

Quaker cagers win two

The Guilford Men's Basketball Team was able to use a sweet "sixth man" in getting two wins at home over Pfeiffer 59-51 in overtime and Wingate 80-71. The enthusiastic fans responded to the team's hustle by helping pull the young team through.

In the Pfeiffer game, Guilford was able to get a degree of revenge on the Falcons, to whom they had lost four times last season. They were led in scoring by Senior Co-Captain Al King with 18 points.

Tony Ray (15), Greg Sims (14) and Ben Barrett (10) were other double figure scorers. Sims led in rebounds with 9, and Ray chipped in 6 assists.

In the Wingate game the Quakers used a second half surge to come from behind and defeat the Bulldogs. Ray and King led the way with 23 and 21 points respectively.

The team had to use only seven players due to injuries to starters Sims and Jim Duncan. Gerald Owens, Mike Gordon, Co-Captain Sporty Jeralds and Ely Boone all played well in the victory.

Coach Jack Jensen has been fairly pleased with his young Quakers and the leadership of Co-Captains Jeralds and King. The team is composed of one senior, three juniors, two sophomores, and five freshmen. Two players, Wayne Freeman (jr.) and Bill Thornberry (soph.), will not be eligible until December 20 because they are transfer students.

Other results of Quaker games are a 76-75 overtime loss at Mars Hill, a 84-78 loss to Catawba, and a 85-80 overtime victory over Lenoir Rhyne.
