

ACADEMY NEWS.

The Academy students spent two very pleasant and amusing hours Saturday evening as the guests of our Y. W. C. A.

Zest was given to the party by playing, "Going to Jerusalem", "Where you were, who with, and what doing", "It Is I" and the Virginia Reel, which kept everyone in a constant uproar.

About nine o'clock Helen Bailey appeared with streaming eyes.

"What's the matter?" someone asked as she passed the door.

"Onions!" said Helen disappearing into the sideroom and leaving the door ajar.

Yes, it was evidently onions, for people all around the room were sniffing and big ??? were arising in our minds as to the refreshments,—when, some of our younger members ushered in the dogs.

Yea! dogs, real steaming hot-dogs with mustard, rolls and onions.

HISTORY CLUB FORMALLY FORMALLY ORGANIZED—OFFICERS ELECTED.

The History Club until the present has been only a nominal organization. Hence forward it is to be one of the most active organizations of our college. Miss Biddison of the History department in Wednesday morning chapel announced a meeting of the students and faculty interested in History. Mr. Heath presided at the meeting and briefly outlined the purpose of the organization and the program for the coming year. It was decided that the History Club should have the following officers: President, secretary and chairman of executive committee. Miss Alice Lyerly was elected president, Miss Moselle Culler secretary, and Miss Mabel Chinnis, chairman of the executive committee. The meeting was then adjourned by the president. It is anticipated that these occasional, informal meetings for special study of some phase of history or for reports on current events will be of particular interest and value to club members and their friends.

FRENCH CLUB MEETING MUCH PROGRESS.

A very interesting feature of the regular meeting of the French Club on Monday afternoon was the short scene in a French restaurant presented by Misses Sarah Herndon, Hazel Stephenson, Margaret Smith and Marion Schallert. The comedy of the situation was furnished by the son of the family, Miss Schallert, who was eternally making "faux pas" according to the mother, Miss Stephenson, but who excused himself on the score that his father, Miss Herndon, was his example, thus making the father rather uncomfortable. The work of these young ladies showed unusual ability and mastery of the language.

Miss Laura Howell taught the French songs, "Au Clair de la Lune", and "Frere Jacques", the latter of which may be sung very enjoyably as a round. For the rest of the hour a French game very like the American game, "Buzz", was played. At these meetings ability to speak French entirely is increasing, and it is hoped that before the year is out their influence will have been good for all the classes in this language.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

As the result of much planning and dodging, a delightful surprise birthday party was given Tuesday night between six and seven o'clock, honoring Blanche York. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations and hand-painted place cards. Chicken salad, olive and tomato sandwiches, cheese straws, crackers, nuts, mints, ice cream, cake and ice tea made up menu. Knowing Blanche as we did it was a surprise for us when it took eight trials to blow out all the candles on the birthday cake. The party consisted of Blanche York, Elizabeth Leight, Katie Holshouser, Harriet Souder, Jonnings Ross, Mary Ogburn and Ferne Young, of Walkertown.

The Carolina Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is to be organized at a meeting which will be held here Thursday, November 23. This plan of organization will be of interest to all music-lovers.

INFORMAL RECEPTION FOR SENIORS.

On Wednesday afternoon, from four until five-thirty o'clock, the Senior Home Economics students, who are keeping practice house, entertained the other members of their class. The occasion was an informal reception in the Home Economics Department. The room was very prettily decorated with pennants and crepe paper in the class colors, yellow and black, and with yellow chrysanthemums.

During the afternoon a delicious salad course was served. Receiving with Miss Kathleen Thomason, the hostess, were Miss Leftwich and Misses Dawson, Sprinkle, Crowell and Whitaker.

LOST—A Phi Delta Gamma Frat pin. If found, please return to Mattie Bowling.

The House Warming, which was postponed because of the death of our beloved Senior teacher, Miss Lehmann, is announced for Tuesday, November 28th.

Tickets for the Carolina Glee Club are now on sale. Be sure to get yours from some member of the Senior Class. Monday night at 8:15 is the time, and Memorial Hall the place. Admission for faculty and students, 50c.
