

THE GUILFORDIAN

The Guilfordian is the editorially independent student newspaper of Guilford College. The Guilfordian exists to provide a high-quality, reliable, informative and entertaining forum for the exchange of ideas, information and creativity within Guilford College and the surrounding community.

General staff meetings for The Guilfordian take place every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Boren Lounge, and are open to the public.

LETTERS

The Guilfordian actively encourages readers to respond to issues raised in our pages via letters to the editor.

Letters can be submitted via our Web site (www.guilfordian.com), and should be submitted by 3 p.m. on the Sunday before publication and not exceed 300 words. Letters that do not meet the deadline or word limit will be considered on a space-available basis. Anonymous letters will not be accepted.

By submitting a letter to The Guilfordian, you give The Guilfordian permission to reproduce your letter in any format. The Guilfordian reserves the right to editorial review of all submissions.

ADVERTISING

The Guilfordian has a circulation of 1,500 copies distributed to several locations throughout the Guilford campus every Friday when regular classes are in session. If you are interested in advertising in The Guilfordian, send an e-mail to GuilfordianAds@guilford.edu for a rate sheet and submission guidelines. We can design a customized ad for you if you need this service.

The Guilfordian reserves the right to reject advertisements.

SENATE UPDATE

MARCH 18TH MEETING

OLD PROPOSALS

The Athens Boys Choir and Katastrophe

The Pride proposal to bring the Athens Boys Choir and Katastrophe, two prominent female-to-male transsexual musicians, was passed for $2,000. The artists will be performing on March 21, 2009 at 6:30 in the Bryan Jr Auditorium, and they will all so be holding a workshop earlier that day.

NEW PROPOSALS

Richmond "Day at the Fed" Trip

Senate heard a proposal to fund a trip to the Richmond Fed for students interested in undertaking careers in economic research. The reimbursement proposal for $300.00 will return next Wednesday.

GCRO: Stop Hunger Now

A proposal to fund a $2,500 Stop Hunger Now event on campus was brought to Senate. The GCRO sponsored event entails the packing dehydrated, fortified rice-soy meals to be shipped overseas. The proposal will return to Senate next Wednesday.

Buses for the Basketball Games

A proposal was present to Senate to fund transportation to the Guilford College Men's Basketball first NCAA Division III national semifinal game, for the 100 students who received tickets from Campus Life. The proposal for $2,000 dollar will be heard next week.

Executive Elections: Request for disqualification

Acting as the Elections Committee, Senate denied the appeal to disqualify the ticket of Nancy Klosteridis, Trevor Corning, Ian Ferguson, and Hannah Kennedy from running in the Executive Elections, leaving it as an official ticket along with the ticket of Caroline Hemeter, Jada Daniel, Bryanna Vohs, and Eleanor Taylor. During the meeting, Senate acting as interim Elections Committee also reinstated a provisional third ticket. The elections will take place on Monday March 30th.

Please visit our website at www.guilford.edu/senate ! If you have any questions, comments or concerns please talk to a representative or e-mail Senate at Senate@guilford.edu. All Senate meeting are on Wednesdays at 7pm in Boren Lounge at 7 and are open to the community.
