Dining Room of Founders in honor of the following new student members of the Society: Pamela Cyd Atkins; Ellen Marie Cashwell; Patricia M. Collins; Debra Lynn Doggett; Robin Lynne Ernest; David Bailey Freeman; Katharine B. Freeman; Marianne Frierson; Joel Kent Groce; Charles S. Haworth; Daniel Sean Hurley; Alex H. Intermaggio; Barbara E. Jones; Kathy Ann Jones; Marcia Gail Langham; Louis D. Moore; James Cecil Osborne; William Ozment; Adele Alys Payne; John Converse Poag; Robert W. Richardson, Jr.; Mark Louis Snyder; Deborah G. Stoessel.

Among those attending

Congratulations are due to the following persons for:

- Promotion
Cyril H. Harvey to Professor of Geology and Earth Science
Mildred Marlette to Professor of English
Richard L. Zweigenhaft to Associate Professor of Psychology.
- Departmental Chairmanships
Edward F. Burrows - Director of B.H.T.C.
Martha H. Cooley - History Department

the Banquet were new and new and current members of the Society, current and retired faculty members of the Society, members of the Board of Visitors, and President and Mrs. Grimsley Hobbs.

Holly Lu Conant, current President of the Society, presented membership cards to the new student members and welcomed them into the Society. She then introduced Bruce Stewart, Assistant to the President, who spoke about the positive and negative aspects of the current academic life at Guilford. Stewart concluded by challenging the Scholarship Society to work actively to preserve the best traditions of scholarship at Guilford while striving to improve various areas of weakness.

- Fred I. Courtney - Management Department
David MacInnes - Chemistry Department
Katherine H. Sebo - Political Science Department
Study Leaves
Cyril H. Harvey - full academic year 1977-78
James C. McMillan - first semester of 1977-78 academic year.
Alexander R. Stoesen - full academic year 1977-78.

Saving Mary Hobbs

BY JENNY WIEBLER

Even though I wake up with my bed shaking and I know that I haven't deposited a quarter for any Magic Fingers, I will continue to love Mary Hobbs Hall. Presently, we have A.J. Hewitt working from the break of dawn until the sunset (or so it seems), beginning the long awaited renovation of the oldest original building on campus. The love of Mary Hobbs is constant and the interest in preservation is endless; it seems soon that the dorm will be able to live a lot longer.

I am one of forty-two residents this year. If I were not going to London next semester, I would be one of two people surviving four years there. It was not without misgivings that I chose to go to England; Hobbs has truly been home to me. My images of Guilford are very much integrated with the only cooperative women's dorm on campus. I am sure I am not alone with this love and loyalty. In fact, I think we Hobbits proved our devotion by retaining our unique unity during the fire after Thanksgiving. Just last week we were able to visibly and ultimately monetarily show our support for the dorm by presented Grimsley Hobbs with a check for 1500 dollars. This money for the renovation was not from bake sales (although we've tried that, too). We made a deal with Jim Newlin that if we cleaned up the dorm after the fire, we could use the money saved from a professional job and present the money saved as our contribution to the renovation. We did indeed earn that money; cruise the first floor halls and notice how shiny they are — that was an afternoon in the middle of exam week and just my humble contribution. There were many more hours devoted to work.

The women of Mary Hobbs in 1977 are just continuing a spirit which started with the woman for whom the building is named. If you happen to see the booklet that was on sale this past Alumni-Parents Weekend, you would notice reminiscences from women who graduated from Guilford in 1914 on. The dorm has changed in ways more than name (it used to be called New Garden Hall) but the unity still exists and people are anxious to see it preserved.

In order to keep the dorm, many improvements have to be made. $350,000 are necessary to meet building and fire safety requirements; all the money has not yet been attained. Many people have been working towards this goal and obviously they are optimistic that the money will be collected since the construction work has started. Eventually the kitchen and dining room will be moved to the basement and rooms will be created so that the dorm can accommodate over fifty people. The place might look slightly different next year but it will stand and operate with the same cohesive spirit.

Mary Hobbs Hall began as a place to house women interested in an education. It has been an innovation housing opportunity ever since. If I may get sentimental for a minute, it has definitely been a place where I could grow with the help of many wonderful women and I would not live anywhere else on campus. I admit this is prejudiced, but I am proud of my bias and I know it will never die.

The Wit and Wisdom of BHTC

BY DONALD L. GIBBON

As a second exam in my BHTC section I asked that each student try to develop a set of appropriate aphorisms (pithy, sometimes funny, sometimes acid, but always brief sayings) to describe the works which we had read during the middle part of the course. The results were so good that I'd like to share some of them with you. Remember that the selections used were Brecht's Mother Courage, Camus's The Guest, The Autobiography of Malcolm X, Keniston's article on liberated young women, selections from Tinker's Political Courage on government and power, and parts of Hobbes and Locke.

Freedom is sometimes as worthless as a two-headed coin.

Society is the one in the black hat.

Identity is great, if the real one will ever stand up.

Ron Massey

Want to take a chance in the game of life?

Larry Davis

One choice is not enough and two too many!

If war is not justified in the end because of its outcome, then why is it justified in the beginning?

If we all had transparent skin, somebody would figure out a way of classifying that transparency.

Robert Willis

You are only better when someone else is worse.

To get ahead you have to step on someone's toes . . . dead or alive!

Roles are meant to be cast.

Elaine Smith

Man lives in a grave; he has only a choice of whether to sit or stand.

Fire is creation instead of destruction

Lili Wright

One must fight to be free, but to be free, one must unite with the "enemy."

Shanna Goldfarb

New Members in Phi Alpha Theta

The Iota Beta Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, National Honor Society in history, announces eight new inductees: Patricia Collins, Scott Culclasure, John Duffe, David Hooks, Mark MacDonald, Jim Osborne, Roseanne Pipkin, and Richard Putnam. William D. "Chip" Smith was tapped last year. Congratulations to the new members.

To be eligible for membership, a student must have obtained above a 'B' average in four history courses and maintained a 3.0 average in two-thirds of all other academic work.

For Rent

Two-bedroom cottage in rural area (Brown Summit Community). Paneled walls throughout. Three rooms with carpet. Kitchen and bath with new vinyl floors. New range, new refrigerator, hot water heater, cabinets and table in kitchen. Oil heat with new system. Lake privileges (boating and fishing). Good country location near Greensboro for married couple. Call Mr. or Mrs. N.C. Rudd at (919) 656-3567. Only $75.00 per month.

Guilfordian Guilford College, 17717 Greensboro, N.C. 27440

Editors . . . Richard Phillips, Forest Hughes
Business Mgr. . . . Gib Furgason
Staff & Contributors . . . Rick Fonda, Don Gibbon, Barbara Gottfried, Rudy Gordh, Frances Henderson, Hiram Hill, Mike Kinnaird, S.P. Sidel, Mark Sieber, Pat Townsend, Bob Wells, Jenny Wiebler, Amie Williams, Tamara Frank.

ATTENTION
SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Due to an error in the processing of our membership picture for the Quaker, the Scholarship Society picture will be re-made on Wednesday, April 27. Past and new members please meet in Dana Parlor at 12 noon. Let's have a large turnout!