RIDING

Arrangements can be made to ride now, almost any afternoon of the week. Those expecting to ride will make their reservations with Ann Meister immediately after chapel. If you have any preference, reserve the horse you want. Since riding has been counted as a Physical Ed. activity, about thirty girls have ridden each week, even though the weather has not been very accommodating. Some brave souls, like Margaret Johnson and Miss Ferguson even prefer riding in the rain.

Join the ranks and learn to post with Sennie Hengeveld, Patsy McCullen and Bebe Hyde, or if you are ambitious try jumping with Ann Meister.

If you prefer to ask private questions about riding, see Anna Preston or Miss Atkinson. Many interesting things are being planned for the future, such as moonlight rides, picnic suppers, camping parties, and what-have-you? It is also interesting to know that next year during Fair Week, there is going to be a riding show. It is hoped that Salem girls can have a class of their own, but if this is to be possible, much of the practice must be done during spring.

VOLLEY BALL

Volley ball seems to have been somewhat neglected this spring. But in spite of the fact that it has had to play second fiddle to tennis practice etc., there have been some few faithful ones who have come out to play in the games. The series that have been played so far are given below:

Sophomores 2	vs.	Seniors 1
Juniors 2	vs.	Freshmen 0
Sophomores 2	vs.	Seniors 1
Seniors 2	vs.	Juniors 0
Sophomores 2	vs.	Seniors 1
Seniors 2	vs.	Freshmen 1
Sophomores 2	vs.	Seniors 0

The standing in games, then, is: Seniors — 1 Victory; 2 Losses. Juniors — 2 Victories; 2 Losses. Sophomores — 3 Victories; 0 Losses. Freshmen — 0 Victories; 1 Loss.

SWIMMING

The lovely outdoor swimming pool has been repainted till it looks most inviting. At least it seems to have "that certain something" for its popularity doesn't waver even on the coldest days. The pool will be open — on schedule — about four hours every day when the weather permits. Instructions is being offered, but if you wish to learn to swim it will be absolutely necessary to come down and get in the water!

The advisory board of the Y. W. C. A. is in charge of the vesper service on Sunday evening. Be sure to come because it's going to be very interesting.

Don't dare forget the tea on Sunday afternoon. It will be a pleasant interlude in the midst of other campus activities. You'll see your friends and you'll have a cup of tea which you can't afford to miss!

The members of the old and new cabinets are having a camping trip this week-end. Besides having good time together they want to make plans for next year—lots of good plans which they hope will meet with your hearty approval.

"Define an airplane."
"It's poison."
"How's that?"
"Well, one drop will kill you."

TENNIS

If you are near the Hut during Physical Ed. class and have a keen sense of hearing, it is just possible that you might hear the sound of the girls answering to the call of, "Step—swing, step—swing"—real tennis championships in the making. This is a most absorbing process but it is only the beginning. There has to be practice on top of that. If there were a cake race for practice, the cake would have to be divided between such girls as Margaret Smith, Elsie Chandler and "Nonie" Riggan. Even little "Gooch" might win a piece. This isn't a joke either. There is an old saying that "practice makes perfect," which you may have heard in a modernized version (perfect practice makes perfect), and, if you believe in sayings, you might try this one out. Let's not forget that Mrs. Helen Willis Moody is to appear again this summer to establish her crown, for Salem really ought to have a worthy opponent.

The girls who have entered the tournament are listed below:

Richardson	vs.	Armstrong
D. Graves	vs.	Hyde
Chandler	vs.	Walker
Abernathy	vs.	A. Stough
Thorpe	vs.	Gooch
Hadley	vs.	Silverstein
B. Stough	vs.	J. Smith
Thompson	vs.	Bliss
M. Price	vs.	S. Graves
Preston	vs.	Riggan
McMinn	vs.	Smith
Calder	vs.	Wolfer

Those who have survived the final battle are: Richardson, D. Graves, Chandler, Abernathy, Gooch, Hadley, J. Smith, Thompson, M. Price, Riggan, M. Smith and Wolfe. We are still waiting for the finals!

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES BEGIN THEIR DUTIES

replaced Dorothy Holderness, Leonora Schweize and Mary Catherine Siewers. The outgoing Freshmen Representatives were Edwin Dewey, Mary Ollie Biles, and Dorabell Graves. Eleanor Idol, the honorary member, as president of Y. W. C. A., took the place of Elizabeth Marx. The four house presidents, Edith Leake, Daisy Litz, Maria Brown and Katherine Lyerly remain on the Council the latter part of the year.

Anna Preston then addressed the students, putting before them the idea that the Council meant "direction." It stands for supervision, not "interposition." The girl who is on the council is not to be felt sorry for. The students have more conscience than the representative who doesn't suffer; it is the student who does not want to share the responsibility equally with the other students that does the suffering. After appealing to the sportsmanship of the students, the service was closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Organ Guild Is To Meet Here

Dean C. G. Vardell Makes Announcement of Event; Dr. Dickinson Is Guest

The annual meeting of the North Carolina chapter of the American Guild of Organists will be held in Memorial Hall of Salem College at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, May 15.

Charles G. Vardell, of Salem College, dean of the chapter, announced Saturday morning that an interesting program has been arranged and that a large number of out-of-town organists will be guests of the college at lunch and dinner that day.

One of the special features of the gathering will be the annual contest for organ students, sponsored by the North Carolina Chapter of the Guild. This is open to all students who live in the state, and are under the age of 24. Several entries have been received already, including representatives of North Carolina College and Salem College. The special guest of the occasion is to be Dr. Clarence Dickinson, organist and choirmaster of Brick Presbyterian Church, of New York City, and director of the School of Sacred Music, at Union Theological Seminary, in New York City.

In addition to being one of the foremost organists in the world, Dr. Dickinson is a composer of much distinction, his anthems, organ solos and other compositions, together with his many interesting arrangements of traditional sacred music, folk songs, etc., being known to all organists and church musicians.

Dr. Dickinson will play a program at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, at 8 o'clock Friday evening, May 15, the recital being complimentary, and under auspices of the chapter of the guild and of St. Paul's church. His program will include the famous "Cathedral," prelude, and "Fugue," by Bach, two of Bach's lighter compositions, the finale from Liszt's brilliant fantasia, "Al Nod ad Altareum—Undine," Cesar Franck's celebrated "Pice Heroique," and the intermezzo Scherzo, from Symphony.

In addition there will also be numbers by Hendrik, Andriessen, Rinck, Novak, Moussorgsky, Sinding and MacDowell.
