

WQFS staff . . . at your service

Christian Scanniello

Staff Writer

Hopefully by now everyone is well acquainted with WQFS, the campus radio station that provides its listeners with hours of aural pleasure as well as a countless number of life lessons. For the ten students who comprise the station's executive staff, WQFS also provides plenty of headaches and seemingly unsolvable quandaries. But not to overinflate our responsibilities. No one forced us to be martyrs for quality radio. We do it because we love it. Here we are . . .

Name and Position: Becky Browning, General Manager

Otherwise known as: J Crew, Head Honcho

Average bedtime: Between 2 and 3 a.m.

Favorite albums of 1993 (so far): Smashing Pumpkins Siamese Dream, Belly Star (Honorable Mentions to The Parsnips Don't Throw Money at Us e.p. and Santa's Little Helpers Salmonella)

Current Hero/Heroine: Gertrudi from "Like Water for Chocolate"

Comic book character/Superhero you'd most want to be for a day: Aeon Flux cause she's so bitchin.

Childhood fetish: Burying my Star Wars figures in my neighbor's yard, eating sand at the beach

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Charles Almy (Geology). He's very amusing and knows it, which is a good thing in a d.j.

Preferred kind of underwear: Thong, as all QFSers know. (Yes, she is serious.)

WQFS pet peeve: The Doors, Janis Joplin, and the Grateful Dead being played on WQFS.

(Becky also adds that she is often mistaken for many others on campus. Among them are Ellen Moore, Allison Davis, Amy Lydell, and any other tall female with short dark curly hair. We'll try and get it straight in the future, Becky.)

Name and Position: Dave Lee, Program Director

Otherwise known as: Puddle Boy, Trunk Boy, Johnny Cake, Trevor

Average bedtime: 2-2:30 a.m.
Favorite albums of 1993: Belly Star, The Moon Seven Times, Slowdive Souvlaki

Favorite movie quote: "It is one thing to want somebody out of your life. It is another thing to serve them a wake-up cup full of liquid drainer."

Comic book character you'd most want to be for a day: Batman because all of his actions have onomatopoeia.

Current hero: the pizza delivery man

Childhood fetish: the color green

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Bill Schmickle. So I could hear him talk without digressing into stories about his family, car, dog, Boris Yeltsin, etc. etc. He would have to be more concise.

WQFS pet peeve: (Not) signing out and people who live in the production room.

Name and Position: Louisa Spaventa, Music Director

Otherwise known as: The Kountess

Average bedtime: 4 a.m.

Favorite albums of 1993: Velocity Girl Copacetic, Cop Shoot Cop Ask Questions Later, Sprinkler More Boy, Less Friend

Favorite movie quote: "Set the little man free."

Most bizarre specialty idea:

WQFS pet peeve: The FCC in general and people who don't mark grids in particular.

Name and Position: Kirstie Pendergrass, Music Director

Otherwise known as: Olive Oyl, K.D. Lang, or Angry Youth

Average bedtime: 6:30 p.m., right after 20 minutes of reflecting on the day

Favorite albums of 1993: Cop Shoot Cop Ask Questions Later, Monster Magnet Superjudge, Daisy Chainsaw Eleventeen

Most bizarre specialty show idea: Songs that have been performed on "Puttin' on the Hits" or "Star Search"

Comic book character you'd most like to be for a day: Grape Ape. I would like to be a tall, purple ape. Now that's fun.

women who work in the Underground. They IAM!

Preferred kind of underwear: The kind with the days of the week on the butt.

WQFS pet peeve: All that stuff in alphabetical order, we should just throw it all in a pile.

Name and Position: Matt Busch, Productions

Otherwise known as: "The dude with blond hair, glasses, and a unique shirt."

Average bedtime: 12 am

Favorite albums of 1993: Suede, The Boo Radleys Giant Steps, Mega City Four Magic Bullets

Favorite movie quote: "The Force is what gives the Jedi his power, it is an energy field created by all things. It surrounds us and penetrates us. It binds the galaxy

Current hero: Gary Coleman

Superhero you'd most want to be: Spiderman so I could shoot webs from my palms, climb walls, and star on "The Electric Company".

Childhood fetish: Impersonating King Kong and eating Legos

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: William Carroll (Political Science), even though he's retired. Rogers and Hammerstein interspersed with Federalist Paper public service announcements.

WQFS pet peeve: People who jeer PSA's and sound like complete louts during voice breaks.

