

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

It is just the most wonderful place imaginable! Those who were there last summer will tell you all about it—about its beauty, sociability, and inspirations! Its scenery consists of the most beautiful of all mountain scenes. There, a spirit of welcome and of fellowship exists, unlike that of any other place. A friendly, sympathetic, and most of all, inspiring atmosphere abounds everywhere, and finds its way into the hearts of all.

Besides being a place for consecrated worship and religious instruction, Blue Ridge affords another life. This is the athletic life. Every afternoon is devoted to sports such as we have on our own college campus. Often, contests between different colleges take place. There are tennis courts, basket-ball courts, and a large swimming pool. Then, those who are interested in the Walking Club here at Salem will find great fun on the mountainside hikes about that lovely place.

Blue Ridge is just an ideal college—college in the sense of living in the fellowship of several hundred people, just like ourselves, who do the same things that we do in our college. Only, there are inspiring lectures and discussions instead of Trig and Science and our greatly feared exams.

Then, Blue Ridge is just the kind of place to which you will always want to return if once you have been there, and have enjoyed the activities of its ten days conference. Last year, Salem was well represented, and why not, this year, have even more girls in our delegation? Let's make Salem one of the leading colleges there! With your presence we can.

The Arkansas Convention Delegates Return.

Eliza Gaston Moore, our President, and Margaret Russell, our incoming U. R., came back from the Hot Springs Convention with minds full of plans for the coming year, and "bubbling over" with enthusiasm for our local Y. W. C. A. From their enthusiastic reports and reminiscences, we feel that not only was much good obtained from the convention, but that they also had a pleasurable trip.

We are so glad to have been able to be represented at this National Convention, and are mighty proud to have had two delegates.

Installation of Y. W. C. A. Officers and Cabinet.

On Sunday evening, April the second, the installation of the Y. W. C. A. officers and cabinet for the year 1922-1923 took place in the library. The impressive "candle light service" was used. As a processional, the retiring and new cabinets sang "Stand Us For Jesus". Each member of the retiring cabinet carried a lighted candle. After a talk by Miss Mary Shepard Parker, the retiring president, each retiring officer and cabinet member presented her candle to the incoming officer or member as a pledge to faithfully perform the new duties of her office. Then, having accepted her responsibility, Miss Eliza Moore, the new president, conducted the remainder of the service. Miss Charlotte Mathewson very beautifully sang "The Voice In the Wilderness". After the recessional, "The Church's One Foundation", the two cabinets joined in singing "Follow the Gleam."

The officers and those who have been chosen as cabinet members are as follows:

- President—Eliza Gaston Moore.
- Vice-President—Julia Hairston.
- Secretary—Marjorie Hunt.
- Treasurer—Lillian Watkins.
- U. R.—Margaret Russell.
- Chairman of Program Department—Marion Propst.
- Chairman Publicity Department—Julia Bethea.
- Chairman of Poster Department—Estelle McCanless.
- Chairman of Music Department—Juanita Sprinkle.
- Chairman of World Fellowship Department—Margaret Smith.
- Chairman of Social Service Department—Laura Howell.
- Chairman of Social Department—Katherine Kincaid.
- Chairman of Room Department—Elizabeth Leight.

Jaunite Sprinkle has a mania for old-fashioned songs. Since Easter she has daily rendered variations of "Casey Jones" for the benefit of all her friends.
