

Football legend back on gridiron

Kiley Holder
Sports Editor

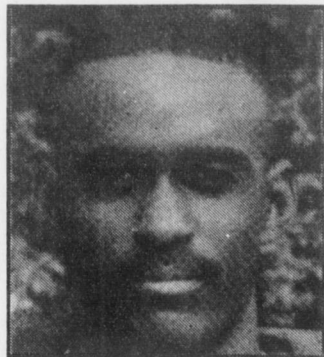

Photo File

Calvin Hunter, holder of 13 Guilford football records and one of the school's all-time greatest quarterbacks, has made his return to Armfield Athletic Center... as an assistant coach for the Quakers.

Hunter graduated from Guilford College two years ago and went to Georgia Southern University to pursue a Masters degree in Sports Management, in the area of Facilities Management.

In his senior year, (1991) Hunter led the Quakers as quarterback and played an enormous part in the team's rise to championship status.

"I was supposedly the offensive threat coming back," said Hunter. "It didn't really matter to me exactly how my year went. I just wanted to win. I felt like we had a good chance of beating the school record for wins,...winning the Hunter ODAC championship, and hopefully making the playoffs."

Hunter and the team achieved two of those goals: they tied the win record with eight, and they won the conference championship.

Head football coach Mike Ketchum said that he enjoys having him around. "It's good to have him back," said Ketchum. "Calvin's been a great help, especially to our younger kids."

"I think the players...who played with Calvin respect him a little more than the other folks they've played with. Our young kids respect him because they've all heard about him.

"We'd like to keep him here forever, but I don't know if that's going to work out. He'd be a tremendous person to have around campus and around the players."

Hunter also expressed that it was great to be back, but said that his work with Guilford's football program will probably be short-term.

"It's pretty nice. I'm just here this year,...eventually I want to get into high school athletics--coaching, that sort of thing. But it was good to be back."

Hunter said he works mainly with the receivers on the team, but naturally he helps the quarterbacks, as well as running backs. This summer, Hunter completed an internship with the Greensboro Coliseum. He only needs to take a couple more courses and go through an "exit interview" to fulfill the requirements for his Masters degree.

Hunter's Records

| | |
|---|---|
| Rushing Touchdowns Game: 3 vs. Methodist (1991) [tied with Johnny Hines and John Meroney] Season: 8 (1991) [tied with Johnny Hines (1986) and Dan Wheeling (1967)] Career: 18 | Pass Completions Career: 325 (1988-91) |
| Touchdown Passes Career: 34 | Passing Yards: Career: 4,553 (1988-91) |
| Touchdowns Game: 4 vs. Methodist (1991) [tied with Tom McBane] | Total Offensive Yards Game: 343 vs. Methodist (1991) Season: 1,958 (1990) Career: 5,827 (1988-91) |
| Pass Attempts Career: 615 (1988-91) | Interceptions Game: 4 vs. Ferrum (1989) [tied with Bill Burchette] Career: 27 (1988-91) |

Win a free meal at Jam's Deli!

Can YOU beat "The Greek?"

NFL Contest

Match your NFL predictions against Junior Eric "The Greek" Pappas, unequivocally Guilford's most knowledgeable sports mind.

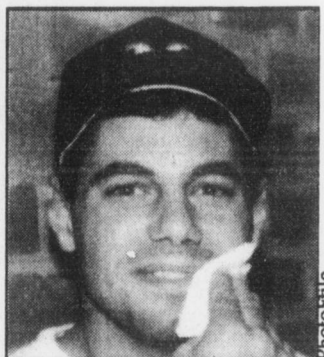

Photo File

Yes, you asked for it - even begged us to bring back our "Beat the Greek" contest once again this fall. Here it is, bigger, better and even more spectacular than ever.

This is your chance to demonstrate to your fellow Guilford sports junkies who is the real expert and get a prize to boot!

Last year "The Greek" suffered a drought in his success with his predictions failing many weeks in a row to claim the donuts; however, he is more confident than ever in his superior prognosticating skills.

Pappas

This year the winner each week will receive a Jam's Deli $5.00 gift certificate.

To enter, return the entry below no later than Saturday, Sept. 11 at 10 pm to the box located on the door of the publication suite upstairs in Founders. Winners will be notified Tuesday and may then claim their prize.

Please submit only one entry per person.

ENTRY BLANK

Circle the winner of each game

| | |
|------------------------------------|-----------|
| Game 1: Kansas City @ Houston | Sun. 1 pm |
| Game 2: Chicago @ Minnesota | 1 pm |
| Game 3: Philadelphia @ Green Bay | 1 pm |
| Game 4: New Orleans @ Atlanta | 1 pm |
| Game 5: Phoenix @ Washington | 1 pm |
| Game 6: Tampa Bay @ N.Y. Giants | 1 pm |
| Game 7: Pittsburgh @ L.A. Rams | 4 pm |
| Game 8: Buffalo @ Dallas | 4 pm |
| Game 9: N.Y. Jets @ Miami | 4 pm |
| Game 10: San Fransisco @ Cleveland | Mon. 9 pm |

Tie Breaker: Predict the total score of L.A. Raiders @ Seattle
Score: _____

Name: _____
Address: _____
Phone: _____

Fall Break Work Trips:

Tentative plans are being made for work trips over fall break. Possible locations are Miami, Florida, where 23 students spent last fall break responding to Hurricane Andrew damage, and Iowa where much work remains to be done cleaning up after the floods. Any persons interested in doing work service October 16 - 23 should call Carrie Eby (x2353) or Max Carter (x2445).