NOTICE TO STUDENTS AND FACULTY.

RE-EXAMINATIONS

DATE—Monday, February 26th, Tuesday, February 27th.

HOURS—To be scheduled and announced during the week before the examinations.

Regulations—(Catalogue, p.58)—A student necessarily absent from examination must report absence PROMPTLY, with the reason therefor, at the Registrar's office.

If the reason is considered satisfactory, the student will be given another opportunity for examination at the time of the regular re-examinations. Students may not take examinations or tests in other than the regular appointed place, unless the work is formally supervised.

A list of those students entitled to re-examination s will be posted with the schedule, before the date for such examinations.

EXCUSES for absence will be accepted only when approved by the Dean of Women or the Registrar. No recorded absence from class is removed until reasons entirely satisfactory have been presented both to the Instructor and the Registrar. (The excuse given by the Dean or Registrar must be presented when an Instructor is asked to give permission to make up work missed by unavoidable absence from class.)

Promptness in presenting excuses is absolutely necessary.

ELEANOR B. FORMAN,
Registrar.

GUESTS OF THE COLLEGE.

On Friday afternoon the ladies of the Typothetae Convention were the guests of the college, and made a tour of inspection of the buildings and grounds. They were greeted at the door by Dean Stipe, Misses Josephine Shaffner, senior president, Edith Hanes, Ruth Jordan. Members of the senior class with the assistance of the lower class officers, conducted their guests through Alice Clewell Memorial Building, the library, back campus, and Main Hall. The administration and student body were happy to have these ladies as their guests, and hope they will visit Salem again in the future.

Those of us who were fortunate enough to attend the "Fancy Dress Ball" on third Friday night know that whatever else the student body (and freshman class in particular) lacks it is not originality!

JOKES.

Mr. Health: "Ah! My friend from Mooresville, can you tell us what makes the tower of Pisa lean?"

Cora Freeze: "No, sir, I don't know, but if I did I certainly would take some."

Miss Foreman: "Now to illustrate this, we will take the shooting of the albatross in 'Silas Warner.'"

Hazel Short: "Do you like cauliflower?"

M. Chinnis: "No".
R. Reeves: "I don't see why. think Connie Fowler is real sweet."

Said On Sunday Night.

Rachel Jordan (greeting J. Hairston just back from church) "Did you have a good time at the picture show?"

C. Clements: (after waiting ten minutes for biscuits) "I guess the maid is dead".

L. Moseley: (as maid appears in doorway) "Well, I guess it's Easter morning."

C. Armstrong: "I've felt C-sick ever since I read my report."

M. Whitaker: "And you know my father is going to marry this young girl—"

(Margaret's friends say her father is a minister.)

EACH CLASS SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN WORK FOR 2ND HALF OF SEMESTER.

Statistics from the Registrar's office were given at the middle of the first semester showing the percentage of students in each class who were reported as maintaining entirely satisfactory standing in their work; that is, having no grade below "C" in any subject.

It would be interesting to compare with this the mid-year records based upon reports of 15 or more points credited for the first semester.

Class	Mid-Semester		Mid-Year
	Per Cent	Per Cent
Freshman	37%	41%
Sophomore	55%	83%
Junior	72%	91%
Senior	87%	97%

ANNUAL PAY DAY.

Thursday, February 22nd is the time announced by the Annual Staff when the annual pictures are to be paid for. A fine of ten cents per day will be charged for every day after the 22nd before the bill is paid.

Earlier in the year it was announced that members of different organizations bear equally the expense of the picture of their organization whether or not they are in the picture.

It is comforting to know that the prices for the pictures this year are much cheaper than for former years.
