Mary Clarke: What team does he play on?

I'm afraid I'd wake up and find myself dead. There is something spooky about this house. See Mary Neal Saturday night.

The most enormous selling wave ever known occurred on Wall Street, Wednesday, following the worst "doldrums" following the worst stock market break in the annals of that street. The Prince of Wales gives his reason for not marrying. He says: "During twelve hours of every day I have to be what other people want me to be. During the rest of the time I can be myself. If I married, I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."

DR. MOSS ADDRESSES SALEM STUDENTS

(Continued From Page One.) man for it. There is life back of all law. A person who has used his intelligence and has discovered truth can live freely in a world of systems. Jesus' purpose in teaching the perfect life was to help man to discover truth. Such men and women who have thus found truth are needed in our state today. The present boys and girls are to be the solution of the clash between society and individual. A parent should not force his child, he should make him reason, so that his reasoning will respond to that of the parent.

We are living in a world of human beings combined with law and God, the spirit of truth. Our part in this world is civilization. This is the spirit of truth which has marched down the ages binding the fragments of the world together in peace and strength. Truth should walk the earth with human feet. As it is, however, people are just playing at promoting civilization. God as the spirit of truth is perfect.

curl papers. Athena Campourakis as Mrs. Barrington, is a sophisticated widow of about thirty years and more designs on Mr. Jenkins, she does perhaps the best piece of acting in the whole play, keeping consistently in character and utilizing every dramatic opportunity. Louise Pazzenda has a worthy rival when Athena screams or laughs hysterically. Her facial expression is very good and her voice emphasizes the feline quality of her nature. Her antagonism toward Baby is delicate but perfect and leads to the latter's amorous embarrassment.

The Senators have worked seriously to produce the play during the Halloween season. Mysterious sounds, weird music and uncanny lights will add to the mystery of the night.
