

INTERESTING Y. W. C. A. SERVICE

Freshmen In Charge.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last Friday night, the Freshmen presented a most interesting program. The service was given to the entire charge of the Freshman class and their suspected ability and leadership were clearly shown in this particularly inspiring service.

The service opened with a hymn, after which the choir, composed of Freshman class members only, rendered a very lovely anthem. Then Miss Moore, president of the Association, offered a short prayer which was followed by a duet, "Still, Still With Thee", beautifully sung by Misses Margaret Harris and Mattie Bowling. The speakers, Misses Frances Wommack and Helen Mitchell, were introduced by Miss Helen Phoebus, president of the class, who led the service. These short talks were most original, enthusiastic, and inspiring. Miss Wommack's subject was, "What the Y. W. C. A. Means to a Freshman", while "Sociability and Friendliness of the Y. W. C. A." was discussed by Miss Mitchell. The service was closed by the repetition of the Association motto.

The Cabinet is desirous that the Freshman class will still maintain such splendid interest and leadership in Y. W. as they have proved to all, their ability.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN BY HOME ECONOMIC SENIORS

Conclusion of Practice House Work.

The six weeks of practice house work by the Home Economics Seniors culminated in a delightful dinner party on Wednesday evening, November 15th, at 6:30. The guests for this occasion were Mr. Chas. H. Higgins, Miss Adelaide Fries, and Dean H. A. Shirley; Mrs. Howard E. Rondthaler, and Mr. John W. Fries.

The centerpiece consisted of a bowl of beautiful red roses. The light from a dozen red candles was thrown over the lovely scene. The place cards and stick-ups for the dessert were suggestive of Thanksgiving.

The following menu was planned and carried out by the class:

- Tomato Boullion
- Chicken a la King
- Roast Beef and Gravy
- Cranberry Sauce
- Creamed Potatoes
- Stuffed Peppers
- Celery
- Biscuits
- Butter
- Mousse
- Marshmallow Cake
- Cafe Noir

The dinner was pronounced a decided success by the guests, and they evidenced much interest in the future work of the class.

MISS FORMAN ENTERTAINS EPISCOPAL GIRLS

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Gribbin Present—Plans for Church Work Discussed. On Thursday afternoon from four-thirty until five-thirty, Miss Eleanor Forman, assisted by Miss deBarritt, who presided over the tea table, was hostess at a most delightful informal tea. A large number of Episcopal girls availed themselves of the opportunity to meet and to renew their acquaintance with Mr. Gribbin, the rector of St. Paul's church, and with Mrs. Gribbin.

Tea, cakes, cheese crackers, fudge, and mints were served by Miss Alice Dunklee and Miss Julia Hairston. After the general chatter had partly subsided, and after Master John, aged two, had ceded to his father some of his rights as the center of attraction, Mr. Gribbin explained to the girls just what the church has been accomplishing, and what its plans for the future are. He put especial stress on the work and opportunity laid before the college girl of today. Plans were made for the further co-operation in church affairs, and copies of the "Church at Work" were given to the girls. This social hour was indeed a most charming one, and it was with unfeigned reluctance that footsteps were homeward bound.
