

SOCIETY

CIVITANS AND WIVES ENTERTAINED AT SALEM

Thursday Evening Banquet And Tour of Campus Prove Entertaining Events

Hope is in the minds of all Salem students that a new tradition has been started, such as the Civitan Dinner that was held in the College dining room, Thursday evening, April 21. The Civitans and their wives gathered in Main Hall at 6:00 o'clock and were escorted by Juniors and Seniors to the dining room where an impromptu orchestra, directed by Miss Jane Williams, played the music for the guests while they entered the dining room. The members of the orchestra, dressed in yellow and white, furnished music throughout the dinner.

Dr. Rondthaler made a speech of welcome and then turned the program over to Miss Anna Preston who presided for the remainder of the evening. Led by Miss Daisy Litz, song leader, the students joined in singing songs to the Civitans. Several members of the Senior Class introduced outstanding Civitans, including Mr. Haddon Kirk, president of the organization, Mr. Harry Atchison, Mr. David Ricks, Mr. Sam Harper, Mr. Irving Ball, Mr. E. L. Davis, Dr. Wingate Johnson, and Mr. Jack Kesler.

Several extemporaneous speeches were made when at the request of the students, members of the Civitans were called upon to talk. Strange to say, the bachelors proved to be the most patronizing, even to Mr. Roy J. Campbell. Miss Mary B. Williams sang "The Message," "Moon Marketing," "Tired," and "Silver Moon."

After dinner the Civitans and the "Civitanettes" were escorted over the college campus. The Practice House, the Science Laboratories, and the Louisa Wilson Biting Building were the most interesting places visited.

PERSONALS

The following girls are at home this week-end: Nina Way Credle in Washington, Pat Holderness in Tarboro, Bet Miller in Kinston, Lena Petree in Rural Hall and Helen Graber in Kannapolis.

Emily Boger is attending her sister's wedding in Albemarle.

Daisy Litz is visiting in Madison.

Sarah Jetton will spend Sunday at her home in Davidson.

Ollie Leake Hammond will be the guest of Miss Betty Tuttle in Leaksville Sunday.

Susan Calder and Martha Davis will attend the North Carolina Conference for Social Service to be held in Durham April 24-26.

World Events

Statesmen Meet in London

For the purpose of discussing the coming Four-Power Conference and the proposed Danubian accord, French and British statesmen are meeting in London Sir W. Runciman, Neville Chamberlain, Andre Tardieu, Ramsay MacDonald, Pierre Pflandin, M. Florian and Sir John Simon are present.

Mrs. Helen Moody Has New Bob

In spite of her protests against bobbed hair, Mrs. Helen Willis Moody has succumbed to fashion's voice. She now has a sleek, moulded bob, which she said should be more comfortable for playing tennis.

Grand Duchess Arrives

Marie, Grand Duchess of czarist Russia, has arrived in San Francisco for a series of lectures in California. The Duchess, whose full name is Marie Pavlovna Romanoff, was a niece of the late Czar Nicholas and the wife of a prince of Sweden.

Professor McKee Makes Diamonds

Professor Ralph McKee of Columbia University has announced a new process for making artificial diamonds larger than ever before, at a cost of $5,000 a carat, compared with $500 a carat as previously. He has also announced a process for making artificial wool from jute, costing 25¢ a pound. The present price of wool is 35¢ a pound.

MISS KWEI TALKS OF CHINESE SOCIETY

(Continued from Page One) what they would do. But however the Chinese did rally and defend their country in a manner remarkable for their unpreparedness. China looks up to America and although Miss Kwei does not wish to make any of her people typically American, she does want to carry to her country some of America's customs and advancements.

Miss Kwei is the dean of a large Chinese girls' college and she is now studying at the University of North Carolina. Her short talk of last Saturday, which was informative as well as remarkably entertaining, has done much to promote friendly interests toward China.

SCRAMBLED EGGS

(By William L. Brownell)

The finest endowment policy ever bestowed upon a man is the ABILITY to work, the DESIRE to work and the ENJOYMENT of work.

Refusing to look the naked truth in the face is what might be termed false modesty.

It is usually on our detours that we pick up the tacks.

My friend trusts me and that is one more trap to hold me up.

If you lose, your judgment was faulty; if you win, you should have risked more.

Sympathy is the cement that binds friendships.

ROLLICKING COMEDY IS PRESENTED BY SENIORS

(Continued from Page One) the excitement and in the midst of a double wedding, Cyrus woke up. He found no one except the playwright, who had escaped from an insane asylum and was sent back there under guard.

Cyrus Stubbs, otherwise known as Mr. Conrad Van Hyming, was an extremely realistic country hotel owner, assisted in his work quite delightfully by none other than Miss Frances Caldwell, who "hane" a Swedish maid to perfection. Pierson Ricks showed those two celebrated chorus girls, Litz and Brown, just how "naughty but nice" traveling salesmen really are. Winifred Fisher and Judge Wharton, the young elopers, presented a decided contrast to John Fries Blair, the hen-pecked husband, and Mary Alice Beaman, the "hen-pecking" wife. Portraying their parts equally well were Ann Meister, as Stella Dapew, an exhorcist girl, who had risen to great heights, Mary Mitchell Norman, an adventuress, and her husband, Ben Eaton, B. C. Wilson, the "loony" playwright, and Roy J. Campbell, Professor and Keeper of the bugs and nuts.

PROFESSOR OF PSYCHOLOGY ADDRESS-ES STUDENT BODY

(Continued from Page One) subject that the applause of the students and the comments of Dr. Rondthaler provoked a promise from Dr. Crane that he would return to this college.

they talk
mildness - better taste -

Chesterfield

They Satisfy... ALL YOU COULD ASK FOR

Chesterfield Radio Program

MON. & THUR.	TUES. & FRI.	WED. & SAT.
BOSWELL	ALEX	RUTH
SISTERS	GRAY	ETTING
10:30 P.M. E. ST. 10:30 P.M. E. ST. 10 P.M. C.S.T.

SHILKRET'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday
NORMAN BICKENSHIRE, Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK