The Seniors have made an excellent showing in this season's games and have made their opponents put forth their best efforts. Those of you who saw the final game have already made up your minds about that snappy Sophomore team. In no small degree do the Juniors and Freshmen deserve commendation, for their playing has shown the results of thorough practice and technical knowledge of the fine point of basketball.

The final game brought to a close a most successful season, and not only to spirit of the individual teams, but most of all, to the coach, Miss Atkinson, is the credit due.

SONGS

See on high like waving gold
The Salem colors fly—
Cheer on cheer, like rolling thunder
Echoes up to the sky—
See the golden tide is turning
Ever more and more
And we'll fight, fight, fight
And we'll win by the right
For it's Salem, Salem ever more.

For here's dear old Salem, to you
To thy standards we'll ever be true
Thy tall trees, thy dear ivied walls
Our highest faith and our love recalls
And as we see thy bright colors fly
We will lift all our voices on high
We'll sing to our Salem so dear,
For grand old Salem, good old Salem we will cheer.

Prexy Rondthaler
We greet you with a song
The echoes resounding
The campus all along,
We tell you that Salem
Is singing now to you,
With hearts and voices ringing ever true.

Pack up all my cares and woes
Here I go singing low
Back to Salem
Where a welcome waits for me
All my dear friends I'll see Back at Salem
Remember those good times we had together
Loyalty to Salem ne'er we'll sever
Lift our voices while we sing
Let her praises loudly ring
Salem, here's to you.

marked by an X until the gleaming treasure was upheaved, and they bore it back to the ship in triumph.

And now tonight all is ready for a mighty revel. The quaking prisoners shall dance around the treasure, their slow heels sped on by sword pricks and the music made by the rattle of heels of thumb-strung comrades.

Make way there—the first poor devil must walk the plank! 'Tis the defeated Captain (?) and right gallantly he steps out—and off! To the rat-holes, you quaking sissies. Begone you squeamish lady-fingers. This is a sport for men and hearties—this is a game for pirates bold!

Dr. Anscombe: I've had this car for years and never had a wreck.

Dr. Rondthaler: You mean you've had this wreck for years and never had a car.
