MUSIC IN CHAPEL HOUR

The songs rendered by different grades of the Academy have been a feature of interest to the Chapel exercises. The eighth grade has given "Old Black Joe" and "Believe Me if all those endearing Young Charms," the tenth grade, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," the ninth and tenth grades, "Swanee River" and "Flow Gently Sweet Afton."

JOKES

Fresh (acting as if dead)—Oh, you've killed me.

Fresh (contemptuously) — Hey, put more life in this.

"Right face," said the dancer as he removed his partner's mask.

2nd Class—"You want to keep your eyes open around here today?"

3rd Class—"Why?"

2nd Class—"People will think you're a nut if you go around with them shut."

* * *

Fresh—What would you do if Salem Hall caught fire?

Soph—Stick my head out of the window and watch the fire escape.

* * *

Fresh—Hey, come on let's get us a sandwich.

The Responder—Yeah, I haven't but a quarter to my name.

Fresh—Oh that's all right; you'll be broke eventually—why not now?

* * *

Class o' '26—That's a new Math. prof. isn't it?

Same—Yeah, but he's only a figurehead.

* * *

American (in London) — Say waiter, doesn't anybody ever laugh in this hotel?

Waiter—Yes sir, we have had complaints.

* * *

Fresh (hollerin' up and down the hall)—Why doesn't that bell ring?

Soph—Oh, dumb bell.

* * *

"How did you enjoy your ocean voyage?"

"Dunno. I made the trip by rail."
