

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Miss Addry Mary Weisel of Baltimore, Maryland, will give an address in the Expanded Chapel Service on Wednesday, February 20. Her subject is "Training School for Christian Service."

On Monday, February 18, Tony Sarg with his Marionettes will appear in Memorial Hall, giving two performances. The afternoon features "Hansel and Gretel" and "Red Riding Hood," and the evening, "Don Quixote." These will furnish an afternoon and evening of adventure, fun, and sport.

The Advisory Board of the Y. W. C. A. will have charge of the regular weekly service on Friday night, February 22. This will be the first time in the history of our association that our board has been able to serve us in this capacity, and the meeting gives great promise of appeal to every member.

JOKES

Rachel Davis (in the infirmary and thinking about an English book that she had to read for English)—Babe, have you got Areopagitica?
Babe Robbins—Huh? I don't reckon I have; I've got only sore throat.

Mr. Campbell (in Biology class)—Some animals have simple eyes, some have compound. Now what kind of eyes have we.
The Class (remembering Wooley's Handbook)—Complex!!

Quite Unexpected
#Soph. (turning sarcastically to a Fresh.)—Huh, why you couldn't even tell me where the capitol of the United States is.
Bright Fresh. (very unconcernedly)—Oh from what I know, most of it's loaned to foreign countries.

Fond Mother—Here's a photograph of my little boy when he was a baby, and I want you to make one of him as he is now.
Photographer—But, haven't you brought him with you?
Fond Mother—No, I thought you could make an enlargement from this.

The State of the Union
The cleanest state—Wash.
The most egotistical—Me.
The sickliest state—Ill.
The most maidenly—Miss.
The most medical state—M. D.
The most paternal state—Pa.
The mining state—Ore.
The Buncho state—Conn.
The deep in debt state—O.
The oldest state—Ark.

Flapper — "Who's that fellow with the long hair?"
Lounge Lizard — "Smith from Yale."
Flapper—"Oh those are the Yale locks we've heard of."
Telling the truth saves time—you don't have to remember what you said.

"What become of your little kitten?" asked the visitor, of a small boy.
"Why, haven't you heard?"
"No; was it drowned?"
"No."
"Lost?"
"No."
"Poisoned?"
"No."
"Then whatever did become of it?"
"It growed up into a cat!"

To earn your confidence and then to be everlastingly faithful to it . . . this is our goal.
