AT LEISURE

WHAT IS SALEMITES?

One who works on, and never looks for praise.

And keeps on smiling on the rainy days.
This is a Salemit.

One who will help a sister on the road.

And go to lift for her the heavy load.
This is a Salemit.

And if I wander from the dear, old place,
I'll try to overcome both time and space.
And be at heart a Salemit.

STUDENTS SAY HAZING BELONGS TO THE PAST

Columbus, Ohio (By New Student Service).—"Any man who is in any way connected with throwing a freshman in the lake will sever his connection with this university." With this preemptory statement President George W. Rightmire of Ohio State University announced the end of freshman hazing at that institution. Hazing may soon be as much a thing of the past in the colleges—as old-fashioned as rag-top trousers, recent college events seem to indicate. "Freshman rules and sophomore traditions are giving way before an enlightened upper-class sentiment to the effect that freshmen have a right to be treated as human beings," reports The Daily Cardinal, University of Wisconsin. The freshman and sophomore classes at the University of New Hampshire have modified the traditional freshman rules. Hazing has been abolished at Capital University, Columbus, Ohio. At the University of Cincinnati "Fresh tanning gives way to training." The Student Council has dissolved the Vigilance Committee and supplanted them by the Men's and Women's Guidance Committees, who are to train the beginner in the rudiments of University of Cincinnati traditions and campus rules.

FROM "THE AGNOSTIC"

The question of the advisability of an unlimited cut system has been prominent at Agnes Scott College for several months, according to an article appearing in a recent edition of The Agnostic. Action was recently started on the matter when a committee was appointed by the president of the Student Government to draw up a formal petition to be presented to the faculty.

The student body requests an unlimited cut system for Juniors and seniors, with the understanding that a student who has an infirmity excuse for illness be allowed to make up an announced test.

The students desire such a cut system for the following reasons:

1. That juniors and seniors have sufficient discrimination to decide from what classes they can afford to be absent.
2. That the present system of a six-day schedule with afternoon classes does not give the students leisure for recreation, or time for term papers and special work.
3. That the day students feel their present system of excuses places them on a high school basis.
4. That voluntary attendance at classes would tend to make lecture courses more interesting.
5. That it would develop a sense of responsibility, and train the students for graduate study and adjustment to social relations after college.
6. That this development would raise the scholastic standard and tone in that it would automatically exclude the students unable or unwilling to proportion their time and abilities, and would tend to encourage the other students in more genuine intellectual interests.

IT HAPPENS DAILY

Heshe: "Did you hear about the wooden wedding?"
Shehe: "Tl' he."
Heshe: "Two Poles were married."

EXPLAINED

"Isn't it strange, Lancelot, that this beautiful garden should smell of ham?"
"You must remember, Guinevere, that we are in the Sandwich Islands."

Diner: "Is there any soup on the bill of fare, waiter?"
Waiter: "There was but I wiped it off."
