

Across Town, or "Across the Universe"

Whether you need a book on Halley's Comet or the Beatles, your local library can get it for you, even if it's not part of its collection.

Ask your librarian about Interlibrary Loan. You'll find that there's more to the library than the eye can see.

some, academics are excellent, sports have potential, faculty are happy to be here, students are friendly, Quakerism ensures everyone a fulfilling life, Bobby McFerrin moonlights as a Guilford trustee... what did we do to deserve such bliss? Sure, there are some stumbling blocks, but they are all, you know, blessings in disguise.

Yes, we're on an emergency budget, but think of it as an educational opportunity for our administration — Fiscal Responsibility 101. Paper-clip counting wasn't part of the curriculum when they were in school.

Yes, students are moving off campus in droves — but if that hadn't happened, we wouldn't be making all the wonderful improvements that we're not... uh, now making in residential life.

Low freshman enrollment will continue to be an issue, though; how are we going to convince 300 mere mortals every year that they are worthy of such a fun-filled, broad, fair, cheap, exciting, harmonious, excellent, friendly, nurturing, QUAKER education?

If I had known so much about Guilford before I came, I too would have spent my four years at an institution more suited to my lowly status. But I'm here, and am ever-so-grateful, too. I feel welcome in this community of streak... uh, seekers.

Guilford, thanks for accommodating me. Consider this column my humble attempt to feed back into the community all the stuff you've fed me over the years.

Smiles, everyone, smiles!!!

able, especially Amy Warner, who played all-tournament this past weekend."

Guilford's team pulled together during overtime and managed to tie the score, ending the game, 2-2.

Lasky said, "the game was difficult because of the poor weather conditions but we came together and did a good job."

Player of the Week:

Tony Summers
Men's Soccer

Tony, a senior halfback, was instrumental in the Quakers' three victories last week. He scored a goal in each game, including the game-winner against Roanoke and Washington & Lee.
