SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE TO THE FORE!

We have always had a vague idea that somewhere in the personnel of the Y. W. C. A. there was a social service committee, but just what it was there for, or what it did we did not know. We are no longer in doubt. Through this committee there are many opportunities for service, and one of them was laid before the association in the last meeting. There is very little opportunity in a college of this size for the social service work so necessary in the program of a college girl if she is to encourage a feeling of fellowship and good will. Having been ministered unto it is natural that she should go out and minister, and that is what the social service committee is encouraging the members of the association to do. Each week volunteers are to go to the Children's Home to brighten and enliven the recreation hours of the youngsters there. Later in the year other plans of the committee will be announced. Fall in with this work, and see what it will do for you.

It is not your duty; it is your privilege.

THE MacDOWELL CLUB.

Salem should be justly proud of her MacDowell Club; it stands for constructive progress in every phase of college life. Its recipe is most unusual, yet quite simple: take the elements of a dramatic society, add to this a few of the constituents of a literary society, and mix well with a little music. Add to this a whole-hearted college spirit, a few drops of class spirit, a heart full of loyalty, a dash of pep, and a desire for a jolly good time. The result is most delightful, and we have to thank Chef Yerrinton for its introduction here.

This year the MacDowell Club is presenting the college with a thing that no up-to-date school should be without—a moving picture machine. but is the real article, similar to the one used in the Auditorium. This machine will be used for educational purposes, and for entertainment. Beginning November 1st the newest releases, featuring your favorite stars, will be shown in Recreation Hall every other Saturday night, and in addition stunts and plays will be put on by the different classes and departments. A glance that this year's program will convince you that it is not only your privilege, but your duty, to support this organization.

SALEM COLLEGE ORCHESTRA.

There have been many occasions upon which Salem has felt its need of an orchestra, but this year for the first time definite steps have been taken toward forming an organization of this sort.

The following girls have volunteered their services:

Director—Eloise Chesson.
 Pianist—Harriet Uzzle.
 Violins—Mattie Bowling, Laura Howell.
 Guitar—Mary Ogburn.
 Mandolin—Dorothy Dorough.
 Ukeleles—Louise Young, Marian Pettus, Cora Freeze, Marion Yongue, Mary Howard Turlington, Evelyn Tucker, Lucile Reid.

Combs — Julia Hairston, Sarah Bright, Mary Alta Robbins, Sarah Herndon, Juanita Sprinkle, Ruth Crowell, Estelle McCanless, Corinne Clements, Lyda Elliot, Julia Staley, Ellen Wilkinson, Ermiae Baldwin, Mary Stephens, Margaret Davis, Elizabeth White, Elsie Barnes, Alice Cilley, Mildred Hawk, Foy Whitley, Carrie Mae Baldwin, Mary Warren.

The orchestra will make its first appearance at the house meeting next week.

BUSINESS MEETING OF SELF-GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION.

Monday, October 16th Set as Pay Day.

On Monday, October 3, 1922, the Student Self-Government Association held its first monthly business. After the roll-call the minutes of the last association meeting were read by the secretary and approved by the association.

The president, Miss Elizabeth Zachary, called upon the treasurer for a report of the financial status of the association. There being no assets and no liabilities the new year is begun with a clean slate. Miss Zachary, then, announced pay day for the budget as two weeks from that day, on Monday, October 16, 1922.

An important matter was then placed before the student body—that of the payment for stationery used by the Council and for the pictures in the Annual. A discussion followed, the outcome of which was a vote to meet these expenses with association money.

After the explanation of a few regulations by the president, a motion for adjournment was made, and seconded.

"COMINGS AND GOINGS."

"Campus life is the life for me,"
 Our Nichols M. said heartily.
 Mary H. Connor likes to roam
 In her sister's college home.
 Next is the uncle of J. Bethea,
 Guest of the girls for only a day.
 S. Boren came to see us too,
 And made acquaintances anew;
 Now Edith Hunt says all the while,
 "Didn't he have a wonderful smile?"
 Guess also "Bug" and Howell L
 Of the Hollands welcome tell.
 Into Lex. and Burlington
 Now Barns and Rauhut like to run.
 Great joy is "Rankin's" visit to her friends,
 S. socials with this last line ends.
