

THE GUILFORDIAN

Greensboro, NC

March 17, 2000

Club budgets due soon

By Kalindi LaTorre
STAFF WRITER

If you want money, just ask for it. Budget Committee is accepting applications for club budget proposals until March 24th.

Budget request forms are available at the info desk. A copy of the club constitution must accompany budget proposals.

Senate's Budget Committee allocates money from student activity fees to student organizations throughout the year. Representatives from Senate and other organizations spend several days in early April processing budget proposals and deciding how much money each organization will receive.

Budget Committee gives most of money to the more active student organizations.

"A club's activity is the best way to determine how much money they will receive," said Senate Treasurer Steven Karakasidis.

Director of Student Activities Dawn Watkins agreed.

"You've got to have a

Please see Money, page 3

Campus Compact clarifies values and principles

By Ben Hebner
STAFF WRITER

Campus community is a concept that evokes a feeling of comfort and stability from some students and a sarcastic snicker from others.

In the past weeks, a group of concerned faculty and students have come together to bridge the gap between the two through the creation of a Campus Compact.

The present participants in the project include Director of Campus Ministries Max Carter, Senate Vice-President Jenny Craigie, Philosophy Professor Vance Ricks, junior Jason Carter, and Director of Student Activities Dawn Watkins.

When asked what the Campus Compact is, Carter responded with further questions. "Do we have guiding principals that we live by, and if so what are they...and what does that mean?"

The Campus Compact will be a document intended to record our concept of certain rather vague terms such as "Quaker values."

The goal is not to restate the school's statement of purpose or the student handbook, but to clarify the principals on which they are based, and attempt to clearly lay out the values of the community.

"There is pretty good evidence that there is some gap between the way that

Please see Compact, page 2

Scouts and WQFS-ers display respective uniforms.

Girl Scouts visit WQFS

By Will Dodson
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

On Thursday, March 2nd, WQFS managers gave Girl Scout Troop 553 a tour of the Guilford College radio station.

Managers gave informal question-and-answer sessions, explained how the different equipment works, and distributed complimentary bumper stickers and t-shirts.

The girls met with an on-air DJ--a former Scout herself--and gave a live station identification over the air.

WQFS Productions Manager Anthony Lowe enjoyed participating in the tour, saying "I enjoyed participating in the tour."

Programming Director James Fishwick, Music Directors Tim LaFollette and Jeff Irving, and Station Manager Will Dodson also met with the troop, explained their roles within the station, and exchanged jokes with the girls.

"One of them told me a great joke, but I've already forgotten it," lamented Dodson. "Hopefully we can get them back up here so I can hear it again and maybe get some cookies while I'm at it. I was in Boy Scouts at one point in my life, and so I felt an immediate kinship with them."

The WQFS managers all seemed to enjoy the event. "It was great," said Lowe. "Plus, I found out that I didn't know how to work all of the equipment yet myself, so I learned a little something too."

The Guilfordian
c/o Student Activities
5800 W. Friendly Ave.
Greensboro, NC 27410

