THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the editorially independent student newspaper of Guilford College. The Guilfordian exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Boren Lounge, and are open to the public.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor.

Letters can be submitted via our Web site (www.guilfordian.com), and should be submitted by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted.

By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.

ADVERTISING

The Guilfordian has a circulation of 1,500 copies distributed to several locations throughout the Guilford campus every Friday when regular classes are in session. If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service.

The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.

Spooky Halloween Masthead!

How'd we do that?

In the spirit of the holiday, Photo Editor Jeremy Bante carved The Guilfordian insignia into a pumpkin.
