JOKES

Senorita Smith (Spanish Class)—
Senorita Harris, do you know who the Greeks are?

Senorita Harris — Yes—they're the proprietors of cafes.

"I tell you, hearing those star opera singers on the phonograph is almost as good as hearing them on the stage."

"Far better. You can shut them off whenever you like on the phonograph."
* * *

The Mistress—My last maid was too familiar with the policeman. I hope I can trust you?

The Maid—Oh, yes, madam; I can't bear them. I've been brought up to hate the very sight of them. Pa's a burglar.

Many a woman who puffs going upstairs, can rup up a hill without the least exertion.
* * *

Mrs. Buggins—Our milk man has reformed. He says he hasn't taken a drink since the first of the year.

Mr. Buggins—I rather had an idea from the taste of the milk that he was on a water wagon.
* * *

Wigg—Harduppe boasts that his friends never forget him.

Wagg—No wonder. He owes money to all of them.
* * *

No, Maude, dear; it wouldn't be nice to say of your friend who plays the bass drum that he beats his way through life.

"A man is judged by the company he keeps," said the sanctimonious person. "Not me," replied the chance acquaintance. "I'm a jailer."

MAH-JONG PARTY FOR MISS OLLIE GILLESPIE

Saturday afternoon, March the twenty-second, Miss Elizabeth Gillespie entertained at a Mah-Jong party at the Jenny-Briggs Tea Room in honor of her sister, Ollie Gillespie, who has been spending her spring holidays here. After several games were played, salad, tea and sandwiches were served. The favors, carrying out the idea of Easter, were most attractive. Those present were Misses Margaret Russell, Esther and Ruth Eird, Laura Howell, Margaret Harris, Margaret Peery, Edith and Marjorie Hunt, Ella Aston, Mary Ann Lindsay and Elizabeth Parker.
