SALEM SPIRIT.

One of the worth while innovations of this college year, so significant to its progress and change, are the statistics for the Annual. Heretofore they have been interesting, but of a rather trivial nature. Surface and unenduring qualities were considered, and it was no overwhelming honor to be elected. This year the fundamental characteristics which a Salem girl should possess were considered. They represent the real, inner girl. The possession of these characteristics presupposes self-control, self discipline, and training.

These elections were held on Tuesday evening, October twenty-fourth and the large number of nominees to each office showed the interest and democratic spirit that prevailed.

The results are as follows:

- Sincere—Margaret Russell.
- Athletic—Adeleide Armfield.
- Loyal—Eliza G. Moore.
- Enthusiastic—Elizabeth Griffin.
- Merry—Cora Freeze.
- Sociable—Betty Vaughan.
- Poetic—Marjorie Hunt.
- Ingenious—Dorothy Van Ness.
- Resourceful—Bright McKemie.
- Intellectual—Edith Hanes.
- Trustworthy—Elizabeth Zachary.

PRIVILEGED RESPONSIBILITY.

When freshmen receive their privileges they simultaneously assume responsibilities. The greater the personal freedom the heavier the personal responsibility; important individual decisions become necessary. Therefore it is not fitting to welcome privilege as they are granted without considering and appreciating all that they mean.

AS TIME PASSES.

Georgia Crackers! Aren't you proud of this? Georgia has the distinction of having the first woman U. S. Senator! She is Mrs. U. H. Reiton, of Savannah, successor to the late Senator Tom Watson, and she's 76 years old.

They say shoes will be cheaper during the winter, but they do not tell us what winter.

Would you like to live in Lord Home Island, in the South Pacific? Perhaps you would when you know that no rent or taxes have to be paid for land. But go early and avoid the rush for the island has an area of only five miles.

Official notice of the betrothal of the ex-kaiser and Princess Hermine of Reuss, was posted Saturday morning at the town hall of Doorn, Holland. Next to it was the announcement of the coming wedding of a painter and a peasant.

The cynical bachelor observes that there are times when cupid must regret his nakedness. He would often like to laugh in his sleeves.

Dr. Bidon, "the most ingenious man in the world," has discovered methods of replacing paralyzed and useless muscles with mechanical equivalents. A man, out walking upon his mechanical legs, can even lift a mechanical arm and light his cigar!

Associate Justice W. R. Day, of the Supreme court has decided to resign from the bench in view of his duties as umpire in the German-American claims negotiation.

Guy Bates Past in the Masquerader, is to be given at the Auditorium, shortly. Watch out for more definite announcements.

The N. Y. Gian's take the fourth straight game from the N. Y. Yankees by a score of 5 to 3, and win the world series.

Do you know the origin of the phrase "Yours truly?," It dates back to 1632, when it was used in this form: "I solemnly assure you that I truly am, Sir, yours."

Lately certain persons—barbers to be exact—have decided that it is just as legitimate to honor an inventor of beauty as a great general thus these enterprising babers in France have raised money to erect a bust of Marcel, the inventor of the celebrated "wave."

EDITH HUNT ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGER SALEMITE

At a recent meeting of the Salemite staff, Miss Edith Hunt was elected as assistant business manager of the Salemite to fill the vacancy caused by the absence of Miss Marian Propst. Several nominees were sent in by the Junior Class, and the staff elected the officer from this number.

EXCHANGES.

State College Wireless Station Opens.

Raleigh.—Station WLAC, the new wireless transmitting station at State College, was formally opened Monday evening, October 16, Mrs. Edith Vandebilt, Governor Morison, Josephus Daniels, Frank Page, Dr. W. C. Riddick and other distinguished speakers being on the program for addresses.

The exercises began at 8 o'clock and due to the limited amount of space available admission was by card only.

The radio station is under the direction of Captain George C. Cox, formerly of the Signal Corps, A. E. F. but now connected with the Department of Electrical Engineering of the College.

Industrial Girl Speaker at Vespers.

The Carolina, N. C. C. W.—Miss Clara Walton, of Winston-Salem, was the speaker at the Sunday Vesper service on last Sunday. Miss Walton has been an industrial worker most of her life and was one of the eighty-eight industrial girls in the United States who attended the first session of the Bryn Mawr summer school for industrial women in the summer of 1921. She gave an interesting account of her experience working for the Reynolds Tobacco Company. She told of the hours, the general rules which governed the girls as they worked and spoke especially of the Reynolds Inn, a place provided for those girls who do not live in Winston-Salem.

(We remember with pleasure the talk which Miss Walton made in our own Y. W. meeting last year.)
