

JOKES.

Bishop (picking up Sophia Hall's card on Bible class)—Can you tell us what subject we are studying in particular today.

Sophia, rising, responded—Er-er Bible.

Fresh—Where's your room.

Soph—309, Alice Clewell.

Fresh—What floor is that on?

Soph (talking to several girls)—I went over to Alice Clewell last night and—

Fresh (interrupting)—Who's she?

First Student—I'm going to sue my English teacher for libel.

Second Student—What for?

First Student—He wrote on my English theme, "You have had relatives and ante-cedents."

Louise Woodward to Mr. Heath—Why had martyrs rather be burned to death than have their heads chopped off?

Mr. Heath (scratching his head with a puzzled expression on his face)—Ah, let me see. I believe you've got me there.

Louise Woodward—A hot steak (stake) is always preferable to a cold chop.

English Teacher—What's a metaphor?

Little Boy (raising his hand very high)—To graze cows in.

One Girl to Another—That fat Freshman is most dead isn't she?

The Other—Why?

First Girl—'Cause Mr. Campbell said that fat in a cell was non-living tissue.

SOCIALS.

Miss Josephine Lyerly visited her cousin at Hollins last week.

Misses Margaret Bencini and Katherine Raymond spent the week-end at their homes in High Point.

Miss Elizabeth Klutz spent the week-end at her home in Salisbury.

Miss Kathleen Riddle was at her home at Morganton this past week-end.

Miss Ethel Cox spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister at High Point.

Miss Marion Hines of the class of 1919 was a visitor at the College Sunday.

MacDOWELL CLUB NOTES

Miss Duncan, President of the MacDowell Club, announced in chapel on Thursday morning that membership tickets were on sale by representatives from the various classes. On Saturday the four college classes and the 11th grade of the Academy were reported one hundred per cent. The Club will be conducted on the same principles that it has been in previous years, moving pictures occurring at regular intervals. There will be five pictures shown before Christmas, and at least five after Christmas. The first picture will be shown on Saturday night, October 6th, in Memorial Hall and all members are cordially invited.

OPEN FORUM

I am a question mark!
Perhaps you are wondering
Why I am here
and why I flaunt my presence
so brazenly.

This column
belongs to the student body
and, so far,
you have left it empty.

I am wondering
if you have
no impressions,
or if you are
merely reticent.

I am an important
mark of punctuation
but it is not my duty

to occupy this space.
Write The Salemite
your opinions
and make my presence unnecessary.

Pleasing Papa.

Mother was entertaining a few friends and young hopeful was being duly shown off and resented it as all young hopefuls do.

"Who do you like best?" asked one friend.

"Mother", was the reply.

"Who next?" asked another.

"Little sister."

"Who next?"

"Aunt!"

Father who was seated at the back opened his mouth and asked, "And when do I come in?" "At 2 o'clock in the morning", was the reply.—Atlanta Journal.

"The Center of Attractions"

In Smart Apparel

Dear to the Heart of the College Girl

Our Store is Yours

Make it Your Rendezvous

Rosenbacher & Bro.

Fashion Headquarters

Clinard's Art and Gift Shoppe

Artistic Gifts

for all Occasions

Distinctive Gifts

for the House Beautiful

124 West Fourth Street
Phone 2661

WELCOME! SALEM GIRLS

We're Glad You Are Back Again

We invite you to make this store your headquarters when up town. Our new Fall Fashions are ready for your inspection.

Coats, Suits, Dresses, Hats, Sweaters, Skirts, Etc.

You will find here in ample variety just what you need to complete your Fall and Winter wardrobe.

QUALITY
THE BEST

THE IDEAL

Winston-Salem's Best Store

PRICES
VERY MODERATE

EISENBERG'S

The Ladies' Shop

The newest in Ladies' Ready to Wear
and Millinery at Popular Prices

15% Reduction

To all Salem College Students and Teachers