

Local band Bus Stop debuts CD

Greensboro-based band "Bus Stop" will release their new self-titled album on November 15th. The band's third full-length album was recorded on their own label, I Want My Daddy's Records. Band member Chuck Fold believes this new album "shows the songwriting side of the band a little more. Like everyone says with each new album...it's the best one yet."

I first heard the band in '92 shortly after they formed and I've seen several shows. This band has an energy rarely found on the independent level. If you're interested in checking out their sound, they'll be celebrating the release of their new CD by performing several shows. November 17th and 18th, Bus Stop will be performing at the Blind Tiger. Also on the 18th they'll be doing an acoustic set at the Record Exchange.

Music Etc...

Local bands to raise funds for awareness in G'Boro

Planned Parenthood and Monkey Boy Productions announce their first annual fundraising and awareness gathering for affordable health care and responsible education policy called "Outrage the Madness." Sunday, November 19th at the Somewhere Else Tavern in Greensboro, nine great bands will be contributing their talent to the cause: Tina Lovings, BoB, Plunderosa, Touk, Running From Anna, Sugarcane, Jet Crown Dixie, and Slinky Face. Come out and support this organization in their efforts to provide women's health care services and sexuality education.

Review of Julian Cope's latest album, 20 Mothers

On the cover of Julian Cope's newest opus are no fewer than 20 Mothers, including his mother and wife, now the mother of Julian's two daughters. This may seem quite a change from the man who once wrote a song called "Out of My Mind on Dope And Speed." No doubt 20 Mothers has a maturity not as apparent in his previous works.

The good news is that Julian is ready as ever to rage against the greedheads. He takes droll aim at certain British officials as well as environment rapists.

The bad news is that the music and lyrics aren't as distinctly "Julian Copeish." A less catchy album than Peggy Suicide, it is not without its gems; "Queen/Mother" and "By the Light of the Silbury Moon" are standouts.

Perhaps what Cope is trying to do with 20 Mothers is give us hope for the future, point out ways forward. As we approach the end of the millennium, Julian Cope's vision is starting to make more sense.