Name and Position: Eleanor McEntee, Business Manager

Otherwise known as: Ornor, FUN! ACCOUNTING MAJOR! RAVE,RAVE,RAVE, etc.

Average bedtime: 4:00-5:00 a.m.

Most bizarre specialty show idea: Armpit farting and other FUN body noises

Current hero: Vyvyn Lazonga (tattooist)

Comic book character you'd most want to be for a day: Storm from X-Men cause she's cool as hell.

Childhood fetish: Putting M&M's up my nose, licking and sticking pretzels on my face, eating purple and brown crayons, trying to make fish throw-up by shaking the aquarium

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Christopher Frost (Latin). Cos he'd probably read FUN Latin stories (o'core in Latin) and very few people (if any at all) would understand.

Preferred kind of underwear: Fun cutie bikini 100% cotton polka-dotted nerdie undies

WQFS pet peeve: I'll make you watch Accounting videos (Ohhkaay . . .)

Name and Position: Rebecca Potter, DJ Representative

Otherwise known as: Boss Lady
Average bedtime: Eastern standard

Favorite albums of 1993: whatever Louisa says

Favorite movie quote: "Explore, caress."

Current heroine: Those Greek single-breasted female warriors

Superhero you'd most want to be for a day: Superman so that I could take my clothes off in phone booths.

Childhood fetish: Mousetraps and cardboard boxes

Preferred kind of underwear: The kind that comes in a tube

WQFS pet peeve: cleaning up after Kirstie

(It should be noted that Rebecca is the one who is really in charge. The rest of us are merely figure-heads and we live in utter fear of her uncompromising reign of terror and dominance)

Your WQFS Staff . . . "Remember kids, 90.9 on your FM dial."

Nose whistling

Current hero: Remedios Varo
Childhood fetish: Belittling GI Joe with gangs of tough Barbies

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Dick Morton (English). The man's a verbal acid trip.

WQFS pet peeve: Hearing Neil Young, the Dead or Widespread Panic on my beloved station.

Name and Position: Alex Millkey, Music Director

Otherwise known as: Tom Petty on Steroids, Scott, "Who broke this?"

Average bedtime: 1:30-2:00 a.m.

Favorite albums of 1993: Joan Osborne e.p., Peter Gabriel Plus from Us, Casey Scott Creep City

Favorite movie quote: "By choice!"

Most specialty show idea: 1992-3 Binford Bongo Bash

Current hero: Johnny Appleseed

Cartoon you'd most want to be for a day: Mr. Magoo because I'd achieve my goals while leaving total chaos in my wake.

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Mary (of Cafeteria fame). I know she's not a professor, but she wouldn't let a single FCC violation go by.

Childhood fetish: Ballet

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Becky Gibson (English). Because listening to her talk is great.

Preferred kind of underwear: Underoos (Spiderman)

WQFS pet peeve: The person who calls me every week and asks to hear the Butthole Surfers, and when people play anything by Pearl Jam

Name and Position: Nicole Jurovics, Promotions

Otherwise known as: Darlene (of Rosanne)

Average bedtime: kind of pass out every 18-20 hours

Favorite albums of 1993: Soundtrack to the major motion picture The Bodyguard, Julio Iglesias An Evening With . . ., Freedom Rock '93

Favorite movie quote: "Uh! Marcia!?"

Comic book character you'd most like to be for a day: Veronica from Archie Comics. She pulls all these bitchy practical jokes but she's cool and she looks good.

Childhood fetish: Setting small animals on fire

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: The together."

Current hero: Wiz Brown (of Mega City Four, a British band that, if there were any justice in this world, would be renowned and crowned as aces of the perfect pop song.)

Comic book character you'd most want to be for a day: Batman because he has no superpowers besides his obsession. He is dark, and somewhat deranged, but is really a force of good.

Guilford Professor you'd most like to see do a radio show: Lou Fike (Political Science). I really would be curious to see what he would play and say.

Preferred kind of underwear: Paisley boxers. Tightly whities suck.

WQFS pet peeve: Idiots who break things, and lovely people who steal albums I want to play.

Name and Position: Christian Scanniello, News Director

Otherwise known as: Les Nesman, Ian

Average bedtime: 1:30 a.m.

Favorite albums of 1993: Unrest Perfect Teeth, the Juliana Hatfield three Become What You Are, Velocity Girl Copacetic

Favorite movie quote: "Sorry kid . . . but my sister needs a nose job!"
