"She is happy working to keep house. She wants to keep me and my children happy. I don't want a slave and Suki doesn't work hard, but she certainly knows how to be a wife." says Dr. Wack.

Dead Light Up Heavens

By Timothy Weary

No Experience Necessary Reporter

I saw the Dead in Hampton the other night (I saw a bunch of other weird sights too) and they were brilliant. I mean like the lights man ... well, first it was pitch black, but all the colors make up black, right? I think I saw 'em all on this kool-aid test. Then some familiar folks tripped up to the stage-Jerry, Phil, Bob - you know their names (Phil sang!), and at that point I distinctly heard God say "Let there be light." And there was light. He didn't get a chance to say anything about sound before the Dead unleashed their own creations-their brand of audio lightning bolts-with God on rhythm guitar, of course.

they were candyapple-red, cocaine-white, and police car-blue. The lights danced and streamed and everything was liquid. I mean waves of color splashed you in the face (I was soaked when leaving). Next the colors turned jellybean-purple sprinkled with forest green-jade. They were fireball-orange; they were island-turquoise. They were truly trippy. They were warm and friendly, and there were people behind the colors, and those people all wore tie-dye smiles, as the music smiled warm snowflakes upon us.

But back to the lights. At first

The Dead will now be taking a month off to prepare for their next tour, which will open at Guilford College for Serentripty. Hope to see you there, so together we can experience the only music I know of that tastes like sugar magnolias.

Ultimate Fizzbee

By the Jolly Green Stringbean
Toss One Today Correspondent

It's come to be the cornerstone of Camp Guilco. Every weekend thousands of tourists turn out to watch 12-20 maniacs run around on the grass in front of New Garden Hall. What am I talking about? Yes, it's Ultimate Fizzbee, that game played with a funny looking flat disc-shaped object. In the event your team does not possess a funny looking flat disc shaped object, try a pie tin (remove pie first).

Our friend "Big E" will now give a short summary of the rules and useful vocabulary for play.

1. Rule - the laws or regulations prescribed by the founder of this religious order for observance by its members.
2. Stalling - divert or delay by evasion or deception i.e. scratching armpit, tying shoe, watching sky for UFO.
3. up - into existence, when the fizzbee is no longer in contact with a human or any other inanimate object.

- 4 down - when fizzbee becomes an inanimate object again.
5. downer - when other team scores, making over all score 0-9.
6. I-got-it - 1) When one member of the team is a ball hog. 2) I got it - used by team member furthest from the fizzbee.
7. go - to be told by I-got-it to run as far away from him and disc as possible.
8. run - continued rapid movement usually to the point of exhaustion.
9. score - to catch fizzbee in the designated zone, preferably your own.
10. out of bounds - when fizzbee strikes a passerby, car (parked or moving), a window.
11. frisbee - used for a plastic disk several inches in diameter sailed between players by a flip of the wrist usually in cooperation with a flip of the brain.
