CORRECTIONS

In Issue 18, the Anti-Racism Team's response to the use of cacauses on campus was cut short. Here is the last sentence in it's entirety:

This is one of the most important contributions we can all make to our Guilford community as we strive to heal our wounds and achieve true anti-racist community.

- The Anti-Racism Team

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN COMMUNITY SENATE

3/14/2007

•Community Senate passed new club status to The Clown Club, bearing connection to the famous Patch Adams. The clown club will be going into the community to help people laugh and smile who are sick or in need of cheering up.

•Senate heard a proposal for te Draw-A-Thon, an event that happened last year and was very successful. The event includes 10 hours of drawing nude models and music. It is an event to give young artists the ability to practice their skills and is open to all students in the triad-area. This proposal will be approved at next week's meeting. They are asking for $1200. The event will be held on April 6, for more details keep your eyes open for next week's briefing.

•Community Senate approved a proposal Glenhaven Photo Classes for $140. These classes are for the children of the Glenhaven Apartments, a service for refugees. The children will each receive a disposal camera and a journal. At the end of the classes, the students will have and art show on the Guilford College campus.

•Community Senate nominated and elected Mallory Malkin and Tory Mallet to be Senate's representative speakers at the Stewart Awards - the colleges' prestigious awards for faculty.

•Executive Elections are coming up! The two tickets include:

•Malcom Kenton - Pres
Johanna Breed - VP
Evan Drahzal
Gasster - Treasurer
Kieron James - Secretary

•Vital Akimana - Pres
Irving Zavaleta-Jimenez - VP
Brennan Aberle - Treasurer
Elizabeth Reilly - Secretary

•The election forum will be on Wednesday, March 21 at 6 p.m. in Boren Lounge unless otherwise specified.

•Elections will be held Tuesday, March 27 from 9 a.m. - 7 p.m.
