

RUSSELL ELECTED PRESIDENT STUDENT GOVERNMENT '23-24

Other Officers Elected at March Business Meeting—Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and Class Representatives Chosen by Student Body.

On Monday afternoon at the general March business meeting of the Student Self-Government Association the officers for the year 1923-24 were elected by popular vote. After the minutes were read by the secretary, and the financial report was made by the treasurer, Miss Zachary announced that nominations for the new president were in order. As is the custom, those candidates already nominated by the council were again nominated from the floor, and Watkins and Russell were chosen. A vote was taken, the result of which was that Russell was elected president for next year. Nominations were then made for first vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, and the ballots were counted with the following results:

First Vice-President—Estelle Hooks, '24.
Second Vice-President—Lois Neal, '24.

Secretary—Mary Hill, '25.
Treasurer—Katherine Lotspeich, '25.
Nominations were then made by the classes for their representatives, and a student body vote was taken with the following results:

Representatives of incoming senior class: Mary Howard Turlington, Marjorie Hunt, Jennings Ross, Louise Young.

Representatives of incoming Junior class: Lois Crowell, Blanch Yorke, Ruth James.

Representatives of incoming Sophomore class: Ella Brodie Jones, Evelyn Tucker.

With such a corps of officers the association may be confident of a successful year 1923-24. Miss Russell is well-fitted for her position of responsibility. During her college career she has held offices in all branches of student activity, and has won the trust and esteem of all her fellow students. In the vice-presidents, secretary and treasurer she has very capable supporters, and the class representatives have been most wisely chosen.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY IS GIVEN THE SENIORS

Wednesday afternoon, March 7th, will long be remembered by every senior who attended the lovely party given to them by Mrs. C. S. Siewers at her home on Cascade avenue. The lower floor of the house offered a pretty background for the gaieties with its decorations of jonquils and buttercups. Several games along with dancing were enjoyed during the afternoon. As the hour grew late Misses Marjorie, Margaret, and Mary Louise Siewers served the guests with delicious salad and ice courses. The Easter note was emphasized in little "bunny rabbits", which were passed as favors with the ice course.

Assisting Mrs. Siewers in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. J. K. Pfohl, Mrs. W. L. Siewers, and Mrs. C. F. Shaffner.

SOPHOMORES LEAD Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Misses Lotspeich and Schallert the Speakers.

At the last Friday night meeting of the Y. W. C. A., the sophomore class conducted the service. The meeting began with a hymn which was immediately followed by the reading of a scripture passage and a prayer led by Miss Sophie Hall. A violin duet was then rendered by Misses Esther Efrid and Elizabeth Parker, accompanied by Miss Katharine Lotspeich. After the singing of another hymn, Miss Lois Crowell sang a very appropriate solo. Then Miss Elizabeth Leight, who presided, presented the speakers, Misses Katherine Lotspeich and Marion Schallert who talked briefly upon "Ideals of College Girls". The service was dismissed with a hymn and the repetition of the Y. W. C. A. motto.

I. R. S. COUNCIL MEETS TO DIS- CUSS PROBLEMS

"Keep the Kampus Klean" Campaign Begun.

On Tuesday night a meeting of the I. R. S. council was called for the purpose of discussing questions of immediate interest pertaining to the student body. After a few introductory remarks by Dean Stipe, a general discussion was held by the class representatives. It was finally decided that the most important problem at this time is that of keeping the campus free from trash and refuse. The chairman of the Safety League, who is at the same time Fire Chief, was called in, and a plan was laid for the co-operation of her department in this matter.

The I. R. S. council, whose members are listed below, is planning to co-operate in any way possible with the administration and student body in upholding the high standards of the college.

Members of I. R. S. council:
Dean Stipe
Marjorie Hunt, Chairman.
Elizabeth Zachary, president student government.

Eliza Gaston Moore, president Y. W. C. A. class representatives.

Senior—Josephine Shaffner, President; Rachel Jordan, Ruth Crowell.

Junior—Eleanor Shaffner, President, Marion Cooper, Eloise Chessom.

Sophomore—Elizabeth Leight, President, Blanche Yorke, Jean Abell.

Freshman—Flora Spurgeon, President, Una Lindsay, Elsie Harris.

INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE

The first inter-collegiate debate to be held between any woman's college and a male university is scheduled for today, when a team from Vassar College, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., meets a freshman debating team from Harvard University. The event is notable in that it marks the opening of forensic contests between the male and female institutions of the country.—Harvard Crimson.

LENTEN TALKS IN Y. P. M.

