

Quakers End Winning Season With Disappointing Finish

By Fiona Clem

The Quakers ended their season and their winning streak by losing consecutive games to Catawba, Wingate and Belmont Abbey.

Coach Jack Jensen expected to beat Catawba, a conference match-up, but the Quakers haven't beat them since 1980 and failed to change the pattern.

"Their record is the same as ours but Catawba played better against us than anyone this season," commented Jensen. "They are an experienced team. Their two best games of the year against us."

Tim Beckwith, a sophomore guard, added 40 points to the 73-81 score. Tyra Parsons helped the Quakers with 11 points.

About Beckwith's play in the second half of the Catawba game Jack

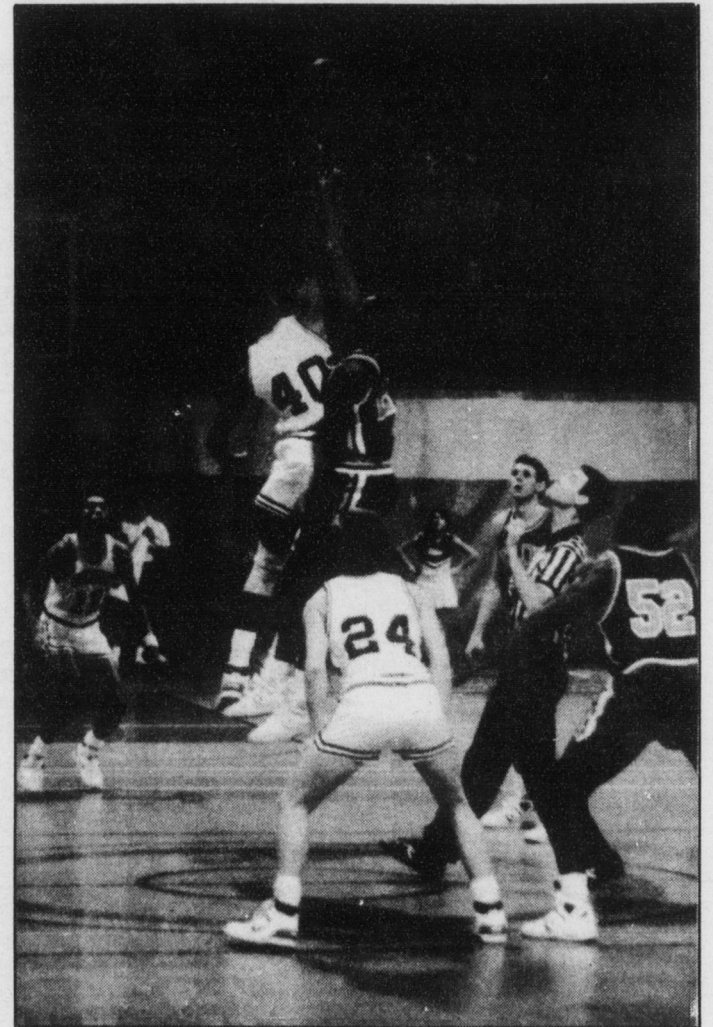

Jensen said that "it was the best second half that any player has ever had." In addition to 26 points, in the second half, Beckwith accounted for 6 rebounds and 3 assists.

Tim Beckwith was named Player of the Week (Feb. 7-13) in the Carolinas Conference.

The last home game of the season was a conference game against Wingate. Jensen was expecting a breather, "a one point victory," but Wingate surprised the Quakers with an eleven point defeat.

The Quaker's regular season ended Saturday, February 27, with Belmont Abbey devastating them 73-59.

Guilford's season record is 10-16 overall and 6-10 in the conference. The conference tournament will be held Wednesday, March 2 at Catawba College, starting at 9 p.m.

Ian Russell at the tip-off

Photo: Eric Buck

Coach Jensen barks out strategy

Guilford burns Atlanta

The lacrosse season got underway with a scrimmage loss to UNC followed by a 10-7 win over the Atlanta Lacrosse Club. Sophomore Tom Tellekamp led Guilford scoring with 5 goals.

Upcoming home games:
Wednesday, March 2 vs. Boston College
Saturday, March 5 vs. Penn State
Saturday, March 12 vs. Hampton Sydney

#20 Tom Brewer + #28 Doug Beelendorf lead the attack.

Photo: Eric Buck