One of the most valuable lessons we learn from college life is that of being livable. At no other time do we need to apply this lesson more than during exam week. Consideration of others is a necessity. Quiet should be maintained in the library, in the halls, and in the rooms; library books must be returned promptly; seats in the class room should be placed at a comfortable distance, and sheets of paper turned down as they are finished.

A word in appreciation of our Wednesday chapel services. They are worth much to us. The topics taken up are always of interest, and beneficial. At this particular period talks are being made on the various fields of service in which a college graduate can find her place. Miss Brietz, a graduate of Salem, has spoken most convincingly and appealingly of the work to be done in the juvenile courts of our country. There is truly a large field for service.

AS WE GROW OLDER.

As quite a surprise to Jennings Ross came the "many happy returns of the day" wished her by Katie Holsouser, Elizabeth Leight, Connie Fowler and Blanche York who celebrated the event on Thursday, January 18, by giving a party in her honor. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the place cards, nut cups, mints, cake and candle, so numerous? that not until the fourth blow was the last of them extinguished. Chicken and olive sandwiches, pickles, ice cream and cake, and mints and almonds were served. Thus was a new year ushered in, one which, is hoped, will prove quite the happiest and most successful of all.

Miss Ellen Wilkinson was delightfully surprised on her birthday last Saturday night by a number of her friends. They enjoyed a delightful buffet luncheon, consisting of fruit salad, wafers, sandwiches, olives, tea and mints.

Those that helped make Miss Wilkinson's birthday a happy one to be remembered were "Babe" Robbins, Helen Coble, Hazel Short, Margaret Williford and Daphne Raper.

Athletic Association Meeting.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Association a number of changes were made in the by-laws of the constitution. A change in the system of points is as follows:

Old System of Points

Four Teams—1. Winners, 4 points; 2. Runner-up, 1 point; 3. Varsity, 2 points; 4. Players, 2 points.

Two Teams—1. Winners, 4 points; 2. Varsity, 2 points; 3. Players, 2 pts.

New and Present System

Four Teams: 1. Winners, 3 points; 2. Runner-up, 1 point; 3. Varsity, 2 points; 4. Players, 2 points.

Two Teams: 1. Winners, 2 points; 2. Varsity, 2 points; 3. Players, 2 points.

There is a running-up team only when four teams play. This present system will apply only to the spring sports. The fall sports will gain their points under the old system of points.

The following dates were decided upon for the presentation of sweaters:

1. Thanksgiving.
2. First Wednesday after mid-year exams.
3. Hockey banquet.
4. Field day.

FORM ADVERTISING CLUBS.

change constructive ideas? In short why not form advertising clubs?

Mr. Earle Pearson, educational director of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, is writing a series of articles for the Collegiate Publisher. Mr. Pearson says that already included in the membership of clubs are several college advertising clubs. Missouri has one. So has Wisconsin and Dartmouth, and there are others.

It is possible for every college and high school to become affiliated with the associated clubs by forming a local advertising club. Mr. Pearson tells us that his office will gladly assist organizers in getting a proper start.

The Collegiate Publisher earnestly suggest sthat preliminary steps be taken at once. For as Mr. Pearson says, members of the clubs will be getting valuable experience and an acquaintance with a movement that will play an important part in their lives.

—The Collegiate Publisher.

"Speed is the most absent minded chap I ever saw," remarked a clubman to a fellow member.

"What's he been doing now?" inquired the other.

"Why, this morning he thought he'd left his watch at home and then he took it out to see if he had time to go back and get it."

"That isn't as bad," said the second man, "as the time when he left his office and put out a card saying he'd be back at three o'clock and then finding he'd forgotten something went back to his office, read the notice on the door and sat down on the stairs to wait until three o'clock."

Buyer of Lot—"Is there a well on the place?"

Farmer—"No, but there is a good place to dig one."
