VOLLEY BALL BEGINS WITH A VIM—FULL TEAMS OUT ON TUESDAY.

That volley ball, though not as strenuous and as complicated as basket ball, is a good game, is evidenced by the interest that is being taken in this sport. More than enough players to make sister-class teams were out to practice Tuesday, and others are planning to enter the contest. The fact that the Senior-Sophomore team won the first half of the practice game, and that the Freshman-Junior team won the second shows that there is good material on both sides, and that competition will be keen.

A GOOD START IN BASKET-BALL.

First basket-ball practices are always of especial interest both to the coach and to the girls entering this particular sport—to the coach because of her natural interest in the teams as well as her desire to make this season one of hard work, good fellowship, and earnest competition; to the girls because of their part in this phase of college activity and their very natural desire to make their class team the best of all.

The interest in the first practice on last Monday was manifest in the numbers who were out and the real eagerness of them all to start the season in the right way. That the girls fully enjoyed playing again was obvious.

If a good beginning assumes future success, it is certain that the Thanksgiving games will not be lacking in that respect.

THE FACULTY PICNIC. (Continued from page one)

Miss Keeney," and other discrepancies not to be mentioned.

At a fairly respectable hour the group broke up, put out the fire, collected the remaining doughnut holes, and slowly wound its way to the street car—in the moonlight! Or was there a moon?

REV. J. KENNETH PFOHL AD- DRESSES Y. W. C. A.

The Association Has Made a Splendid Start On the New Year.

Last Friday evening, September 29th, a large number of girls assembled in Recreation Hall for the regular Y. W. C. A. meeting. After scripture reading by Miss Julia Hairston, vice-president, Mr. Pfohl sang a beautiful solo, accompanied by Mrs. Pfohl at the piano. Miss Laura Howell, head of the social service committee, then announced the program for the fall. This committee is planning to render active service by directing the play time of the children at the home. Many of the girls have volunteered to tell stories and direct games. Miss Eliza Gaston Moore then introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Pfohl took his text from the choice of Solomon in asking his gift of God. He said that all of us, too, had a choice to make, and that the danger lay not in the fact that we would not choose the good, but that we might not choose the best. This address made a profound impression of the girls, and left them with something to think about.

The work of the Y. W. choir is especially commendable. Misses Laura Howell and Mattie Bowling, violinists, add much to the accompaniments. Singing will fill a large part of the Y. W. program for the coming year.

INITIAL MEETING OF RIDING CLUB IS HELD.

Interest Evidenced by Large Attendance—Members of Both Faculty and of Student Body Present.

As many Salem girls are interested in horse-back riding, a Riding Club is being formed to encourage participation in this wholesome sport. That the organization will be a success is assured by the well attended meeting, and by the plans made for the future. Mr. Fisher will directly co-operate with the officials of the club in supplying horses at reasonable rates and at special times. Miss Dorothy Sessoms was elected secretary of the club, while Misses Foreman and Leftwich, and Mrs. Best, of the faculty, will form a board of directors, or executive committee. It is evident that the number of enthusiastic horsewomen among our number will rapidly increase.

Stated Examinations.

Two examinations are held every year, one the last week in January, and the other the last week in May. In 1923 the mid-year examinations begin on Saturday, January 27; the final examinations on Saturday, May 19.

Special Examinations.

Deficiency examinations are held as follows: In the first week of March of each year, and within the first week of college in the fall. Such examinations are open to: (1) Students who have received D in a course. (2) Students who have been absent from stated examinations for imperative reasons.

Grades and Credits.

Salem College uses the following grades:

A—Excellent	90%—100
B—Good	80 — 89
C—Fair	70 — 79
D—Poor	60 — 69
F—Failure	Below 60

A student receiving a mark of D is allowed to take a reexamination. The reexamination must be taken before the course is offered again. If an F is received, the student is required to repeat the course. The privilege of two examinations is granted Seniors; only one examination is granted all other students.
