

Softball season to begin

The Guilford College softball team, under new coach David Dowd, will kick off its 1982 season on Wednesday, March 17, with a doubleheader at Pembroke State University.

The team began working toward the season opener with 7:15 a.m. workouts in the Ragan-Brown Field House during the week of Feb. 8. Regular practice began Feb. 15 on the Haworth Fields, but it was hampered by wet grounds.

Although Guilford's team is young, both players and coach look forward to a successful season. They invite everyone to attend their first home game at 3 p.m., Tuesday, March 30, against the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The team roster includes Karen Austen of Raleigh, NC, Susan Anderson of Martinsville, VA, Christy Gaines of Winston-Salem, NC, Linda Tour of Orlando, FL, Tina Stites of Glen Ridge, NJ, Joyce McClements of Felton, DE, Mimi Penney of South Salem, NY, Judy Murray of Charlotte, NC, Lynn Warren of Kernersville, NC, Amy Parrish of Yadkinville, NC, Beth Pruden of Jackson, NC, Mary Diodato of Wilmington, DE, Cinde Shoe of Elon College, NC, and — all from Greensboro — Teresa Arnold, Teresa Bonnstetter, Terri Heath, Kris Schoolfield, Toni Simpson and Gretchen Wood.

The trainer for the 1982 softball team is Jeanette Tyner of Murfreesboro, NC.

Tennis champs ready to play

The 1982 Guilford Men's Tennis team just might be able to snare its third straight conference championship this year if the squad can mature quickly enough. With three newcomers to the team and four to the top six, this is the most inexperienced crew in the last three years.

Last year the Quakers went 17-8 with big wins over Harvard and Purdue. They lost to Atlantic Christian in the beginning of the season but came back to beat them 5-4 for the conference championship. Along with the team's achievements there were also outstanding individual accomplishments. Returning are Howard Goodstadt and Scott Nichols. Howard was conference champ at number six singles and number two doubles, while Scott was all district, conference champ at number one doubles with Pekka Kilplo and runner-up at number two singles.

In March, the tennis team will take its traditional Florida tour. Hopefully the unproven players, Junior Gavin Behrens, freshman Markuv Salokannel, Lee Smith, and William Yancey, will gain the experience and confidence needed to help the team through its tough schedule which includes five ACC and two big ten teams. The matches following the Florida trip are crucial according to six-time conference coach of the year, Ray Alley. It will be these matches that provide the momentum that must carry into the conference and district tournaments if Guilford is to go to the nationals this year.

The Dana Scholarship selection has begun again and we ask all students, faculty and staff to participate in it. A list of eligible students and nomination forms will be mailed to all faculty and staff and will be available for students at Founders Desk, CCE Lobby and the basement of New Garden Hall. All students with a 3.25 QPA are eligible (freshmen must presently have a 2.00 but must attain a 3.25 by the end of Spring semester to receive the award). In order to be considered for selection, an eligible student must fill out and return the Candidate Information Sheet he received through campus mail and he must be nominated by a student, faculty or staff member. Absolute deadline: all forms must be turned in to the Financial Aid Office, the box on Founders Desk, or the box in the CCE Lounge by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 5. Do it now!

Applications are now available for 1982-83 editorships for the Guilfordian, Quaker, and Piper. They can be picked up at the information desk and must be returned to Hugh Stohler by March 16. Interviews will start after spring break.

During this semester, instrumental music instruction is again available to those Guilford college students who are not music majors and who do not necessarily wish to receive credit for such study. This instruction will be offered on campus but on a privately arranged basis, and will follow the college calendar. For information concerning piano and guitar lessons, please contact Kathy Coe at extension 247 or at 855-0670 before 3:00 p.m.

The Guilford College Fiction Series will focus this year on telling the stories of women's lives. Three North Carolina novelists will present readings of their work and discuss the craft of fiction. Each reading will take place in Boren Lounge of Founder's Hall on Wednesday night at 7:30, followed by coffee and a craft discussion at Poetry Center southeast in the Guilford College Library. Visiting writers will be: Doris Betts (March 3), Lee Zacharias (March 17), and Linda Bragg (April 9).

Where can a Guilford student dance to two great bands and a terrific DJ, be entertained by a variety of performers (including our very own president) and still have time to play pinball and pigout? You guessed it - Celebrate Superdance '82 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association on March 27th. Registration has already begun in the Founder's Lobby.

The money collected from sponsors will be used by the MDA to help combat 40 different neuromuscular diseases through research, clinical care, and patient services. Of all the money MDA receives, 80.7% is actually used for these programs. Stop by to register and bring along your friends to Celebrate and dance for those who can't.
