

In This Issue

Students protest to free Jerry Godard, shouting, "Let the man retire!"
 Page 21

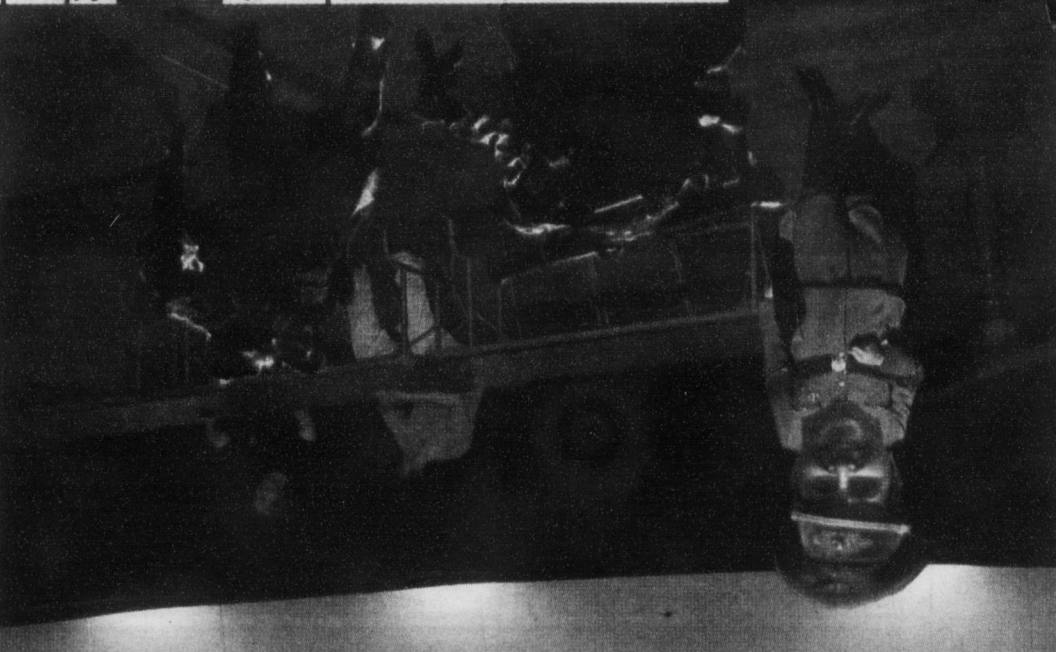

Program a Success
 Underway, Doss takes a minute to enjoy the premiere of the "Consensual Bolsheviks" and the "Quaker Retirement" program.

Doss Attempts Bryan Hall Putsch

Underway, Doss takes a minute to enjoy the premiere of the "Consensual Bolsheviks" and the "Quaker Retirement" program. Doss then took other Guilford administrators into his back office.

the black market - way more than a $50 fine." Though technically illegal, selling organs on the black market is one way Guilford can avoid further participation in corporate markets, while at the same time promoting and embracing fair break that monetary fines for al-rectors decided over winter ing and debate, Campus Life di-After extensive selling organs on the black mar get your liver." Lundquist. "The second time, plains Dean of Campus Life Anne cohol, you get a warning," ex- and they feel a pretty penny on the black market - way more underway, Doss takes a minute to enjoy the premiere of the "Consensual Bolsheviks" and the "Quaker Retirement" program.

Page 37

New Guilford survey reveals 98% of our graduates have college degrees!

lier this semester. "Well, same as always, the first time you're caught with alcohol, you get a warning," explains Dean of Campus Life Anne Lundquist. "The second time, we get your liver."

After extensive student polling and debate, Campus Life directors decided over winter break that monetary fines for al-

Program a Success
 Underway, Doss takes a minute to enjoy the premiere of the "Consensual Bolsheviks" and the "Quaker Retirement" program.

Program a Success
 Underway, Doss takes a minute to enjoy the premiere of the "Consensual Bolsheviks" and the "Quaker Retirement" program.

