SORORITY GAMES

The Beta-Theta championship basketball game on Thursday night in the Hut, brought to a close the Sorority Basketball Series with the Thetas the winners of the tournament. On Monday night, February 8th, the Thetas defeated the Sigmas by the score of 46 to 10; on Wednesday night the Thetas defeated the Kappas 25 to 13; on Thursday night the Thetas defeated the Betas 13 to 12.

The line-up of the Sigma-Theta game, the first of the series, was as follows:

Sigmas	Thetas
McKinnon	Holderness
L.F.	McNair
R.F.	Elizabeth Leake
Center	M. Hanes
K. Lasater	C.G.
M. Price	R.G.
E. Price	L.G.

As the line-up shows there were only five players on each team. Starting for the Thetas were Pat Holderness and Elizabeth Leake. Ann McKinnon was the outstanding player for the Sigmas.

DAFFODOWNDILLY

She wore her yellow sun-bonnet,
She wore her greenest gown;
She turned to the south wind
And curtsied up and down.
She turned to the sunlight
And shook her yellow head,
And whispered to her neighbor:
"Winter is dead."

THEATRES

AT THE CAROLINA

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday
Finally it has arrived—the long-awaited picture in which Ina Claire stars, "The Greeks Had a Word For Them." Today that elusive quality "it" is an eternally interesting problem, and the fact that the Greeks did have a name for "it," plural, makes it doubly interesting.
Thursday, Friday and Saturday
Ruth Chatterton, supported by the fascinating Paul Lukas and the late Robert Ames, plays in a picture made particularly for her, "Tomorrow and Tomorrow" is a picture which no one can really afford to miss.

AT THE STATE

Monday and Tuesday
"EAST OF BORNEO"
Wednesday and Thursday
"AGE FOR LOVE"
With Billie Dove and Charles Street, as well as a program by the Shelton-Amos Players.
Friday and Saturday
"THE BIG SHOT"
With the Oklahoma Cowboys on the Stage.

INTRAMURAL GAMES

Although "The Cutest Ones" fought hard to uphold their name on Thursday afternoon, they were swept down by the rosary-rays of "The Fleuroscope," with a score of twenty-two to seventeen.

Shocky O'Brien, jumping center of "Fleuroscopes" and champion dribbler stacked up fourteen points for her team. Maggie Holleman and Ray Carroll showed their cutest ability in shooting three field goals each for the cuties. Biles, Johnson and Stough did some excellent guard work for their teams.

The line-up was as follows:
"Fleuroscopes" — "Cutest Ones"
Shocky O'Brien D. Heidenreich
Center
Martha Binder R. Carroll
R.F.
Jo. Walker M. Holleman
L.F.
"Shorty" Biles A. Stough
C.G.
M. Johnson J. Jetton
R.G.
L. Holleman R. Adams
L.G.

Substitutes for Fleuroscopes were: White for Walker; Althoff for Biles; Althoff for Holleman.
Subs for Cuties were: Huntington for Heidenreich; Heidenreich for Jetton.

STUDENTS PERFORM AT MUSIC HOUR

Unusually Interesting Program Is Given by Student Performers

Student's recitals continue to be popular at Music Hour. Next Thursday, the recital will be given by the children of the Music School. World Events

U. S. A. Protects Its Own

This entire week the United States has heard the distant rumbling of the Sino-Japanese war, and all the time it has been wondering just what it should do about it. Thus far directions have been given to send to Shanghai the 31st regiment along with several hundred marines. These troops are sent only for the protection of our own people and property, and for the general maintenance of order in the International Settlement. However, the entire American battle fleet, well-supplied, has gone to Hawaii for battle practice. Is it significant that China is only seven days' travel away from Hawaii?

Finland Dislikes Prohibition

Prohibition evidently did not work in Finland, for in response to an urgent request from the people, the Finnish Diet, believing that the voters wanted cheap liquor, established the prices. Because they realized that they were doomed, the bootleggers sold their stock at a fifty percent discount. Last week one could buy liquor cheaper in Helsingfors than in any metropolis of Europe.

Starving Germans Apply to Mayor

Scores of blind, starving, and altogether dejected German citizens gathered around the Court House in Berlin. So hopeless were they that no police officer had bothered to prevent what might have been an insane mob. In an almost orderly manner they called for the mayor, who after interviewing three of them, promised to do what he could to relieve their misery and dismissed them.

Sunday School Kidnappers

Two church members in New Bedford certainly found a unique method of enticing truant children to Sunday School. By the unfeeling aid of lollypops the two zealots lured the children into a truck and carried them to Sunday School. The plan worked marvelously until some Catholic children fell for the lollypops. However, in spite of the interference there was a total attendance of 1,373 at the Sunday School.

Kaiser Bill's View on Depression

We have heard several explanations for the present depression, and few of them have been really satisfactory. The latest explanation comes from the former Kaiser Wilhelm: "The 'World Crisis' the Allies are also suffering from is the Punishment Providence is meting out to them for their Crimes in 1914 and at Versailles 1918!"

Al Tries Again

This year is the year for presidential election! It seems that both the Republican and the Democratic party are becoming anxious. The latest news along that particular line is that Al Smith (East Side, West Side) is merely waiting for the invitation to run. After being defeated as he was, it must take a huge amount of courage to try again. He's to be admired for that. But, it must not take much common sense to recognize defeat!

SOPHOMORE SURPRISE PARTY

Saturday night, February 20, the Sophomores will present an entertainment at 7:30 in Memorial Hall. This entertainment will be a surprise and will be well worth your 15c. The entertainment will include a dance in the recreation room of Louisa Biting. Come and bring your friends!

THE TREE

I am four monkeys.
One hangs from a limb,
Tail-wise,
Chattering at the earth;
Another is cramming his belly with cocoonnut;
The third is up in the top branches,
Quizzing the sky;
And the fourth—
He's chasing another monkey.
How many monkeys are you?
—Alfred Kreymborg.

"What are the young man's intentions, daughter?"
"Well, he's been keeping me pretty much in the dark."

Visitor: "How old are you, Bobbie?"
Bobbie: "I'm just at the awkward age."

Visitor: "Really? And what do you call the awkward age?"
Bobbie (bitingly): "I'm too old to cry an' too young to swear."

One of the motion picture men lurching at the Astor, told this story about his little son who is in a public school. The kid was asked by the teacher:

"Who invented the pendulum?"
"The cinema scion thought a minute and got the answer, which was this: "Penjumium Franklin."
"That boy will be a title writer for the movies sure," commented a listener in.

"How are your children getting along?"
"Oh, fine. Tony wants to be a racketeer, and Molly wants to be a chorus girl."
"But what happened to Al?"
"Oh, well, he had to kill him. He wanted to go to college."—U. of S. Calif. Wampus.