Review of Last Days of Jesus

In the third of the series of Lenten services Bishop Rondthaler continued his inspiring talks on the last words of Christ before his crucifixion. He told of the early morning appearance before Pilate, the numerous accusations of his enemies, and the wise silence Jesus maintained through it all. The next scene was in Herod's palace where, by his taunting, scornful words, the wicked king insulted the majesty of God. Then, even more trying than this humiliation, was his appearance before the Roman Legion by whom he was subjected to even greater mockery and cruelty. Through all this and his later interview with Pilate, his bearing was calm and dignified and not one word did he answer to the taunts of his persecutors.

"There are times", said Bishop Rondthaler, "when patient silence such as Jesus maintained is the best policy." And he gave various instances of the hard feeling too hasty words have often caused. "Speech", he ended, "may have a silver tone, but silence is golden".

WALKING CLUB GOES ON DE- LIGHTFUL HIKE

Last Saturday afternoon was an ideal one for a hike, and the Walking Club was very happy to have as its guide Dean Shirley, who had not been with the girls for several months.

After passing through the cemetery, the members found themselves in the "train yards" just below the Roundhouse. It was indeed amusing to watch several dozen girls, in single file, hop gaily over cables, tracks and switches.

Soon the site of the new station—which the present day "Salem Girls" hope will be erected before their last trip to and from is taken—was reached. Just at present, however, one has to resort to her imagination to picture a handsome edifice standing in the gulley which has been selected for the building.

The course led still farther. Not far behind the City Memorial Hospital the girls stopped. The guide pointed out the new East Winston grammar school, which is now under the process of construction. It lies in a valley with ample play-grounds on all sides.

The return trip was made by way of Park avenue and lower campus. Everyone expressed her desire that Dean Shirley go with the Club again.

DINNER TO CLASS OF TWENTY-THREE

The following invitations have been issued:

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rondthaler request the pleasure of your company at Dinner

In honor of the class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Three Thursday evening, March the 15th at

Seven-thirty o'clock
In the Salem College Library
Main Hall Entrance

R. S. V. P.

152nd ANNUAL COM- MENCEMENT PROGRAM

Of 152nd Annual Commencement of Salem Academy and Salem College Friday, May 25th-Tuesday, May 29. Friday, May 25th and Saturday, May 26th is to be devoted to the Academy graduating exercises.

Academy Class Day exercises, Friday afternoon, May 25th.

President's reception to Academy graduates, Friday night, May 25th.

Academy graduating exercises Saturday morning, May 26th.

Salem College Commencement, Sunday, March 27th-Tuesday, May 29th. Sunday, May 27th

Baccalaureate sermon, Home Moravian Church, by Rev. Charles Smith, President of Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia.

Senior Vespers, 7:30 P.M., at the Home Moravian church, Rev. J. Kenneth Pfohl, D.D., pastor.

Monday, May 28th
Noon—General Alumnae business meeting, reunion, and luncheon.

Afternoon—Dedication of the Mary Strothers Barnes memorial.

Senior Class Day exercises on the campus.

8:00 P.M.—Grand Concert under the direction of Dean Shirley followed by the President's annual reception in Main Hall.

Tuesday, May 29th
10:00 A.M.—Daisy chain ceremonies. Graduation exercises. Address by Dr. S. Parker Cadman of New York City.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS BRIGHT MCKEMIE ANNOUNCED

Misses Denny, Jordan, Hairston and Hanes, Hostesses.

Come and merrily welcome be
In the living-room of A. C. B.
At five-thirty this Saturday eve.
Promise you that before you leave
You'll learn a thing of great import
And bring your wits, for we'll have sport."

In response to the above invitation the members of the Senior Class, Miss Stipe, Miss Leftwich, and Miss de Berritt assembled in the second floor living room of the Alice Clewell Building. Conversation was indulged in for a while, after which Miss Rachel Jordan and Miss Julia Hairston distributed pencils and a contest among the guests. The contest is printed below:

His Wife's Name.

Answers.
A Chemist's Wife.....Ann Eliza
A Civil Engineer's Wife.....Bridget
A Gardner's Wife.....Flora
A Humorist's Wife.....Sally
A Clergyman's Wife.....Marie
A Shoemaker's Wife.....Peggy
A Sexton's Wife.....Belle
A Porter's Wife.....Carrie
A Dancing Master's Wife.....Grace
A Milliner's Wife.....Hattie
A Pianist's Wife.....Octavia
A Life Saver's Wife.....Caroline
An Upholster's Wife.....Sophia
An Astronomer's Wife.....Stella
A Doctor's Wife.....Patience

(Continued on page three)