The Salemite

Association.

Published Weekly by the Student Body of Salem College

EDITORIAL STAFF

Flora Binder, 25 Editor-in-Chie Miriam Brietz, 26 Managing Edito Katie Holbower, 28 Athlette Edito Frances Jarratt 27 Music Edito Pearl Martin, 28 Feature Edito Lois Culler, 25 Reporte Dorothy Stewers, 27 Reporte

BUSINESS STAFF

Margaret Hanner, '25, Business Manager Ruth Efird, '26, Asst. Business Manager May Hairston, '26, Circulation Man'g'r

With this issue, the present staff of The Selemite offers to its reading public the final product of its offers to the reading public the final product of its offers of the reading public the final product of the reading of the additional product of the reading of the read

"thank you."

To the staff of 1920-26, those of us who are withdrawing from the field after the publication of this was not are withdrawing from the field after the publication of this have traveled the road which you are now entering and we trust that have traveled the road which you have beaten down a few of the same of the stony paths which inevitably appear. Our wishes monothing some of the stony paths which inevitably appear. Our wishes for you are many and chief among them is the hope that you will depend on the same of th with the first of May comes the Adhough his dreams were not assuming of new dutates and new responsibilities by those who have fell state and the most including the most of their younger sisters and wishing their martles on the shoulders of their younger sisters and wishing their martles on the shoulders of their younger sisters and wishing their martles are not shoulders of their prompts and their martles of their prompts and their martles of their states o

Merton of the Movies Is MacDowell Picture

The MacDowell Club presented Merton of the Movies Saturday night, April 18, in Memorial Hall The picture was a light comedy am proved very humorous and interest

Gles Hunter as "Merton" was a poor orphan buy working in a small grocery store. His highest arabition was to be a morie settor—a real control of the process of the set of money, he had to strive for many years in the employ of the grocery amain morder to earn compile to pay for a trip to Holoyweod. Close to discuss the set of the set of the process and advertisements. Among the wide assortment were numerous the wind as the set of the se

Young Ideas

Our own waste basket is compara-ively sharmless and uninteresting at think what the contents of more amous ones must be—rejected man-scripts, applications for positions, rafts of treaties of international importance! The existence of such waste-basket must be indeed thrili-

Letz String Quartet Heard at High School

Tree moders, tree mouvements et avec passion.

Leta Quartet
Choquin-Blad A Hait, Stude C sharp minor; Prochet G major; PreLude F major; Marwka D major; Waltz A Hat.

W. Shattuck
Variations on "Death and the Maiden"—Schubert.
Molly on the Shore (Irish Red)—Grainger.

Leta Guartet
Schubert- Earp rought.

Dr. Frederick Hanes will speak at the Expanded Chapel Service on Wednesday morning, April the twenty-ninth. His subject will be "The Physician in Daily Life."

PIERRETTE PLAYERS
MEET APRIL 17th

The Pierrette Players met for their bi-monthly meeting in the can-pos living room, on Thursday eve-ning, April the seventeenth. There was no business to come before the club and immediately following the rell and reading of the nimutes of the foregoing meeting, the program the foregoing meeting, the program was begun.

The life and works of Arthur Wing Pinero were presented in an interesting manner by Miss Eliza-beth P. Parker. This was followed by the reading of Pinero's "Wel-dow of Wadsdale Inn" by Miss Rath Pfohl.

TRACK PRACTICE IS IN FULL SWING

IN FULL SWING
Treek presents it is all swing.
Courtery to general public options,
courtery to general public options,
track is not a sport limited to a few girls colling for rare desterity and skill. Its range is wide and varied and the average girl will find many Monday. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons are title days set apart for track practities. The practices will take place except when the weather is bad, in which ease practices will be held in the gymansium.

is eligible for the events we be observed to be compared to the control of the co

Begins at Salem

Baseball Season

Begrins at Salem

The basehall season opened at

"Salem" last Friday afternoon, April 17, with more girls on the allmany similar occasion in previous years. Freshmen were in the majority, but there was a fair representation of the other classes as and impatience on the part of engerstudents anxious to make the team.
The organization of temporary teams was quickly made and practice began inmediately under the can Griffin, head of baseball.
With such a promising beginning baseball will surely take its place among the leading sports of the Spring season on Salem campus, which will be placed on May 18, inter-class matches have been planned which will take place as soon as the class teams have been ruly organtime weekly schedule is as follThe weekly schedule is as foll-

ced. The weekly schedule is as fol-

Monday—5:00 P. M. Tuesday—4:00 P. M. Wednesday—4:00 P. M. Friday—4:00 P. M.

Eleanor—"Your brother is awful careless. Last time he came to my house the left his rubbers. He'd leave his head if it were loose." Katherine—"Yes, I know. I heard him say he'd have to go to Denver for his lungs.

Juliet-"What a pity it is that handsome men are always conceit-Romeo—"Not always, little girl. I'm not."

He—"What is a four-letter word intirely surrounded by water," She—"Fish."

"Mother, have you got a nickel for a poor old man?" "Where's the poor old man, my "Down at the corner selling ice

"Why do you want to excuse that juror! He says he will give your client a fair trial."
"And I believe he wanted to do it too," whispered the lawyer, with some agitation.

Lady—"Why have they let all the monkeys out of the cages?" Zoo Attendant—"Holiday, mum. This is Darwin's birthday,"

Pete claims that the oldest joke is the one about the Irishman who was handling dynamite in a quarry. He let a stick drop and the whole box went up, taking Mike with it. The hose sena around and said to the other Irishman; "Where's Mike?"

Mike?" "He's gone," replied Pat.
"'He's gone," replied Pat.
"When will be back?" asked
the boss.
"'Well," replied Pat, "if he comes back as fast as he went he'll be back yesterday."

A soldier from the front applied to the hotel for a job as cook. "What can you cook?" asked the

A commercial traveler visiting a large insurance office, boasted to the manager that he could pick out all the married men among the em-ployees. Accordingly he stationed himself at the door, as they returned from dinner, and mentioned all those he believed to be married. In almost every case he was right.
"How do you do it?" asked the manager.

"The married men wipe their feet on the mat and the single ones don't," was the reply.

The blind man picked up a hamner and saw.

The dumb man picked up a wheel—and spoke.

"Do you love me, darling?"
"Of course I do, Herbert."
"Herbert! My name's Arthur!"
"Why, so it is, I keep thinking nat today is Monday."