

This Week

NEWS LINE

Art History slide talk to be presented

Adele Wayman, associate professor of art at Guilford College, will present an art history slide talk on Wednesday, Oct. 28 as part of her "Unusual Pairs of Artists" lecture series.

It will be held in the Leak Room of Duke Memorial Building from 3:45 to 5:15pm. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

Wayman's presentation, entitled "Frida Kahlo and Vincent Van Gogh: Self-Portraits," will deal with the respective artists' lives and the struggles therein. Each of the artists was obsessed with self-portraits. Kahlo was a Mexican artist who lived from 1907 to 1954. The Dutch artist Van Gogh, lived from 1853 to 1890.

Shore hosts ghoulishness

Shore hosted an evening of ghost stories on Oct. 29.

Professor Janet Cochran and three of her English 151 students, Mike Stone, Kadi Hodges and Amy Rosser, read original stories.

About 40 people attended the meeting, which also included a reading of Edgar Allan Poe's "The Tell-Tale Heart."

Film festival to be held

The 1992 Latin American Film Festival will be held at Guilford during November. All films start at 7:30 in the Leak Room of Duke Memorial, and are free and open to the public. The event is sponsored by Guilford's Intercultural Studies Program and the Duke-UNC Program in Latin American Studies.

For further information, interested persons may call Dorothy Borei at 316-2219. For a listing and description of films, see page 16.

Going, going.....?. This car, parked outside Binford Hall and directly visible from Bauman, was stripped of all four tires.

Photo by Carl Beehler

Week at the Hut

Daily: Unprogrammed worship, 8:10-8:25

Monday, November 9 pm 5:00 GCRO meeting.
9:00 Worship-sharing Seekers Session.

Wednesday, November 11
pm 5:30 Mid-week Meeting for Worship.

6:00 Seekers Session, "The Black Religious Experience in America," led by Adrienne Israel.

Thursday, November 12.
pm 9:00 Quaker Concerns.

Friday, November 13
pm 4:00 Grief Process and Support Group

Senator's Notebook

Senate Secretary Brian Sugioka

The Community Senate held meetings on Oct. 14 and on Oct. 28.

Both meetings dealt with a number of topics. Here are a few: Senate President Jen Hill announced that Ad. Council had approved a policy permitting quarter kegs at private parties. Last year Ad Council rejected the keg policy submitted by Senate.

The Student Services Committee in conjunction with Marriott has developed a third meal plan for next semester.

SSC chair Caroline Biber reported that the new plan would be 7 meals a week in the cafeteria and $103 per semester in munchie money.

SSC is also planning to have a survey to gather information about the number of vegetarians on campus with the aim of getting more and better vegetarian food in the Cafeteria and Underground.

Meghan McSheffrey, representing the Environmental Concerns Committee, reported that ECC will be the entertainment and speakers organizer for the upcoming Earth Week at Guilford in the spring.

Community Relations Committee is planning a racism workshop in December and a staff appreciation day for all support Services staff including maintenance, grounds, Marriott, house-keeping, mailroom, and bookstore employees.

The by-laws of the Community Relations Committee were approved followed by the official approval of R.J. Nickels and Bridget VandeWalle as the co-chairs of the committee.

Another issue discussed at the October 14 meeting was a special request by a group of Guilford geology majors traveling to Puerto Rico during Fall Break to participate in a NASA program.

Because of miscommunication between the students and the leader of the expedition, Geology Professor Charles Almy, there are no funds to cover approximately $2,516 in projected costs for the trip.

The Geology Department will temporarily cover the shortfall, enabling the students to go on the trip, which left on Saturday, October 18, but students will be expected to pay back the funds loaned to them.

The special request was for funds to help them pay back the geology department.

The students going on the trip were asked if they would be willing to undertake heavy fundraising efforts when they got back from the trip, to which they replied that they would.

Senate then agreed in principle to give some money to the group, but specific amounts were not decided on.

Discussion of this will continue when the geology students are able to come to a Senate meeting.

WEEK AT A GLANCE

Fri. November 6:

1:30-3:30pm: International Coffee- Boren
3:00-5:00pm: English Majors Seminar- Gallery/Commons
4:00-5:00pm: Sociology Majors Seminar- Boren
6:30-7:30pm: Intervarsity Reunion- Boren
8:00-10:00pm: 1964 "AS THE BEATLES"

Sat. November 7:

All Day: Booksale- Dana Lounge
6:30-7:00pm: Hall of Fame Banquet- Boren
7:30-10:00pm: Latin American Film Festival- Leak Room
8:00-10:00pm: OPUS Concert - Dana Aud.

Sun. November 8:

9:00-noon: Admissions Board of Directors Meetings- Founders Hall
Mon. November 9:
4:00-5:30pm: Brunnenberg Semester Meeting-Boren
7:30-9:30pm: Post Election Panel Discussion- Dana Aud.

8:30-9:30pm: Humanity for Animals-Gallery

Tue. November 10:

7:00-9:00pm: Student Focus on Africa- Moon Room
7:30-9:15pm: "But I Said No!"- Dana Aud.
7:00-9:00pm: Websterian Pre-law Society- Gallery
8:00-9:00pm: Student Democratic Coalition-Dana Lounge

8:30-10:00pm: GLBA Meeting-203A

8:30-10:00pm: FCA Meeting-Boren

9:00-10:00pm: Amnesty International-Dana Lounge

9:00-10:00pm: NCSL - Gallery

Wed. November 11:

3:30-5:00pm: Senate Meeting-Boren

6:00-8:00pm: French Club-Passion Pit

7:30-9:00pm: HOME-Dana Lounge

8:30-10:00pm: Inter-Varsity-Boren

9:00-10:00pm: Forevergreen-Gallery

Thur. November 12:

7:00-8:00pm: AACCS Meeting-Boren

8:00-10:00pm: Guilfordian Staff Meeting- Passion Pit

9:15-10:00pm: Campus Prayer Meeting-203A